Myth Taken Identity:

Myth-Taken Identity Robert Asprin, Jody Lynn Nye, 2004 Their latest outing Myth Taken Identity allows Asprin and his co author Jody Lynn Nye to turn their satirical pens on malls credit cards and identity theft Everything Mythology Blake Hoena, Adrienne Mayor, 2014 Battle mysterious monsters join a quest with a courageous hero and feast and frolic with the gods in this introduction to mythology around the world Page 4 of cover Myth and Identity in the Martial Arts Alexis McLeod, 2024-12-24 Myth and Identity in the Martial Arts Creating the Dragon is a study of the role of myth and ideology in the formation of social identity focusing on a variety of communities of practice involving the martial arts in East Asian and Western history Alexis McLeod argues that myths of the martial arts should not be understood as falsehoods created as means of legitimizing modern practices but should instead be understood as narratives that enable individuals and communities to formulate social identities and to accord meaning to their practices This book covers six influential sources of myth and identity formation in the history of martial arts early Chinese and Indian philosophy the formation bushido thought in the Edo period of Japan Republican era Chinese conceptions of nationhood and physical culture Western contributions and the innovations of Bruce Lee African American conceptions of martial arts as a response to oppression in the twentieth century and the contemporary ideologies of mixed martial arts Myth, Identity, and Conflict Anamaria Dutceac Segesten, 2011-09-16 Myth Identity and Conflict A Comparative Analysis of Romanian and Serbian Textbooks by Anamaria Dutceac Segesten is an examination of how history and politics became entangled in Romania and Serbia In it Segesten asks questions like Is myth present in the history textbooks of Romania and Serbia If so are there differences in the ways these myths define the in group and the relationship with the Other between a country that experienced interethnic conflict Serbia and a country that did not Romania Do textbooks affect the odds that conflict will occur Segesten s findings confirm the presence of mythologized versions of the past in the history textbooks of both countries over the entire fifteen year period studied 1992 2007 despite claims for professionalization of textbook making Myths of noble origins of heroism and victimhood appear in both cases Segesten finds the language to be ideological and in favor of the ethnic majority even if over time there is a slow tendency towards moderation especially in Romania probably due to the influence of the European Union Ultimately Myth Identity and Conflict by Anamaria Dutceac Segesten questions the alleged power of history textbooks to make a difference in ethnically divided societies prone to conflicts Myth, Telos, Identity Iván Nyusztay, 2021-09-20 Iván Nyusztay s Myth Telos Identity The Tragic Schema in Greek and Shakespearean Drama for the first time presents a systematic comparison of Greek and Shakespearean tragedy By thematizing the common modes of the tragic it measures their structural regularities against corresponding philosophical and ethical reflections The comparative theory of tragedy evolves through a constant debate with the traditional views of Aristotle Hegel Schelling Paul Ricoeur and others An architectonic survey of plays leads to a generic distinction between pure tragedy and melodrama and proposes a possible

description of Christian tragedy This generic differentiation is considered by means of a teleological approach to tragedy as well as from a formal perspective The criticism of traditional notions of character stresses the relevance of dividedness and internal collision tragic phenomena which are explored as necessary stages of self in the constitution and formation of tragic or internal alterity This form of alterity is underpinned by a discussion of action theory and speech act theory This book will be of interest for readers of Greek and Shakespearean drama as well as for students of comparative literature and genre theory classicists and philosophers and for everyone interested in the relation between literature and philosophy

Personal Identity Ellen Frankel Paul, Fred Dycus Miller, Jeffrey Paul, 2005 What is a person What makes me the same person today that I was yesterday or will be tomorrow Philosophers have long pondered these questions In Plato's Symposium Socrates observed that all of us are constantly undergoing change we experience physical changes to our bodies as well as changes in our manners customs opinions desires pleasures pains and fears Aristotle theorized that there must be some underlying substratum that remains the same even as we undergo these changes John Locke rejected Aristotle's view and reformulated the problem of personal identity in his own way is a person a physical organism that persists through time or is a person identified by the persistence of psychological states by memory These essays written by prominent philosophers and legal and economic theorists offer valuable insights into the nature of personal identity and its implications for morality and public policy Sequels Janet G. McMahon, 2010-04-15 Many observers have portrayed the Oslo Process as a milestone in the peacemaking process between Palestinians and Israelis In this controversial and groundbreaking new work McMahon challenges the interpretation of the Oslo Process as a breakthrough or new beginning in Palestinian-Israeli relations He argues that the Oslo Process affected no discursive or non-discursive change and that the Oslo Process in fact institutionalized the analytics practices involved in Israeli and Palestinian relations It should McMahon concludes be no surprise that the process ended with direct Palestinian-Israeli violence This book will be crucial reading for scholars of Israeli and Palestinian relations as well as anyone who is interested in understanding what discursive change must occur for peace between Israel and Palestinians to be established and sustained Sonic the Hedgehog #104 Mike Gallagher, Dawn Best, Dave Manak, Ken Penders, Harvey Mercado, Patrick "SPAZ" Spaziante, Freedom Fighters of the Galaxy Part 2 Sonic's troubles in the alternate future version of Mobius go from bad to worse as the harbinger of doom arrives and his name is Silver Snively That

Parshall, 2012-06-21 In American cinema films with multiple plots can be traced back to Grand Hotel in 1932 but the form was used only sporadically in subsequent decades However filmmakers of the 1970s and 80s notably Robert Altman and Woody Allen repeatedly employed complex narratives to weave sprawling stories in their films Later filmmakers such as Quentin Tarantino Paul Thomas Anderson Wong Kar Wai Steven Soderbergh and Paul Haggis embraced multiple plotlines a device that eventually achieved mainstream respectability in such Oscar winners as Traffic and Crash In the past two decades more than 200 films utilizing some variation of this format have appeared worldwide In Altman and After Multiple Narratives in Film Peter Parshall carefully examines films that feature various plotlines Parshall asserts that although this form may lose some of the close psychological identification and forward drive of linear narratives such films gain a corresponding strength by developing thematic relationships in the various story lines In each of these chapters Parshall examines a different example of the multi plot form such as network narrative and the multiple draft narrative demonstrating that the structure of each is central to their artistry He also argues that these devices open up a variety of creative vistas a strength that appeals to directors and audiences alike Films studied in this book include Nashville Pulp Fiction Amores Perros Code Unknown The Edge of Heaven Virgin Stripped Bare by Her Bachelors The Double Life of Veronique and Run Lola Run A long overdue examination of this unique cinematic form Altman and After will appeal to scholars students and fans eager to learn more

Storytelling has always played a central role in the formation of cultures and communities All cultures define themselves and their place in the world through their stories Similarly our identities are largely constructed as narratives and it is with the aid of storytelling that we manage to conceive of ourselves as meaningful wholes Thus storytelling is not ever absent it is to be found in literature social life in the places we visit and the buildings we live in This volume presents storytelling in various appearances from ancient myths and oral history to transmedia narratives and digital stories Different forms of narrative are analysed as is the use of storytelling as a method for e.g. counselling education and research

Throughout twenty five chapters a compelling overview of recent research on the topic is provided both stressing the omnipresence of storytelling and exploring what storytelling is and isn't Christian Tourist Attractions, Mythmaking, and Identity Formation Erin Roberts, Jennifer Eyl, 2018-11-29 Christian Tourist Attractions Mythmaking and Identity Formation examines a sampling of contemporary Christian tourist attractions that position visitors as the inheritors of ancient sacred traditions and make claims about the truth of the historical narratives that they promote Rather than approaching these attractions as sacred expressions of religious experience or as uncontested accounts of history the book applies recent work on mythmaking and identity formation to argue that these presentations of the past function as strategic discourses that serve material concerns in the present From an approach informed by social and materialist theories of religion the volume draws upon a variety of methodological approaches that enable readers to understand the often bewildering array of objects claims demands and activities not to mention the seemingly endless array of gifts and personal items available for purchase that appear at attractions including Ark Encounter the Creation Museum the Holy Land Experience Bible Walk Museum Christian Zionist tours of Israel and the recently opened Museum of the Bible Discourse analysis practice theory rhetorical criticism and embodied theories of cognition help make sense not only of the Christian tourist attractions under examination but also of the ways that religion is entangled with contemporary social political and economic interests more broadly
