Normal Instructor and Teachers World ,1924 Normal Instructor and Primary Plans ,1926 Resources in Education ,2001-04 Teaching Poetry in the Primary Classroom Gervase Phinn,2009-01-05 When asked by the school inspector what he thought of poetry an eleven year old replied that it s all la dida and daffodils isn t it In his primary school the boy had come across very little poetry apart from nursery rhymes snatches of rhyming verse and a few comic pieces and nonsense poems Poetry to him was something arcane not really related to his own life He had studied no powerful challenging contemplative arresting quirky poems and had written very few poems himself His teacher admitted that he was no English specialist had received few ideas at college on the teaching of poetry and didn t really know where to start As children progress through the primary school they need to be exposed to a rich diet of poetry and encouraged to read perform and write it themselves Providing a varied and stimulating environment is essential if it is to flourish In addition children need specific guidance and ideas to start them off writing their own poems This book written by a former teacher and school inspector and popular and widely published children's poet offers an accessible practical and structured programme for the teaching of this sometimes neglected aspect of the English curriculum Fighting The Black Beast

Michael L Walton, 2011-08-31 Sadly no one can wave a magic wand over your head and remove your depression and when caught in a downward spiral of negativity the victim of this very common disorder may consider suicide as the only answer However the author of Fighting the Black Beast has found a self help method that really works Having overcome his own depression he now offers you his Eight Point Plan as a life line This book offers you a powerful weapon against the Black Beast of depression and the means with which to fight and overcome it altogether Fighting the Black Beast shows that the dark world of depression is largely a self created hell and the downward spiral can be reversed Recovery is at last made possible Sense-Making and Shared Meaning in Language and Literacy Education Sharon Murphy, 2020-07-15 This textbook provides a framework for teaching children's language and literacy and introduces research based tactics for teachers to use in designing their literacy programs for children Exploring how sense making occurs in contemporary literacy practice Murphy comprehensively covers major topics in literacy including contemporary multimodal literacy practices classroom discourse literacy assessment language and culture and teacher knowledge Organized around themes talk reading and composing representation this book comprehensively invites educators to make sense of their own teaching practices while demonstrating the complexities of how children make sense of and represent meaning in today's world Grounded in research this text features a wealth of real world multimodal examples effective strategies and teaching tactics to apply to any classroom context Ideal for literacy courses preservice teachers teacher educators and literacy scholars this book illustrates how children become literate in contemporary society and how teachers can create the conditions for children to broaden and deepen their sense making and expressive efforts Primary Education, Popular Educator, 1927

What's the Good of Education? Joseph Dunne, 2025-01-23 In this book Joseph Dunne exposes the damage done by obsession with measurable outcomes in schools and universities He argues for an education that respects the interpersonal fabric of learning and teaching and that takes account of difficulties in late modern societies regarding childhood citizenship the relative prestige accorded to different kinds of knowledge and the forging by individuals of a coherent identity across a whole life course To ask about good education he claims is necessarily to pose the larger question of the human good Central to the book is a concern to elucidate the kind of practices that can best help persons to pursue this good a concern that deepens through reflection in the final chapters on the challenges and fulfilments opened by the spiritual dimension of human life Making his case in a series of inter related essays Dunne draws on his decades long experience in teacher education informed by a reading of classical Greek philosophy and of several recent thinkers including Raimond Gaita Alasdair MacIntyre Iris Murdoch and Charles Taylor who are key conversation partners throughout
