Recollections in Tranquility Richard Joseph O'Prey, 2008-03-11 Recollections in Tranquility is a sequel to Immigrant's Son O'Prey examines his fifteen years in religious life comments upon his training and compares his eight years teaching in parochial schools with his twenty nine in public education His conclusions are pertinent poignant sometimes perturbing but always relevant With honesty and humor he cites contrasts and similarities and ultimately concludes that the essence of his life has been his family Marriage to a supportive wife parenthood and now grandparenthood have enriched his life Retirement provided the chance to reflect and write This resulting chronicle portrays a life of satisfaction and his descriptions evoke images of personal success      The Practice of Dzogchen Longchenpa, 2014-10-28 This classic collection of texts on the meditation practice and theory of Dzogchen presents the Great Perfection through the writings of its supreme authority the fourteenth century Tibetan scholar and visionary Longchen Rabjam The pinnacle of Vajrayana practice in the Nyingma tradition of Tibetan Buddhism Dzogchen embodies a system of training that awakens the intrinsic nature of the mind to reveal its original essence utterly perfect and free from all duality buddha nature or buddhahood itself In The Practice of Dzogchen Tulku Thondup translates essential passages from Longchen Rabjam's voluminous writings to illuminate and clarify this teaching He also draws on the works of later masters of the tradition placing Dzogchen in context both in relation to other schools of Buddhism and in relation to the nine vehicle outline of the Buddhist path described in the Nyingma tradition This expanded edition includes Counsel for Liberation Longchenpa's poetic exhortation to readers to quickly enter the path of liberation the first step toward the summit of Dzogchen practice      Reflections on the Folklife Festival Richard Bauman, Patricia Sawin, Inta Gale Carpenter, 1992 This first ethnographic study of a folklife festival focuses on festival participants the dancers musicians storytellers and artisans at a public display of folk culture These essays investigate the contention by supporters of these events that this form of folkloric representation is as intellectually legitimate as scholarly research      Stranger at the Door Kristjana Gunnars, 2011-04-07 At the beginning of a new writing project whether it's the first page of a new novel or a less ambitious project writers often experience exhilaration fear or dread For Kristjana Gunnars the call of a new project is like someone you don't know knocking on your door you either choose to let the person in or not It's both exciting and dangerous to start a new manuscript This book is an engagement with that stranger called writing Creative or imaginative writing is a complex process that involves more than intellect alone Writers make use of everything their sensibilities history culture knowledge experience education and even their biology These essays seek out and gather into a discussion what writers have said about their own experiences in writing Although the writers are from around the world and of very different backgrounds the commonality of their remarks brings home the realization that writers everywhere are grappling with similar problems with the seemingly simple problems of when where why and what to write but also larger questions such as the relationship between writer and society or issues of privacy appropriation or homelessness While none of these questions can be definitively answered they can be fruitfully discussed Originating as questions posed in creative writing seminars these essays have grown into companion texts for both writers and readers who want to participate in a conversation about what writers do      Recollections: Memories from My Youth Stan Bishop,2021-01-13 Recollections Memories From My Youth By Stan Bishop Recollections Memories From My Youth is the detailed account of author Stan Bishop s growing up in rural North Carolina during the 1940s 50s and 60s He tells of a bygone era where boys would accomplish extraordinary things as part of their family chores school work and play He details the incredible work he and his three brothers accomplished in order to help their family from a young age Bishop s own recollections of the past are sure to spark some of your very own and perhaps even inspire you to record your own memories to be shared with future generations      Inter-culturality and Philosophic Discourse Yolaine Escande,Chenyang Li,Vincent Shen,2014-07-24 Responding to a deep and universal need of philosophizing in the context of intensive intercultural interaction among all philosophical traditions in the process of globalization this timely book offers a unique collection of excellent papers on inter translatability art and ethics subjects which are most crucial for intercultural conversations today Instead of opting for a comparative philosophy that suggests the superiority of philosophy in comparison with other forms of thought this book explores inter translatability between East and West given that any dialogue between heterogeneous cultures and systems of thought has to start with translation which constitutes the first part of this book Art and ethics are the two areas that most obviously link philosophies of the past and the present and constitute a fundamental part of Chinese long living and practical philosophy The value of art and aesthetic appreciation no less than ethics is at the core of Chinese culture and indeed promises a great deal for the future world Thus they are dealt with here in the second and third parts This book is also relevant to inter culturalism in philosophy itself as the contributors firstly come from several different continents and secondly though most of them are philosophers all contributors are well versed in other disciplines such as anthropology literature religion aesthetics history of art sinology cognitive sciences and social sciences      On the Blind Side Lynda Smiley,2015-02-17 On the blind side is an account of the rehabilitation of some of the men and women Lynda has trained when they lost their sight either through accident or illness or on the battlefield They are all heroes Theirs are stories of bravery and courage of hope and fulfillment Arriving at the Enid Whitaker Rehabilitation for the Blind at a crisis point in their lives often suicidal always downcast they departed on completion of their course full of new ambition to conquer the world Running in tandem with the stories of the rehabilitees are brief vignettes from Lynda's own history glimpses into how she came to take up the work she did The contents include chapters such as In the beginning Lynda's own background for doing the work Clash of the Titans a case history of one of the students Pancakes and snow an account of optacon teaching Too much sugar about Diabetes Mellitus The book should appeal to the general reader to those facing impending loss of sight and those who are already blind as well as to professionals in the field of blindness It is an essentially human story of hope and courage which Lynda had the privilege to witness many many times in the course of her career as the first locally trained Mobility Instructress in South Africa Lynda was employed by the South African National Council for the Blind and later by St Dunstons for War Blinded Veterans Today she freelances in the community

Apostles of Development David C. Engerman, 2025-05-30

The battle against global poverty that began after World War II was a major undertaking engaging economists engineers and organizations Featuring front and centre were six remarkable economists Amartya Sen Manmohan Singh Mahbub ul Haq Jagdish Bhagwati Rehman Sobhan and Lal Jayawardena all born as colonial subjects in the British Empire and studied at Cambridge University They represented a new figure on the world scene the Third World development expert and played a crucial role in global debates about poverty and development Apostles of Development examines their different economic doctrines and the ongoing debate surrounding economic theory in poor countries compared to rich ones The lives of these apostles reveal how development did not begin with textbooks but with real world attempts to solve very specific and pressing problems Finally the book emphasizes that development was a Global South project first and foremost aiming to improve the conditions of the world's poorest countries It challenges the conventional wisdom that sees development only as a tool of rich countries to dominate or as proof of their humanitarian spirit It argues that development succeeds not when it follows ideological prescriptions but when it looks for what works The fading of grand visions shaped by ideological concerns has been one of the lasting effects of the end of the Cold War The book argues that the best way forward is determined modesty focusing on practical matters such as addressing gross inequality and insisting that development means more than just economic growth Given the salience of questions of economic inequality and the constant visibility of the promises and problems of economic development in the world today this is a timely and important read
