Recollections of a Minister to France 1869 - 1877 E. B. Washburne, 1887      Recollections of a Minister to France, 1869-1877 Elihu Benjamin Washburne, 1887      Recollections of a Foreign Minister (Memoirs of Alexander Iswolsky) Aleksandr Petrovich Izvol'skii, 1921      Recollections of France Sarah Blowen, Marion Demossier, Jeanine Picard, 2001-12-01 Since the 1980s France has experienced a vigorous revival of interest in its past and cultural heritage This has been expressed as part of a movement of remembering through museums and festivals as well as via elaborate commemorations most notably those held to celebrate the bi centenary of the Revolution in 1989 and can be interpreted as part of a re examinaton of what it means to be French in the context of ongoing Europeanization This study brings together scholars from multidisciplinary backgrounds and engages them in debate with professionals from France who are working in the fields of museology heritage and cultural production Addressing subjects such as war and memory gastronomy and regional identity maritime culture and urban societies they throw fresh light on the process by which France has been conceptualized and packaged as a cultural object      Let France Explain Frederick Bausman, 1923      Love and Capital Mary Gabriel, 2011-09-14 Brilliantly researched and wonderfully written Love and Capital reveals the rarely glimpsed and heartbreakingly human side of the man whose works would redefine the world after his death Drawing upon previously unpublished material acclaimed biographer Mary Gabriel tells the story of Karl and Jenny Marx s marriage Through it we see Karl as never before a devoted father and husband a prankster who loved a party a dreadful procrastinator freeloader and man of wild enthusiasms one of which would almost destroy his marriage Through years of desperate struggle Jenny s love for Karl would be tested again and again as she waited for him to finish his masterpiece Capital An epic narrative that stretches over decades to recount Karl and Jenny s story against the backdrop of Europe s Nineteenth Century Love and Capital is a surprising and magisterial account of romance and revolution and of one of the great love stories of all time

John V. Farwell John Villiers Farwell, 1911      Recollections of a Tejano Life Timothy M. Matovina, Jesús F. de la Teja, 2013-12-01 San Antonio native military veteran merchant and mayor pro tem Jos Antonio Menchaca 1800-1879 was one of only a few Tejano leaders to leave behind an extensive manuscript of recollections. Portions of the document were published in 1907 followed by a corrected edition in 1937 but the complete work could not be published without painstaking reconstruction. At last available in its entirety, Menchaca's book of reminiscences captures the social life, people, and events that shaped the history of Texas's tumultuous transformation during his lifetime. Highlighting not only Menchaca's acclaimed military service but also his vigorous defense of Tejanos' rights, dignity, and heritage, Recollections of a Tejano Life charts a remarkable legacy while incorporating scholarly commentary to separate fact from fiction. Revealing how Tejanos perceived themselves and the revolutionary events that defined them, this wonderfully edited volume presents Menchaca's remembrances of such diverse figures as Antonio López de Santa Anna, Jim Bowie, Davy Crockett, Sam Houston, General Adrián Woll, Comanche chief Casamiro, and Texas Ranger Jack Hays. Menchaca and his fellow Tejanos were actively engaged in local struggles as Mexico won her independence from Spain; later, many joined the fight to establish the Republic of Texas only to see it annexed to the United States nine years after the Battle of San Jacinto. This first-person account corrects important misconceptions and brings previously unspoken truths vividly to life.
