Myth And Archive A Theory Of Latin American Narrative:

Myth and Archive Roberto González Echevarría, 1998 Discusses the theory of the origin and evolution of the Latin American narrative and the emergence of the modern novel Myth and Archive Roberto González Echevarría, 2006-02-13 Myth and Archive offers a new theory about the origin and evolution of the Latin American narrative and about the emergence of the modern novel Instead of following the traditional categories set up by literary history Professor González Echevarría explores the relationship of the narrative to the language of authority the law in the colonial period science in the nineteenth century and anthropology in the twentieth century The book contains readings of major works in the tradition such as Garcilaso el Inca's Comentarios reales Sarmiento's Facundo Carpentier's Los pasos perdidos and García Márquez's Cien años de soledad Sub-versions of the Archive Carlos Riobó, 2010-12-29 Sub Versions of the Archive Manuel Puig's and Severo Sarduy's Alternative Identities analyzes recent theories of the archive to examine how Manuel Puig and Severo Sarduy reformulate the Latin American literary tradition This study focuses on eclectic theories of the archive as both repository and danger drawing from an array of sources both within and outside the Hispanic literary tradition from Borges Foucault Arrom Derrida González Echevarría and Guillory to digital media and biotechnology This book also applies theories of cultural contamination María Lugones and symbolic capital Pierre Bourdieu to the novels of Puig and Sarduy to explore the representation of marginal cultures within a body of literature that previously altered or elided these subaltern cultures from the tradition Through close readings and critical theoretical applications this book demonstrates how archival fiction continues to be one of the most popular strategies among Latin American novelists and most importantly how they have successfully managed to find new ways to inscribe their alternative fictions within this tradition Puig's and Sarduy's novels reproduce discourses popular culture and the mass media that lack prestige within the traditional archive These discourses mirror realities of marginal groups gay people children the poor the illiterate women and racial minorities Their cultural variants sub versions of hegemonic masterstories are endowed with truth bearing power for them but were previously left out of the archive as legitimate novelistic models To date this is the only study of contemporary Latin American fiction that puts current theories of the archive especially that of Roberto González Echevarría to practice in such a systematic way Riobó's analysis of how Puig and Sarduy reformulate the Latin American canon is both a necessary complement of González Echevarría's work and an intelligent answer to the first of his projected masterstories Riobó's multidisciplinary approach
