Raising Kids In Seattle:

Seattle's Floating Homes Erin Feeney, 2012 Seattle's floating homes community began as a population of unregulated and inexpensive industrial houses in the late 1800s yet it has evolved to become some of the most sought after real estate in Seattle today Little has been shared about this intimate and unique community that is characterized by eclectic architecture diverse individuals and a strong sense of community It is hard to imagine Seattle without its floating homes but there was a period of time when the community was considered undesirable and was almost driven from the city shores This book explores the community history of floating homes in Seattle tales from life on the dock and the ongoing challenges of being a fringe neighborhood in the urban context of the city

Babes in the Woods Jennifer Aist, 2010-03-26 CLICK HERE to download the sample chapter Child Carriers from Babes In The Woods Offers a fresh modern approach to hiking and camping with kids Tips to make family outdoor trips less work and worry Addresses concern about nature deficit disorder in children There's a lot of information out there about introducing school age kids to the outdoors but what about babies and toddlers Author Jennifer Aist bridges that gap and shares her tried and tested advice for active new parents Babes in the Woods introduces outdoorsy moms and dads to the joy and vigor of taking babies and toddlers into the woods at a very early age Well organized chapters offer functional solutions for appropriate gear clothing and food nature games to play and tips on potty breaks and sleeping outdoors but most importantly Aist explores all the reasons why introducing even the youngest of children to wilderness experiences is healthy rewarding and fun Whether planning a short day hike a car camping trip a base camp adventure or a backpacking excursion Aist covers every season and climate while confirming that babies are well suited for the mountains the water and the adventures that lie beyond

[previously published as How Much Is Enough?] Jean Illsley Clarke, Connie Dawson, David Bredehoft, 2014-01-07 A down to earth guide to regaining control of your kids and your family Overindulgence is not the badge of a bad parent In fact it comes directly from having a good and generous heart But despite our good intentions the abundance we heap on our kids often becomes more than they need or can handle Family and parenting experts Jean Illsley Clarke Connie Dawson and David Bredehoft help you to understand How damaging overindulgence can be for children When you are overindulging and how to stop Which methods work best to establish firm rules and structure How to instill responsibility and independence in your kids What to do when family and friends are overindulging your kids What grandparents can do to help Based on new research gathered over the past ten years How Much Is Too Much gives you the insight and advice you need to put your children on track for a happy and successful life

Gay Dads Abbie E. Goldberg, 2012-07-23 When gay couples become parents they face a host of questions and issues that their straight counterparts may never have to consider How important is it for each partner to have a biological tie to their child How will they become parents will they pursue surrogacy or will they adopt Will both partners legally be able to adopt their child Will they have to hide their relationship to speed up the adoption process Will one partner be the primary breadwinner And how will their lives change now that the presence of a child has made their relationship visible to the rest of the world In Gay Dads Transitions to Adoptive Fatherhood Abbie E Goldberg examines the ways in which gay fathers approach and negotiate parenthood when they adopt Drawing on empirical data from her in depth interviews with 70 gay men Goldberg analyzes how gay dads interact with competing ideals of fatherhood and masculinity alternately pioneering and accommodating heteronormative parenthood culture The first study of gay men s transitions to fatherhood this work will appeal to a wide range of readers from those in the social sciences to social work to legal studies as well as to gay adoptive parent families themselves Seattle's Beacon Hill Frederica Merrell, Mira Latoszek, 2003 Ride the trolley up the ridge of Beacon Hill and discover one of South Seattle's most interesting districts Unique among Seattle neighborhoods Beacon Hill is a community where immigrants from all over the globe have settled side by side for over 100 years This new book tells the story of the people and businesses of Beacon Hill in vintage photographs the majority of which date before World War II Readers will learn about the immigrants who worked on farms opened shops and labored in shipyards the building of Jefferson Park as well as the activism and political struggles that shaped the Beacon Hill neighborhood Insiders' Guide® to Seattle Shelley Seale, 2010-12-07 A first edition Insiders Guide to Seattle is the essential source for in depth travel and relocation information to this thriving city in the Pacific Northwest Written by a local and true insider this guide offers a personal and practical perspective of Seattle and its surrounding environs It's Not Too Late Dan Dupee, 2016-03-08 It has long been said that once kids are in high school and college they are beyond the influence of their parents This pervasive cultural myth is not supported by research biblical teaching or even anecdotal accounts Yet because of it many Christian parents live in silent angst about the faith of their older and adult children thinking they can no longer do anything to shape their kids spiritual and life decisions Drawing on sociological research and Scripture Dan Dupee shows parents that it is not too late and in fact these turbulent years of transitioning into adulthood are a time when their kids may need their guidance the most He shows parents how to make the most out of the opportunities they have to offer guidance wisdom and spiritual support with the goal of seeing their children not just survive college with faith intact but enter adulthood with a faith of their own one that will carry them through all that life brings their way Raising Kids with Just a Little Cash Lisa Reid, 1996 Raising a child may be the most costly firing challenging and satisfying thing a person ever does This book is about the money required to get children from infancy to adulthood and how it can be done for a lot less than is commonly assumed Families all over are discovering the joy the ease and the relief they feel as they reduce expenses Literally takes parents by the hand and shows them what to do to make enough money available If Aristotle's Kid Had an iPod Conor Gallagher, 2012 You've never seen Aristotle like this In If Aristotle's Kid Had an iPod Ancient Wisdom for Modern Parents Conor Gallagher dusts off Aristotle's Ethics and reveals a vibrant illuminating philosophy no less powerful and profound than when it was first penned Aristotle's philosophy of man has endured for millennia The truth of Aristotle's insights has been acknowledged by saints and scholars illustrated in literature and pop culture even empirically demonstrated by modern science But you've never seen it like this Gallagher masterfully weaves Aristotle scientific studies pop culture and parenting tales together making If Aristotle's Kid Had an iPod Ancient Wisdom for Modern Parents a funny rich and informative read and an indispensable guide for any parent who wants to pass on the secrets of a happy life to their kids Safe House Joshua Straub, PhD, 2015-10-20 Parenting isn't rocket science it's just brain surgery And Dr Joshua Straub has good news for you You can do it You don't need to do all the right things as a parent Both science and the Bible

show us that the most important thing we can provide for our kids is a place of emotional safety In other words the posture from which we parent matters infinitely more than the techniques of parenting Emotional safety more than any other factor is scientifically linked to raising kids who live love and lead well Learn how to use emotional safety as a foundation from which you parent and make a cultural impact that could change the world In Safe House Dr Straub draws from his extensive research and personal experience to help you Foster healthy identity and social development in children of any age Win the war without getting overwhelmed in the daily battles Discipline in a way that builds relationship Understand how the culture is affecting your child and what you can do about it Cultivate responsible self regulating behavior in your kids Establish an unshakeable sense of faith morality and values in your home Feel more confident and peaceful as a parent Find a greater perspective on parenting than what you might see on a daily basis Also includes a Safe House Parenting Assessment Sex From Scratch Sarah Mirk,2021-11-09 Modern life calls for modern relationship advice Sex From Scratch is a love and dating guidebook that gleans real life knowledge from smart people in a variety of nontraditional relationships Instead of telling people how to snag a man seduce a woman or find true love the book sums up what dozens of diverse folks have learned the hard way over time Sarah Mirk offers tips and stories from the steadfastly single to people making open relationships work from people who ve decided they re never going to have kids to parents who are consciously producing the next generation No matter what type of relationship you re in or what type you want Mirk s reporterly wisdom and sense of humor provides perspective humor and down to earth guidance This is an essential fun insightful resource whose time has come The 2nd edition contains a ton of new interviews and updates Featured interviews include Betty Dodson Michelle Tea Aya de Leon Tomas Moniz Margaret Jacobsen Ev Yan Whitney and more Regional Transit System Plan ,1992

Without Spanking Or Spoiling Elizabeth Crary,1993 If you feel trapped between extremes when you re disciplining your children you ll appreciate the time tested advice in this classic guide You don t have to spank your children to get them to behave and you don t have to worry that you re spoiling them either Drawing from four major child guidance philosophies parent educator Elizabeth Crary provides dozens of examples and exercises to help you find the best way to rear your children Without Spanking or Spoling will also help you understand Hope in the Age of Addiction Chip Dodd,Stephen James,2020-08-04 Between alcohol illegal drugs prescription drugs pornography gambling and eating disorders fully 25% of the population of the United States is addicted to something Those addictions are taking a massive physical emotional spiritual and financial toll on individuals families and communities The problem can feel insurmountable But there is a solution at once ancient and supported by the latest in neuroscientific research With an honest assessment of the facts yet always reaching out toward hopeful solutions counselors Chip Dodd and Stephen James explain what addiction really is how it works and why it is so damaging to our hearts souls minds and relationships They then take us beyond mere coping techniques that allow us to function to the real solution restoring our broken relationship with our Creator so that we can rediscover how to live fully the way we were created to live Each chapter includes the personal story of a recovering addict told from the addict s point of view The authors also include a list of books organizations workshops and treatment centers people can turn to for help along the road to lasting recovery Voices Rising Xiaoping Li,2011-11-01 In the late twentieth century Western multicultural societies wrestled with questions of cultural difference identity and otherness In Canada activists from racialized communities took leading roles in the struggle over Canadian identity Voices Rising examines Asian Canadian political and cultural activism around community building identity making racial equity and social justice Informed by a postcolonial and postmodern cultural critique Voices Rising traces the trajectory of progressive cultural discourse generated by Asian Canadian cultural activists over the course of several generations Xiaoping Li draws on historical sources and personal testimonies to convincingly demonstrate how culture acts as a means of engagement with the political and social world As an interdisciplinary inquiry addressing topical issues of race ethnicity identity and transculturalism Voices Rising will be welcomed by scholars researchers and students in Canadian studies cultural studies ethnic histories postcolonial theory globalization studies diaspora theory and transcultural analysis The general reader interested in Canadian identity and cultural history will also find this book accessible and useful Mothering Our Boys Maggie Dent,2018-11-01 Maggie is earthy and real full of love and knowledge especially on raising sons Steve Biddulph Maggie s perspective on raising boys is spot on She writes with humor and depth providing insight and strategies for many of the most important issues facing moms There is a lovely ease to her writing and a powerful honesty I hope every mother of a son and everyone else will read this book The future of the world to a great extent depends on how we raise our boys Michael Gurian New York Times Bestselling Author of The Wonder of Boys and Saving Our Sons If we can see the world through boys eyes a little better we will make different choices in the way we mother them and we will find them less confusing and love them more deeply Mothers of sons are worried about raising their boys in a world where negative images of masculinity are front and centre of our media almost every day Not only that but statistically our boys are still struggling in many ways Even though we live in a time where we recognise that nothing in gender is fixed it remains a fact that the influence of a mother on her son is massive A mother of four sons herself Maggie Dent draws on her personal experience and over four decades work as a teacher counsellor and now author and speaker to help build understanding empathy and compassion for our boys Maggie shares her five key secrets that every mum needs to know and uses the voices of men she has worked with and surveyed to reveal what really matters in a boy s relationship with his mother and other mother figures Maggie is one of Australia s most popular parenting authors and educators and her seminars about boys have sold out all across Australia and in the UK She is finally sharing her insights her reflections and as always her humour around mothering boys to help you be the mum your son needs you to be
