Comprehensive coverage of critical issues related to information science and technology HSA Books and Manuscripts Dallas Auction Catalog #682 Sandra Palomino, 2008 Outsiders and Strangers Anne Haour, 2013-07-25 Asking what archaeology can bring to the debate on liminal peoples in West African societies and drawing together for the first time the extensive literature on the subject of outsiders this volume looks in detail at the role outsiders played in the past 1000 years of the West African past in particular in the construction of great empires Book Prices: Used and Rare, 1994 Edward N. Zempel, 1994 Established-Outsiders Relations in Poland Marta Bucholc, 2024-03-30 This book uses Norbert Elias and John L. Scotson's The Established and The Outsiders to map selected established outsiders' figurations in Poland after 1989. Looking at gender and sexual orientation, nationalism and patriotism, race and class, antifeminism and homophobia, elitist and populist imaginaries, religious and political ideals and ideologies, hate speech and the crisis of the rule of law, this book tracks how inequalities are transformed into figurations of the have and the have-nots by way of spatial, symbolic and institutional exclusion. This edited collection is rooted in a socio-historical understanding of the trajectory of Polish society before and since the fall of Communism over thirty years ago and a critical assessment of the dramatic turn that Polish society has taken since the beginning of the democratic backsliding in 2015. Other People's Struggles Nicholas J. Owen, 2019 In Other People's Struggles Nicholas Owen looks at the outsider in social movements: people like men in women's movements, white people in anti-colonial movements, or rich people in movements for the poor. He asks why such outsiders, usually termed conscience constituents, are sometimes present and sometimes absent, drawing on examples from British history of the last two hundred years. It develops an original theory to explain their motivations, the consequences of their participation, and their controversial, complex and changing place in social movements of the past and present. PTSD and Coping with Trauma Sourcebook, 1st Ed. James Chambers, 2019-11-01 Consumer health information about posttraumatic disorder covering topics such as types of trauma, diagnosis and treatment, and living with PTSD. Includes index, glossary of related terms, and other resources. Relocating Authority Mira Shimabukuro, 2016-01-15 Relocating Authority examines the ways Japanese Americans have continually used writing to respond to the circumstances of their community's mass imprisonment during World War II. Using both Nikkei cultural frameworks and community-specific history for methodological inspiration and guidance, Mira Shimabukuro shows how writing was used privately and publicly to individually survive and collectively resist the conditions of incarceration. Examining a wide range of diverse texts and literacy practices such as diary entries, note-taking, manifestos, and multiple drafts of single documents, Relocating Authority draws upon community archives, visual histories, and Asian American history and theory to reveal the ways writing has served as a critical tool for incarcerated and their descendants Incarcerates not only used writing to redress the internment in the moment but also created pieces of text that enabled and inspired further redress long after the camps had closed Relocating Authority highlights literacy's enduring potential to participate in social change and assist an imprisoned people in relocating authority away from their captors and back to their community and themselves It will be of great interest to students and scholars of ethnic and Asian American rhetorics American studies and anyone interested in the relationship between literacy and social justice The Constitution in the Supreme Court David P. Currie, 2015-02-27 Currie's masterful synthesis of legal analysis and narrative history gives us a sophisticated and much needed evaluation of the Supreme Court's first hundred years A thorough systematic and careful assessment As a reference work for constitutional teachers it is a gold mine Charles A Lofgren Constitutional Commentary Pharmacokinetic-Pharmacodynamic Modeling and Simulation Peter L. Abadir PHD., 2021-08-10 The author Akef R Abadir born in Tanta Egypt was living in Alexandria as the colonial period was drawing to an end in the 1950s and early 1960s At the time Alexandria Egypt was a multiethnic and cosmopolitan city The social fabric was composed of an aggregate of Egyptians Europeans and other minorities These different communities and denominations coexisted in relative peace and respect of one another However despite what was shared in common Europeans in general whether at home or abroad seemed to be more progressive than most Egyptians This discrepancy became even more dramatic as one left the urban centers such as Cairo and Alexandria and ventured into rural areas where poverty and illiteracy prevailed Looking back at life in this Mediterranean city nothing seemed to point to an answer where religion would be a major factor In fact in reaction to a prolonged foreign presence

Egyptian society had been undergoing a gradual cultural change characterized by a return to a more restrictive interpretation and practice of Islam This observation launched the author Akef Abadir on a long period of exploration and research that led to the writing of this book Currently East West relationship is experiencing a period of great instability It has been suggested that the resolution of this conflict requires reaching a political compromise based on mutual acceptance and understanding To achieve this goal it is imperative to address the problem of Islamic modernism and examine the context in which it is taking shape From the authors viewpoint what has been written regarding Islamic modernity has not provided a comprehensive overview of the subject This book intends to address this gap and examine the core issues that have confronted Islam starting from the seventh century to the present The objective of this book is not to predict when Islam will modernize but rather to explore the current process of change taking place and the obstacles it is facing The aim is to ultimately promote a constructive dialogue between the Muslim community and the outside world particularly the West
