The Poetry of Irving Feldman Harold Schweizer,1992 The nine essays in this volume presented at a symposium on Irving Feldman at Bucknell University are about how Feldman spans stylistic differences how he weaves thematic narratives builds conceptual topoi develops motifs and consigns moral values Illustrated      Collected Poems, 1954-2004 Irving Feldman,2009-01-16 From a two time National Book Award finalist and one of America s most revered poets comes a glorious gathering of poems that displays his entire career and confirms his place among the great poets of our time Irving Feldman is a master chronicler of our collective experience and an overlooked treasure of American poetry Feldman s rich body of work exhibits his mastery of language from the biblical to the conversational his Yiddish flair for the comic his profound social insight and lucidity He writes about everything from the Coney Island days of his childhood and his bohemian years in postwar New York to the art of Picasso and George Segal from the Holocaust to its aftermath in narrative and dramatic poems and personal lyrics that are by turns ardent witty biting ecstatic and heartbreaking Long a favorite among his fellow poets John Hollander has called his work amazing in its moral intensity Feldman has remained true to the soul s deepest callings I have questioned myself aloud at night in a voice I did not recognize hurried and disobedient hardly brighter What have I kept Nothing Not bread or the bread word What have I offered Rebel in the kingdom my gift has wanted a grace      Re-examining the Holocaust through Literature Aukje Kluge,Benn E. Williams,2009-03-26 In the late 1980s Holocaust literature emerged as a provocative but poorly defined scholarly field The essays in this volume reflect the increasingly international and pluridisciplinary nature of this scholarship and the widening of the definition of Holocaust literature to include comic books fiction film and poetry as well as the more traditional diaries memoirs and journals Ten contributors from four countries engage issues of authenticity evangelicalism morality representation personal experience and wish fulfillment in Holocaust literature which have been the subject of controversies in the US Europe and the Middle East Of interest to students and instructors of antisemitism national and comparative literatures theater film history literary criticism religion and Holocaust studies this book also contains an extensive bibliography with references in over twenty languages which seeks to inspire further research in an international context      Re Verse David R. Slavitt,2005-11-04 David R Slavitt will tell you that he does not believe in literary criticism so much as in remarks which are more portable and often more enlightening In this witty and unusual work he remarks upon the life of a poet in the second half of the twentieth century how it was and how it is to be an American writer Combining personal reminiscence with deft literary analysis incisive biographical sketches and sometimes literary gossip these essays give new perspectives on the famous such as Harold Bloom Robert Penn Warren Robert Frost and Stephen Spender and recover the charms of the near forgotten such as Dudley Fitts Winfield Townley Scott Merrill Moore and John Hall Wheelock Slavitt writes with self deprecating humor of his own literary education and uses his impressive experience and erudition to illuminate the whims of poetic influence passion and reputation With a refreshing honesty and considerable poise he gives readers an enlightening view of the vast and ever changing literary universe International Who's who in Poetry ,1977 Holocaust Literature: Agosín to Lentin S. Lillian Kremer,2003 Review This encyclopedia offers an authoritative and comprehensive survey of the important writers and works that form the literature about the Holocaust and its consequences The collection is alphabetically arranged and consists of high quality biocritical essays on 309 writers who are first second and third generation survivors or important thinkers and spokespersons on the Holocaust An essential literary reference work this publication is an important addition to the genre and a solid value for public and academic libraries The Top 20 Reference Titles of the Year American Libraries May 2004 International Who's Who of Authors and Writers 2008 Europa Publications,2007-08-23 An invaluable source of information on the personalities and organizations of the literary world Voices Within the Ark Howard Schwartz,Anthony Rudolf,1980
