Egan SJ,1998-09-16 Christian mysticism is unique in its view of Jesus death and resurrection as the very cause and exemplar of the mystical life in all its purity Jesus saving death on the cross exemplifies the mystical letting go of everything consoling tangible and finite in order to surrender totally to the mystery of the Father s unconditional love In this introduction to Christian mysticism Reverend Harvey Egan S J presents four Christian mystics as paradigms of the classical tradition St Ignatius of Loyola St Teresa of Avila St John of the Cross and the unknown author of the Cloud of Unknowing From this foundation he moves to two contemporary figures Thomas Merton and Pierre Teilhard de Chardin each of whom reflects a contemporary transposition of the two mystical traditions the apophatic which emphasizes the radical difference between God and creatures and the kataphatic which emphasizes the similarity between God and creatures Growing into God John R. mystical journey themselves      An Introduction to Christian Mysticism Jason M. Baxter, 2021-03-16 This brief accessibly written volume introduces key figures texts and themes of the mystical tradition and shows how and why the mystics can speak to the church today Jason Baxter an expert educator and storyteller explains that the mystical tradition offers a more robust understanding of God than our current shallow conceptions Featuring engagement with primary sources and suitable for use in a variety of courses this book argues that the mystics have much to say to contemporary Christians searching for authentic modes of spirituality      Teachings of the Christian Mystics Andrew Harvey, 1997-12-16 The Christian mystics are the treasure of Western civilization yet they remain little known among those of us who are potentially their spiritual heirs Andrew Harvey s anthology confronts us with the mystics in their own words to show us how well they serve even now as guides for the spiritual life and to challenge our preconceived ideas about the path of Christianity He has chosen selections that represent all eras of the Christian tradition as well as the amazing range of people who have embodied it people like Francis of Assisi Meister Eckhart Julian of Norwich Teresa of Avila Thomas Merton Bede Griffiths and many others      The Riddle of Christian Mystical Experience Paul Mommaers, 2003 A distinctive feature of mystical experience is that it is imageless Mystics of various traditions witness indeed to their going beyond all intermediaries so as to enjoy immediate union Understandably the idea of imageless immediacy is attractive and it is especially in vogue with those who hope to discover that different religious spiritualities converge if only the particularity of say the Christian way would be left behind However a crucial question arises here If mystical union consists in simply transcending what is part and parcel of the human condition where is its relevance Is the mystic as such in a position to be his or her human self thinking and loving enjoying and suffering Can he or she be active in the world of humankind Obviously it is especially in the Christian tradition that this matter comes to the fore as a radical difficulty For here there is the divine Image and Mediator so much so that the Humanity of Jesus ought to be integral to a person s union with God Perhaps the Christian mystic is such an extraordinary figure that the Humanity and all other images and intermediaries are for him or her at best a stepping stone that is bound to disappear The Riddle of Christian Mystical Experience aims to clarify this issue by analyzing the writings of such visionaries as Julian of Norwich Teresa of Avila and Maria Petyt of the ecstasy minded masters Richard of Saint Victor Bernard of Clairvaux and Bonaventure describing Francis of Assisi s experience of the cream of the Flemish mystics namely Hadewijch and Jan van Ruusbroec Nevertheless the preference for the mystical text does not prevent the Riddle from drawing on the insights of modern philosophers such as Jean Paul Sartre and Jean Luc Marion when treating of images and idols or Michael Polanyi and Ludwig Wittgenstein when reflecting on intermediaries The main result of this procedure may come as a surprise Far from turning into a detached creature who forgets about the Humanity and the human the full fledged mystic is as a Flemish mystic puts it wholly in God where he rests in enjoyment and wholly in himself where he loves with works Experiencing union with intermediary and without intermediary the true Christian mystic is unimaged as well as imaged
