Recollections Of An Old Musician:

Recollections of an Old Musician Thomas Ryan,1890

Recollections of an Old Musician Thomas Ryan,1899

Recollections of an Old Musician Thomas Ryan,2015-06-15 Excerpt from Recollections of an Old Musician Retrospection is the inheritance of mature age We all love to recall the scenes of the past and the companions of our pleasures or sorrows I often order memory to unroll slowly before my mental vision the panorama of my past life Upon some of the scenes I look with a strong desire to chain the wheels that move them from view but with others those wheels cannot turn too quickly The first picture I call up stands out clearly defined I see myself as a boy again landing on America s shore with the pleasures of hope shining in my eyes for a good fairy has touched the new land with her magic wand and every object I look upon is strangely beautiful The same good fairy leads me up State Street and Court Street in Boston and wandering aimlessly and boylike I follow up the hill into Pemberton Square I stand there and look round at the solid comfortable stately mansions of old Boston s aristocracy and possibly I feel my own insignificance About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

RECOLLECTIONS OF AN OLD MUSICI Thomas 1827-1903 Ryan,2016-08-27 Recollections of an Old Musician. [With Portraits.] Thomas RYAN (of the Mendelssohn Quintette Club, Boston.),1899 Sounds of the Past Siegmund Bachrich,1978 Strong on Music Vera Brodsky Lawrence,1995-12-18 In this second volume of Strong on Music Vera Brodsky Lawrence carries into the 1850s her landmark account of the nineteenth century New York music scene Using music entries from George Templeton Strong s famous journals most published here for the first time as a point of departure Lawrence provides a vivid portrait of a vibrant musical culture Each chapter presents one year in the musical life of New York City with Lawrence s extensive commentary enriched both by excerpts from Strong s diaries and a lavish selection of little known music criticism and comment from the period The reviews written by an often truculent sometimes venal tribe of music journalists cover the entire world of music from opera to barrel organ salon to saloon In this New York operas performed by renowned artists are parodied by blackface minstrels performances of the Philharmonic Society are drowned by the raucous chatter of flirtatious adolescents who turn concerts into a noisy singles hangout and irate critics trash the first performances of Verdi operas calling the plots indecent and the scores noisy and unmelodic In this volatile atmosphere a native musical culture is born its whose first faltering efforts are dubiously received and the first American composers begin to emerge

Sotheran's Price Current of Literature Henry Sotheran Ltd,1902 Sotheran's Price Current of Literature ,1902 Strong on Music Vera Brodsky

Lawrence,1999-02 In Strong on Music Vera Brodsky Lawrence uses the diaries of lawyer and music lover George Templeton Strong as a jumping off point from which to explore every aspect of New York City's musical life in the mid nineteenth century This third and final volume ranges across opera orchestral and chamber music blackface minstrels military bands church choirs and even concert saloons Among the many striking scenes vividly portrayed in Repercussions are the rapturous reception of Verdi's Ballo in maschera in 1861 the impact of the Civil War on New York's music scene from theaters closing as their musicians enlisted to the performance of The Star Spangled Banner at every possible occasion and open air concerts in the developing Central Park Throughout Lawrence mines a treasure trove of primary source materials including daily newspapers memoirs city directories and architectural drawings Indispensable for scholars Repercussions will also fascinate music fans with its witty writing and detailed descriptions of the cultural life of America's first metropolis Formerly a concert pianist Vera Brodsky Lawrence spent the last third of her life as a historian of American music she died in 1996 She was editor of The Piano Works of Louis Moreau Gottschalk and The Complete Works of Scott Joplin On Volume 1 A marvelous book There is nothing like it in the literature of American music Harold C Schonberg New York Times Book Review On Volume 2 A monumental achievement Victor Fell Yellin Opera Quarterly Autobiographies Case Library (Cleveland, Ohio),1910 The Outlook ,1899 Good Music for a Free People Nancy Newman,2010 In this book the author examines the activities and reception of the Germania Musical Society an orchestra whose members emigrated from Berlin during the revolutions of 1848 These two dozen Forty eighters gave nearly a thousand concerts in North America during the ensuing six year period possibly reaching a million listeners Drawing on a memoir by Henry Albrecht the author provides insights into the musicians desire to bring their music to the audiences of a democratic republic at this turbulent time Eager to avoid the egotism and self promotion of the European patronage system they pledged to work for their mutual interests both musically and socially One for all and all for one became their motto Louis Moreau Gottschalk S. Frederick Starr,2000 Innovating American composer virtuoso pianist and swashbuckling Romantic hero Louis Moreau Gottschalk produced immensely popular works combining the French Hispanic and African influences of his native New Orleans Many of his syncopated compositions anticipated ragtime by half a century S Frederick Starr's biography originally published as Bamboula is the most extensive chronicle available of Gottschalk's eventful life Starr examines Gottschalk's music his frenetic life on the road his virtuosity as a performer his effect on his audiences and the scandals surrounding his romantic dalliances He also reveals a generous and compassionate man who sponsored a host of young musicians and provided financial support for his many siblings High School Reading List Suggestive for the Small Town with a Good Library E. Mildred Crane,1923 The American Monthly Review of Reviews ,1899 Michael Costa: England's First Conductor John Goulden,2016-04-22 Among the major changes that swept through the music industry during the mid nineteenth century one that has received little attention is how musical performances were managed and directed Yet this was arguably the most radical change of all from a loose control shared between the violin leader musical director and maestro al cembalo to a system of tight and unified control under a professional conductor manager This process brought with it not only baton conducting in its modern form but also higher standards of training and discipline a new orchestral lay out and a more focused rehearsal regime The resulting rise in standards of performance was arguably the greatest achievement of English music in the otherwise rather barren mid Victorian period The key figure in this process was Michael Costa who built for himself unprecedented contractual powers and used his awesome personal authority to impose reform on the three main institutions of mid Victorian music the opera houses the Philharmonic and the Sacred Harmonic Society He was a central figure in the battles between the two rival opera houses between the Philharmonic and the New Philharmonic and between the venerable Ancient Concerts and the mass festival events of the Sacred Harmonic Society Costa s uniquely powerful position in the operatic symphonic and choral world and the rapidity with which he was forgotten after his death provide a fascinating insight into the politics and changing aesthetics of the Victorian musical world Bulletin Hyde Park Public Library (Mass.),1902

Finding List ,1901 Recollections of a Scientist Norman N. Greenwood,2012-04-25 Recollections of a Scientist 1 Boyhood and Youth in Australia 1925 1948 This illustrated book is the first volume of the Memoirs of a distinguished internationally renowned scientist Professor Norman N Greenwood FRS It gives a lively and intimate account of his boyhood and youth in Australia during the nineteen thirties and forties and is divided into thirteen chapters It is a personal account rather than a formal history and describes in refreshing detail his richly diverse experiences Chapter 1 explains how he came to be born in Melbourne although both of his parents as well as his elder sister and younger brother were all born in Northern England his father Professor John Neill Greenwood had just been appointed as the first Professor of Metallurgy in an Australian University The scene is further set by a brief account of the extraordinary events that led up to the founding of the University of Melbourne following the Victorian Gold Rush of the mid nineteenth century and its subsequent development into one of the major Universities of the then British Empire The young family settled in Mont Albert one of the developing eastern suburbs of the expanding metropolis but unfortunately his parents separated soon afterwards and subsequently divorced The children moved with their mother to the neighbouring suburb of Surrey Hills and one of her sisters came out from England to help with the growing family Norman goes on to describe the various schools he attended and has some perceptive comments on his teachers the ethos of the schools and the gradual changes that have occurred in the approach to education in Victoria over the years since the nineteen thirties Initially vacations were spent at a country cottage being built by his father at Kinglake in the densely wooded hills to the north of Melbourne and Norman evokes a childhood view of the exotic plants and animals of the bush the deep secluded tree fern gullies and tumbling mountain streams His father was one of the main protagonists for the development of the Kinglake National Park which he had helped to found Tragically much of the Park was engulfed by the enormous bush fires the worst in Australia s history that wiped out the little township of

Kinglake with great loss of life in February 2009 Other holidays were spent on the beaches of Port Phillip Bay or on the cooler slopes of the Dandenong Ranges to the east Norman and his younger brother Eric always known in his youth as Peter or Nipper loved roaming in the Olinda State Forest and Sherwood Forest where the tall mountain ash eucalyptus trees towered above the dense undergrowth of tree ferns and other plants Bush animals abounded as did the raucous cockatoos and multicoloured parrots The great prize however was to sight a lyre bird performing his stately dance and singing his amazing repertoire of all the other birds songs and even the man mad sounds of car horns chain saws and steam engines For the three years 1939 40 41 Norman attended University High School near the city centre and adjacent to the grounds of the University itself It was a remarkable school with an excellent academic reputation but also known for fostering of musical talent and for its prowess in sport Norman joined the School Orchestra as second flute and they gave concerts in the Melbourne Town Hall and occasionally on the State broadcasting station 3LO He also edited the School Magazine The Record perhaps an early portent of his later prolific output of scientific research papers reviews monographs and textbooks In the summer vacation of January 1940 during which Norman had his fifteenth birthday he went on and extended 1300 mile concert party tour of twenty eight country towns in Western Victoria and over the border into South Australia The trip was organised by the Young Australia League YAL and took the form of a White Minstrels Review of thirty boys with songs i
