what had happened to his mother many years later after gradually unearthing her unbelievable story following her premature death without ever having revealed her secret to anyone Jean Jacques Felstein was determined to reconstruct Elsa's life in Birkenau and would go in search of other orchestra survivors in Germany Belgium Poland Israel and the United States The recollections of H l ne first violin Violette third violin Anita a cellist and other musicians allowed him to rediscover his twenty year old mother lost in the heart of hell The story unfolds in two intersecting stages one contemporary is that of the investigation the other is that of Auschwitz and its unimaginable daily life as told by the musicians They describe the recitals on which their very survival depended the incessant rehearsals the departure in the mornings for the forced labourers to the rhythm of the instruments the Sunday concerts and how Mengele pointed out the pieces in the repertoire he wished to listen to in between selections In this remarkable book Jean Jacques Felstein follows in his mother's footsteps and by telling her story attempts to free her and himself from the pain that had been hidden in their family for so long
