Revival Preachers and Politics in Thirteenth Century Italy Augustine Thompson, 2010-04-01 Recent studies of medieval preaching have tended to focus on sermon texts This is the first scholarly study in English of preaching and its social context in thirteenth century Italy Augustine Thompson O P both an academic and a preacher reconstructs the Great Devotion of 1233 and analyzes its devotional social political and legal elements He shows how the preachers of this revival crafted an image of divine authority that supported their intervention in factional disputes and facilitated their arbitration in social and political conflicts They exploited forms from revived Roman Law and developing city statutes in order to create flexible procedures for mediation and ultimately were able to revise communal ordinances to enshrine their message of social harmony This is a work of original scholarship carefully researched and lucidly written which is a valuable contribution to our understanding of religion and politics in the middle ages I Aim to Be That Man Sherrie Willis Brown, 2018-07-29 D L

Moody once heard Henry Varley say The world has yet to see what God will do with a man fully consecrated to Him Moody was struck to his soul and when the words would not leave him responded By God s help I aim to be that man When God called Avery to follow him as a true disciple Avery knew he must make a similar commitment or remain a mediocre Christian for the rest of his life His surrender and his filling of the Spirit initiated a spiritual life of impact with global results Avery Willis is well known especially within the Southern Baptist denomination for his involvement in movements of God over the past fifty years Avery Willis s obedience to God led him to be a church planter in the United States and to strive for indigenous church planting in Indonesia where he served as a missionary He was a pioneer and leader in spiritual renewal disciple making decentralized theological education global mission partnerships and chronological Bible storying He is a well known author most notably of the MasterLife discipleship materials This biography written memoir style through his own journals letters and newsletters to his intercessors recounts Avery s life journey his spiritual encounters and struggles and the daily habits that Avery demonstrated as a disciple It is less about his greatest moments than the personal daily choices to follow God with all his heart It is the story of a man committed to God s purposes and passion to bring as many people of the world as possible to God s redemptive grace in Jesus regardless of the cost This Rebellious House Steven J.

Keillor,1996-10-03 Examining United States history from Columbus to Clinton Steven J Keillor disabuses us of the notion that our nation has ever been a genuinely Christian one He focuses on various political economic and cultural policies or events the Civil War westward expansion that are now often cited to disprove or debunk Christianity The Brahmo Year-book for ... ,1878

Put Yourself in the Story Ann Miller Wolski,2017-11-29 God can provide us with everything we need If we are discouraged God can give us motivation when we are hurting suffering or lost he can offer us comfort healing and guidance But God does not always work the way we think he should and sometimes he reveals his plans in the most unusual ways If we are not careful we will miss a miracle In Put Yourself in the Story author Ann Miller Wolski uses scripture personal experiences and faith based solutions to provide practical applications of Gods Word to everyday life Whether you need simple daily encouragement or a big hand from God to face lifes most serious heartaches frustrations and trials Put Yourself in the Story shows you how to see yourself living out the stories of the faithful and feel the truth of the scriptures as if you were there too By putting yourself in the story of Gods Word you will not only find personal inspiration daily encouragement and a new perspective you will find God as well Just as God chose to love us we too must make the choice to love him discovering in his eternal love the awesome plans he has for our lives When the Holy Spirit Comes Down

This timely volume in the Counterpoints series addresses the history of the movement that has become such an enormous shaping force on the Western church today and it explores in a roundtable forum of leading voices five main perspectives on the classic Church Growth movement Effective Evangelism View presented by Elmer Towns Gospel in Our Culture View presented by Craig Van Gelder Centrist View presented by Charles Van Engen Reformist View presented by Gailyn Van Rheen Renewal View presented by Howard Snyder Each view is first presented by its proponent then critiqued by the co contributors The interactive and fair minded format allows the reader to consider the strengths and weaknesses of each view and draw informed personal conclusions Evaluating the Church Growth Movement concludes with reflections by three seasoned pastors who have grappled with the practical implications of Church Growth The Counterpoints series presents a comparison and critique of scholarly views on topics important to Christians that are both fair minded and respectful of the biblical text Each volume is a one stop reference that allows readers to evaluate the different positions on a specific issue and form their own educated opinion

The Mark of Jesus Timothy George, John Woodbridge, 2005-01-01 How do we as Christians unknowingly block the spread of the Gospel Timothy George and John Woodbridge unpack the blockers that get in the way Ultimately they teach that we must rely on the mark of Jesus genuine sacrificial love to further the good news A fresh new approach to evangelism

Civic Repentance Amitai Etzioni, 1999 This collection of essays by scholars of diverse backgrounds explores the notion of repentance in our culture focusing on individuals who have been excluded from society as a result of violating its laws What must these individuals do to gain redemption and be readmitted Amitai Etzioni argues that the lack of a well grounded concept of civic repentance has significant negative social consequences for our society Denying people the opportunity to regain their social standing and membership in their communities is simply unfair and the absence of such opportunities for restoration through repentance exacts heavy social costs The essays in this collection address these issues from a variety of perspectives and discuss possible ways of filling this void including restorative justice physician rehabilitation programs and religious reconciliation rituals

THE ABASINGA OF RWANDA UNRAVELING THE HISTORY AND VICTORIES Frank Ndayahoze, 2025-07-13 The simplistic Hutu Tutsi dichotomy so often employed to explain Rwanda's complex history obscures a deeper more nuanced reality To understand Rwanda one must delve beyond this binary framework and explore the rich tapestry of pre colonial societies that shaped the nation Central to this understanding is the Abasinga clan a powerful and influential group whose history stretches back centuries predating the colonial imposition of artificial ethnic categories Their story challenges the conventional narrative and provides a crucial lens through which to view Rwanda's past present and future The Abasinga whose origins are rooted in the fertile lands of present day Uganda represent a powerful example of a pre colonial Rwandan social structure Oral traditions meticulously collected and analyzed over decades by researchers point to a gradual migration southwards driven by a combination of factors population growth resource competition and perhaps even conflicts with neighboring communities These migrations were not abrupt conquests but rather a slow incremental process of settlement and integration The Abasinga skillfully navigated the existing social landscape forging alliances and establishing their own distinct kingdoms and chiefdoms across various regions of Rwanda
