Meagher, Samantha Noll, Joseph S. Biehl, 2019-08-19 The Routledge Handbook of Philosophy of the City is an outstanding reference source to this exciting subject and the first collection of its kind Comprising 40 chapters by a team of international contributors the Handbook is divided into clear sections addressing the following central topics Historical Philosophical Engagements with Cities Modern and Contemporary Philosophical Theories of the City Urban Aesthetics Urban Politics Citizenship Urban Environments and the Creation Destruction of Place The concluding section Urban Engagements contains interviews with philosophers discussing their engagement with students and the wider public on issues and initiatives including experiential learning civic and community engagement disability rights and access environmental degradation professional diversity social justice and globalization Essential reading for students and researchers in environmental philosophy aesthetics and political philosophy The Routledge Handbook of Philosophy of the City is also a useful resource for those in related fields such as geography urban studies sociology and political science After the Cosmopolitan? Michael Keith, 2005 In this book Michael Keith argues that both racial divisions and intercultural dialogue can only be understood in the context of the urban cities that gave them birth and considers how race is played out in the worlds most eminent cities City A-Z Steve Pile, Nigel Thrift, 2012-12-06 Featuring a fantastic line up of contributors The City A Z introduces students to a refreshingly new way of thinking about and understanding cities and urban life Specially commissioned short entries capture moments of the city constantly surprising the reader with entries ranging from poetry to prose from paintings to a photo essay and from rigorous noisy analysis to quiet stories of city life An ideas map similar to the London Underground map links all the different themes providing a route through this unique text Includes contributions from Ash Amin Anette Baldauf David Bell Walter Benjamin Alistair Bonnett Iain Borden Stephen Cairns Iain Chambers Steve Graham Dolores Hayden Steve Hinchcliffe Mary King Deborah Levy Eugene McLoughlin Harvey Molotch Miles Ogborn Steve Pile Roy Porter Jane Rendell Saskia Sassen David Sibley Sharon Zukin Commemorating and Forgetting Martin J. Murray, 2013-04-25 When the past is painful as riddled with violence and injustice as it is in postapartheid South Africa remembrance presents a problem at once practical and ethical how much of the past to preserve and recollect and how much to erase and forget if the new nation is to ever unify and move forward The new South Africa's confrontation of this dilemma is Martin J Murray's subject in Commemorating and Forgetting More broadly this book explores how collective memory works how framing events persons and places worthy of recognition and honor entails a selective appropriation of the past not a mastery of history How is the historical past made to appear in the present In addressing these questions Murray reveals how collective memory is stored and disseminated in architecture statuary monuments and memorials literature and art landscapes of remembrance that selectively recall and even fabricate history in the service of nation building He examines such vehicles of memory in postapartheid South Africa and parses the stories they tell stories by turn sanitized distorted embellished and compressed In this analysis Commemorating and Forgetting marks a critical move toward recognizing how the legacies and impositions of white minority rule far from being truly past remain embedded in intertwined with and imprinted on the new nation's here and now

The Emergence of the Interior Charles Rice, 2006-11-22 Taking a radical position counter to many previous histories and theories of the interior domesticity and the home The Emergence of the Interior considers how the concept and experience of the domestic interior have been formed from the beginning of the nineteenth century It considers the interior's emergence in relation to the thinking of Walter Benjamin and Sigmund Freud and through case studies in architecture's trajectories toward modernism The book argues that the interior emerged with a sense of doubleness being understood and experienced as both a spatial and an image based condition Incorporating perspectives from architecture critical history and theory and psychoanalysis The Emergence of the Interior will be of interest to academics and students of the history and theory of architecture and design social history and cultural studies

Baudelaire Contra Benjamin Beibei Guan, Wayne Cristaudo, 2019-05-23 This book offers the first sustained argument against the philosophy of Walter Benjamin and his readings of Charles Baudelaire More broadly it is also a critique of politicized aesthetics and cultural Marxism of which Benjamin is a pioneering and emblematic figure Cristaudo and Beibei argue that Baudelaire was not mistaken in refusing to subject aesthetics to morality and politics Baudelaire's refusal was based on the recognition that existential matters such as sickness evil death sexual longing melancholy and beauty itself all themes at the center of his poetry are by nature intrinsically supra political By contrast Benjamin's faith in political redemption while breaking with the enlightenment's faith in progress nevertheless conforms to another core element of faith of the enlightenment via faith in the ability of morals and politics to liberate humanity The authors make the case that Benjamin's understanding of politics is severely deficient because it is not sufficiently versed in an understanding of economics or the nature of class interests and that Marx's own theory of economics is fundamentally deficient and creates an insurmountable problem for those deferring to a future industrial society free from capitalism

The Transformation of Cities David C.

Thorns,2017-03-14 The aim of the book is to examine the transformation of the city in the late 20th century and explore the ways in which city life is structured The shift from modern industrial to information consumption based post modern cities is traced through the text The focus is not just on America and Europe but also explores cities in other parts of the world as city growth in the twenty first century will be predominantly outside of these regions The Architecture of Phantasmagoria Libero Andreotti,Nadir Lahiji,2016-11-10 In a time of mass mediated modernity the city becomes almost by definition a constitutively mediated city Today more than ever before the omnipresence of media in every sphere of culture is creating a new urban ontology saturating fracturing and exacerbating the manifold experience of city life The authors describe this condition as one of hyper mediation a qualitatively new phase in the city s historical evolution The concept of phantasmagoria has pride of place in their study using it as an all embracing explanatory framework they explore its meanings as a critical category to understand the culture and the architecture of the contemporary city Andreotti and Lahiji argue that any account of architecture that does not include understanding the role and function of media and its impact on the city in the present tele technological capitalist society is fundamentally flawed and incomplete Their approach moves from Walter Benjamin through the concepts of phantasmagoria and of media as theorized also by Theodor Adorno Siegfried Kracauer and a new generation of contemporary critics towards a new socio critical and aesthetic analysis of the mediated space of the contemporary city Mexico's Ruins Raúl Rodríguez-Hernández,2008-01-03 Explores the trope of modernity in Garc a Ponce s writings Debunking the Myths of Colonization Samar Attar,2010-04-13 Debunking the Myths of Colonization examines Salman Rushdie s thesis on the paradoxical nature of colonialism and its horrific impact on the psyche of the colonized It probes Frantz Fanon s theories concerning the relationship between colonizers and colonized and attempts to apply these theories to modern Arabic literature Like Rushdi and Fanon many Arab writers have embarked on a journey to the metropolis of their ex colonial masters Due to their encounter with English or French culture they have written memoirs poems or fictions in which they have represented themselves and the other Their representations differ markedly according to their own make up as human beings their class education experiences and gender Yet what brings them together is their love hate relationship with the ex colonizer In the case of the Palestinian writers however there is only bitterness and bewilderment at Israel as a colonizing power in the 21st century and its Jewish citizens who were once victims in Europe but now have turned into victimizers Mumbai Fables Gyan Prakash,2010-10-10 Starting from the catastrophic floods and terrorist attacks of recent years Prakash reaches back to the sixteenth century Portuguese conquest to reveal the stories behind Mumbai s historic journey Examining Mumbai s role as a symbol of opportunity and reinvention he looks at its nineteenth century development under British rule and its twentieth century emergence as a fabled city on the sea Different layers of urban experience come to light as he recounts the narratives of the Nanavati murder trial and the rise and fall of the tabloid Blitz and Mumbai s transformation from the red city of trade unions and communists into the saffron city of Hindu nationalist Shiv Sena Starry eyed planners and elite visionaries cynical leaders and violent politicians of the street land sharks and underworld dons jostle with ordinary citizens and poor immigrants as the city copes with the dashed dreams of postcolonial urban life and lurches into the seductions of globalization Cities and Literature Malcolm Miles,2018-10-03 This book offers a critical introduction to the relation between cities and literature fiction poetry and literary criticism from the late eighteenth to twenty first centuries It examines examples of writing from Europe North America and post colonial countries juxtaposed with key ideas from urban cultural and critical theories Cities and Literature shows how literature frames real and imagined constructs and experiences of cities Arranged thematically each chapter offers a narrative which introduces a number of key thinkers and writers whose vision illuminates the prevailing idea of the city at the time The themes are extended or challenged by boxed cases of specific texts or images accompanied by short critical commentaries the structure provides readers with a map of the terrain enabling connections across time and place within manageable limits and offers elements of critical discussion to serve a growing number of university courses which involve the intersections of cities and literature This volume offers access to literature from an urban perspective for the social sciences and access to urbanism from a literary viewpoint It is an excellent resource for both undergraduate and postgraduate students in the fields of urban studies and English literature planning cultural and human geographies architecture cultural studies and cultural policy Ciaran Carson Neal Alexander,2010-01-01 A PDF version of this book is available for free in open access via the OAPEN Library platform www.oapen.org Ciaran Carson is one of the most challenging and inventive of contemporary Irish writers exhibiting verbal brilliance formal complexity and intellectual daring across a remarkably varied body of work This study considers the full range of his oeuvre in poetry prose and translations and discusses the major themes to which he returns including memory and history narrative language and translation mapping violence and power It argues that the singularity of Carson s writing is to be found in his radical imaginative engagements with ideas of space and place The city of Belfast in particular occupies a crucially important place in his texts serving as an imaginative focal point around which his many other concerns are constellated The city in all its volatile mutability is an abiding frame of reference and a reservoir of creative impetus for Carson s imagination Accordingly the book adopts an interdisciplinary approach that draws upon geography urbanism and cultural theory as well as literary criticism It provides both a stimulating and thorough introduction to Carson s work and a flexible critical framework for exploring literary representations of space In Darkest London Jamieson Ridenhour,2012-12-27 During the 19th century London was a complex vibrant and multi faceted city the first true metropolis As such it contained within it a widely disparate array of worlds and cultures Representations of London in literature varied just as widely In the late 1830s London began appearing as a site of literary terror and by the end of the century a large proportion of the important Victorian Gothic revival novels were set in the city The Strange Case of Dr Jekyll and Mr Hyde The Picture of Dorian Gray The Three Impostors The Beetle Dracula and many others In Darkest London is a full length study of the Victorian Urban Gothic a pervasive mode that appears not only in straightforward novels of terror like those mentioned above but also in the works of mainstream authors such as Charles Dickens and in the journalism and travel literature of the time In this volume author Jamieson Ridenhour looks beyond broad considerations of the Gothic as a historical mode to explore the development of London and the concurrent rise of the Urban Gothic He also considers very specific aspects of London s representation in these works and draws upon recent and then contemporary theories close readings of relevant texts and cartography to support and expand these ideas This book examines the work of both canonical and non canonical authors including Dickens Bram Stoker Robert Louis Stevenson G W M Reynolds Richard Marsh Arthur Machen Marie Belloc Lowndes and Oscar Wilde Placing the conventions of the Gothic form in their proper historical context In Darkest London will appeal to scholars and students interested in an in depth survey of the Urban Gothic
