Handbook of Human Rights Thomas Cushman,2012-02-20 The Handbook maps out the field of human rights for the humanities and social sciences It provides a solid foundation for the reader who wants to learn the basic parameters of the field but also to promote new thinking and frameworks for the future study of human rights in the twenty first century

Handbook of Heroism and Heroic Leadership Scott T. Allison,George R. Goethals,Roderick M. Kramer,2016-10-04 Over the past decade research and theory on heroism and heroic leadership has greatly expanded providing new insights on heroic behavior The Handbook of Heroism and Heroic Leadership brings together new scholarship in this burgeoning field to build an important foundation for further multidisciplinary developments In its three parts Origins of Heroism Types of Heroism and Processes of Heroism distinguished social scientists and researchers explore topics such as morality resilience courage empathy meaning altruism spirituality and transformation This handbook provides a much needed consolidation and synthesis for heroism and heroic leadership scholars and graduate students The Power of Witnessing Nancy R.

Goodman,Marilyn B. Meyers,2012-08-21 Witnessing comes in as many forms as the trauma that gives birth to it The Holocaust undeniably one of the greatest traumatic events in recent human history still resonates into the twenty first century The echoes that haunt those who survived continue to reach their children and others who did not share the experience directly In what ways is this massive trauma processed and understood both for survivors and future generations The answer as deftly illustrated by Nancy Goodman and Marilyn Meyers lies in the power of witnessing the act of acknowledging that trauma took place coupled with the desire to share that knowledge with others to build a space in which to reveal confront and symbolize it As the contributors to this book demonstrate testimonial writing and memoir artwork poetry documentary theater and even the simple recollection of a memory are ways that honor and serve as forms of witnessing Each chapter is a fusion of narrative and metaphor that exists as evidence of the living mind that emerges amid the dead spaces produced by mass trauma creating a revelatory transformational space for the terror of knowing and the possibility for affirmation of hope courage and endurance in the face of almost unspeakable evil Additionally the power of witnessing is extended from the Holocaust to contemporary instances of mass trauma and to psychoanalytic treatments proving its efficacy in the dyadic relationship of everyday practice for both patient and analyst The Holocaust is not an easy subject to approach but the intimate and personal stories included here add up to an act of witnessing in and of itself combining the past and the present and placing the trauma in the realm of knowing sharing and understanding Contributors Harriet Basseches Elsa Blum Bridget Conley Zilkic Paula Ellman Susan Elmendorf George Halasz Geoffrey Hartman Renee Hartman Elaine Neumann Kulp Shabad Dori Laub Clemens Loew Gail Humphries Mardirosian Margit Meissner Henri Parens Arlene Kramer Richards Arnold Richards Sophia Richman Katalin Roth Nina Shapiro Perl Myra Sklarew Ervin Staub

Making Enemies Evelin Lindner,2006-06-30 When the statue of Saddam Hussein fell and Iraqis danced on the body hitting it with their shoes there was joy Moments later when an American soldier climbed the statue to place an American flag on the face there was a national gasp a moment of humiliation for the Iraqis Americans had claimed to be liberating them but the placing of the American flag was a sign of conquest The flag was quickly removed and replaced with an Iraqi flag but those tense moments were a brief example of the power and potentially far reaching volatile effects of humiliating acts even when unintentional In this fascinating work Dr Linder examines and explains across history and nations how this little understood often overlooked emotion sparks outrage uprisings conflict and war With the insights of a seasoned psychologist and peace scholar the analytical skill of a linguist who speaks seven languages and the scholarship of a Columbia University professor Lindner explains which words and actions can humiliate how the victim perceives those words and actions what the consequences have been and how individuals and organizations can work to avoid instances in the future From acts of humiliation in Nazi Germany to intentional humiliations such as those at Abu Graib from events during the bloodbaths in Rwanda and Somalia to precursors to the attacks on the Twin Towers in New York Lindner offers vivid examples to explain how humiliation can be at the core of international conflict

Moral Motivation Through the Life Span Gustavo Carlo, Carolyn P. Edwards, 2005-01-01 Moral Motivation through the Life Span is the fifty first volume in the Nebraska Symposium on Motivation series the longest continuously running symposium in the field of psychology This work focuses on moral development theory and research an area of academic study that began early in the twentieth century but has never before been addressed by the Symposium What is morality such theorists ask and what exactly makes a moral person The contributors to this volume are of diverse theoretical orientations and take different stances on a number of major themes What motivates moral behavior Are there certain universal moral values or are such values always subjective Does an individual's will or an individual's environment play a greater role in determining moral conduct What influence can we attribute to spirituality Finally the contributors explore the practical applications of their research on moral motivation What implications do such theories have for child rearing or our educational system How do we raise the next generation to be empathetic toward their fellow human beings

The Handbook of Conflict Resolution Peter T. Coleman, Morton Deutsch, Eric C. Marcus, 2014-04-07 Praise for The Handbook of Conflict Resolution This handbook is a classic It helps connect the research of academia to the practical realities of peacemaking and peacebuilding like no other It is both comprehensive and deeply informed on topics vital to the field like power gender cooperation emotion and trust It now sits prominently on my bookshelf Leymah Gbowee Nobel Peace Prize Laureate The Handbook of Conflict Resolution offers an astonishing array of insightful articles on theory and practice by leading scholars and practitioners Students professors and professionals alike can learn a great deal from studying this Handbook William Ury Director Global Negotiation Project Harvard University coauthor Getting to Yes and author The Third Side Morton Deutsch Peter Coleman and Eric Marcus put together a handbook that will be helpful to many I hope the book will reach well beyond North America to contribute to the growing worldwide interest in the constructive resolution of conflict This book offers instructive ways to make this commitment a reality George J Mitchell Former majority leader of the United States Senate former chairman of the Peace Negotiations in Northern Ireland and the International Fact Finding Committee on Violence in the Middle East chairman of the board Walt Disney Company senior fellow at the School of International and Public Affairs Columbia University Let's be honest This book is just too big to carry around in your hand But that's because it is loaded with the most critical essays linking the theory and practice of conflict resolution The Handbook of Conflict Resolution is heavy on content and should be a well referenced resource on the desk of every mediator as it is on mine Johnston Barkat Assistant Secretary General Ombudsman and Mediation Services United Nations Emotions and Mass Atrocity Thomas Brudholm, Johannes

Lang, 2018-03-22 The study of genocide and mass atrocity abounds with references to emotions fear anger horror shame and hatred Yet we don't understand enough about how ordinary emotions behave in such extreme contexts Emotions are not merely subjective and interpersonal phenomena they are also powerful social and political forces deeply involved in the history of mass violence Drawing on recent insights from philosophy psychology history and the social sciences this volume examines the emotions of perpetrators victims and bystanders Editors Thomas Brudholm and Johannes Lang have brought together an interdisciplinary group of prominent scholars to provide an in depth analysis of the nature value and role of emotions as they relate to the causes and dynamics of mass atrocities The result is a new perspective on the social political and moral dimensions of emotions in the history of collective violence and its aftermath Interrogation in War and

Conflict Christopher Andrew, Simona Tobia, 2014-04-29 This edited volume offers a comparative and interdisciplinary analysis of interrogation and questioning in war and conflict in the twentieth century Despite the current public interest and its military importance interrogation and questioning in conflict is still a largely under researched theme This volume's methodological thrust is to select historical case studies ranging in time from the Great War to the conflicts in former Yugoslavia and including the Second World War decolonization the Cold War the Troubles in Northern Ireland and international justice cases in The Hague each of which raises interdisciplinary issues about the role of interrogation These case studies were selected because they resurface previously unexplored sources on the topic or revisit known cases which allow us to analyse the role of interrogation and questioning in intelligence security and military operations Written by a group of experts from a range of disciplines including history intelligence psychology law and human rights Interrogation in War and Conflict provides a study of the main turning points in interrogation and questioning in twentieth century conflicts over a wide geographical area The collection also looks at issues such as the extent of the use of harsh techniques the value of interrogation to military intelligence security and international justice the development of interrogation as a separate profession in intelligence as well as the relationship between interrogation and questioning and wider society This book will be of much interest to students of intelligence studies strategic studies counter terrorism international justice history and IR in general The Violence of Victimhood Diane Enns, 2015-08-06 We know that violence breeds violence We need look no further than the wars in the western Balkans the genocide in Rwanda or the ongoing crisis in Israel and Palestine But we don't know how to deal with the messy moral and political quandaries that result when victims become perpetrators When the line between guilt and innocence wavers and we are confronted by the suffering of the victim who turns to violence judgment may give way to moral relativism or liberal tolerance compassion to a pity that denies culpability This is the point of departure in The Violence of Victimhood and the impetus for its call for renewed considerations of responsibility judgment compassion and nonviolent politics To address her provocative questions Diane Enns draws on an unusually wide ranging cast of characters from the fields of feminism philosophy peacebuilding political theory and psychoanalysis In the process she makes an original contribution to each enriching discussions that are otherwise constricted by disciplinary boundaries and an arid distinction between theory and practice

The Slippery Slope to Genocide Mark Anstey, I. William Zartman, Paul Meerts, 2012-01-17 In this volume noted thinkers and practitioners of conflict management present ideas on how to prevent identity issues from causing fear and escalating into genocide They focus on measures for handling the internal dynamics of parties facing identity conflicts as well as considerations for arranging external assistance

The Great Shift
Psycho-spiritual Manual for Survival and Transformation in the Trump Era Melinda Contreras-Byrd, 2018-10-19 This book is a US based prophetic themed race and culture focused work which will serve to foster discussion on several important topics for Christians seeking to live out their faith in this present socio political era The foundational belief underlying this book is that we are living in an era of unique possibilities for the church to begin to make second order changes in our views of Christianity the church universal and the real life applications of theological concepts of evil and spiritual warfare as they apply to the struggles of this time in history For Black people in the United States racism has long been the elephant in the room during most Black White interactions on any level Growing expressions of racism have now forced the elephant not only to the forefront of White discourse but the elephant now sits comfortably at the altar railing of both Black and White church sanctuaries This book argues that we are at a critical time for action and gives suggestions for what at least some of those educational theological and psychological actions could be

All About wikiHow , Silent Racism Barbara Trepagnier, 2017-07-05 Vivid and engaging Silent Racism persuasively demonstrates that silent racism racism by people who classify themselves as not racist is instrumental in the production of institutional racism Trepagnier argues that heightened race awareness is more important in changing racial inequality than judging whether individuals are racist The collective voices and confessions of nonracist white women heard in this book help reveal that all individuals harbor some racist thoughts and feelings Trepagnier uses vivid focus group interviews to argue that the oppositional categories of racist not racist are outdated The oppositional categories should be replaced in contemporary thought with a continuum model that more accurately portrays today's racial reality in the United States A shift to a continuum model can raise the race awareness of well meaning white people and improve race relations Offering a fresh approach Silent Racism is an essential resource for teaching and thinking about racism in the twenty first century Change Jeffrey A.

Kottler,2018-03-12 What causes human beings to make a significant change in their lives a transformative shift in thinking and actions Research has shown that even in cases of unqualified success a therapist and their client often have wildly different views on what made it work Taking that as his starting point Jeffrey Kottler leads the reader on an exploration of human behaviour seeking to find out what it is that really makes a difference that can lead to transformative and lasting change UnSelfie Michele Borba,2016-06-07 Hailed as an absolute must read Jean Twenge and a book that will change your kids lives Jack Canfield UnSelfie by Dr Michele Borba explains what parents and educators MUST do to combat the growing empathy crisis among children today including a 9 step empathy building program with tips to guide kids from birth through college and beyond Teens today are forty percent less empathetic than they were thirty years ago Why is a lack of empathy which goes hand in hand with the self absorption epidemic Dr Michele Borba calls the Selfie Syndrome so dangerous First it hurts kids academic performance and leads to bullying behaviors Also it correlates with more cheating and less resilience And once children grow up a lack of empathy hampers their ability to collaborate innovate and problem solve all must have skills for the global economy In UnSelfie Dr Borba pinpoints the forces causing the empathy crisis and shares a revolutionary researched based nine step plan for reversing it The good news Empathy is a trait that can be taught and nurtured Dr Borba offers a framework for parenting that yields the results we all want successful happy kids who also are kind moral courageous and resilient UnSelfie is a blueprint for parents and educators who want to kids shift their focus from I me and mine to we us and ours Psychological Interventions in Times of Crisis Laura Barbanel,Robert J.

Sternberg,2005-11-18 There is controversy as to whether psychological interventions in the aftermath of disaster are helpful or not This book addresses these controversies and describes the responses that psychologists have made in different parts of the world to disaster

Adopting the Melody of Term: An Psychological Symphony within Psychology Of Good And Evil Why Children Adults And Groups Help And Harm Others

In a global eaten by screens and the ceaseless chatter of instantaneous interaction, the melodic splendor and psychological symphony created by the written word frequently diminish in to the backdrop, eclipsed by the relentless noise and distractions that permeate our lives. Nevertheless, situated within the pages of Psychology Of Good And Evil Why Children Adults And Groups Help And Harm Others a wonderful literary value full of raw feelings, lies an immersive symphony waiting to be embraced. Constructed by an outstanding musician of language, that charming masterpiece conducts visitors on a psychological trip, skillfully unraveling the concealed tunes and profound affect resonating within each cautiously constructed phrase. Within the depths with this touching evaluation, we shall discover the book is key harmonies, analyze their enthralling publishing design, and surrender ourselves to the profound resonance that echoes in the depths of readers souls.
