Handbook of Pre-Modern Nordic Memory Studies Jürg Glauser, Pernille Hermann, Stephen A. Mitchell, 2018-11-19 In recent years the field of Memory Studies has emerged as a key approach in the Humanities and Social Sciences and has increasingly shown its ability to open new windows on Nordic Studies as well The entries in this book document the work to date of this approach on the pre modern Nordic world mainly the Viking Age and the Middle Ages but including as well both earlier and later periods Given that Memory Studies is an ever expanding critical strategy the approximately eighty contributors in this volume also discuss the potential for future research in this area Topics covered range from texts to performance to visual and other aspects of material culture all approached from within an interdisciplinary framework International specialists coming from such relevant fields as archaeology mythology history of religion folklore history law art literature philology language and mediality offer assessments on the relevance of Memory Studies to their disciplines and show it at work in case studies Finally this handbook demonstrates the various levels of culture where memory had a critical impact in the pre modern North and how deeply embedded the role of memory is in the material itself

Asian Translation Traditions Eva Tsoi Hung Hung, Judy Wakabayashi, 2014-07-16 Translation Studies one of the fastest developing fields in the humanities since the early 1980s has so far been Euro centric both in its theoretical explorations and in its historical grounding One of the major reasons for this is the unavailability of reliable data and systematic analysis of translation activities in non European cultures While a number of scholars in the Western tradition of translation studies have become increasingly aware of this bias and its problems practically indicates that the burden of addressing such deficiencies and imbalances should be on the shoulders of scholars who are conversant with the non Western translation traditions and capable of engaging in much needed basic research This book brings together eleven scholars with expertise in different Asian translation traditions who highlight language and cultural environments as well as perceptions and modes of operation often different from those in the Western tradition Their contributions enhance our understanding of the various elements that influence the transfer of knowledge across cultures and provide invaluable data for the study of translation as a force for cultural development and cultural planning

Images of Westerners in Chinese and Japanese Literature , 2021-12-28 The present volume is the product of a joint effort made by scholars from across China including Hong Kong Japan and Europe The book gathers sixteen papers devoted to literary and cultural criticism from a comparative point of view A perspective prominent in this volume is imagology an approach first developed by Daniel Henry Pageaux and which focuses on specific images in literary and other texts The study of the image of the foreign in national literary traditions for instance belongs to the traditional purview of comparative literature Pageaux did more than uphold this tradition He practically reinvented it using new theoretical concepts and perspectives in particular semiotics and reception aesthetics On this basis he was able to develop a theory and a methodology that are both usable and in tune with contemporary concerns The present book covers a wide range of topics in the study of images of Westerners in Chinese and Japanese literature Individual contributions deal with issues such as the genesis of the Chinese term Foreign Devil the occurrence of Westerners in modern Chinese and Japanese literature and the Chinese and Japanese reception of individual western authors and artists such as amongst others Oscar Wilde Vincent Van Gogh and Madame Roland Some papers examine individual authors such as Lu Xun and Takeyama Michio Others examine historical periods or literary movements The approaches followed range from historical investigations of linguistic practices to detailed literary analyses

Intercultural Explorations, 2021-11-01 Divided into four sections Asian Western Intersections Intercultural Memory Intercultural Perspectives on Women Genre Studies and The Intercultural Arts these essays from diverse hands and multiple perspectives illuminate the intersections the cross sections and the synergies that characterize significant literary texts and artistic productions Individually they exemplify the insights available in an intercultural perspective together they remind us that no culture even those that claim to be pure or those that might be regarded as isolated has escaped the influence of external influences As a result this volume is doubly synergistic one because it focuses on intercultural phenomena within a specific culture and two because they represent multiple perspectives on these phenomena

Wordplay and Translation Dirk Delabastita, 2016-04-29 Popular and multimodal forms of cultural products are becoming increasingly visible within translation studies research Interest in translation and music however has so far been relatively limited mainly because translation of musical material has been considered somewhat outside the limits of translation studies as traditionally conceived Difficulties associated with issues such as the musicality of lyrics the fuzzy boundaries between translation adaptation and rewriting and the pervasiveness of covert or unacknowledged translations of musical elements in a variety of settings have generally limited the research in this area to overt and canonized translations such as those done for the opera Yet the intersection of translation and music can be a fascinating field to explore and one which can enrich our understanding of what translation is and how it relates to other forms of expression This special issue is an attempt to open up the field of translation and music to a wider audience within translation studies and to an extent within musicology and cultural studies The volume includes contributions from a wide range of musical genres and languages from those that investigate translation and code switching in North African rap and rai and the intertextual and intersemiotic translations revolving around Mahler's lieder in Chinese to the appropriation and after life of Kurdish folk songs in Turkish and the emergence of rock n roll in Russian Other papers examine the reception of Anglo American stage musicals and musical films in Italy and Spain the concept of singability with examples from Scandinavian languages and the French dubbing of musical episodes of TV series The volume also offers an annotated bibliography on opera translation and a general bibliography on translation and music

Argumentation in Practice

Frans H. van Eemeren, Peter Houtlosser, 2005-09-22 Since the late 1950s the study of argumentation has developed from a marginal part of logic and rhetoric into a genuine interdisciplinary academic discipline After having first been primarily concerned with creating an adequate philosophical perspective on argumentation argumentation theorists have gradually shifted their focus of attention to a more immediate concern with the ins and outs of argumentative praxis What exactly are the characteristics of situated argumentative discourse in different argumentative action types How is the discourse influenced by institutional and contextual constraints In what way can prominent cases of argumentative discourse be fruitfully analysed Argumentation in Practice aims to provide insight into some important facets of argumentative praxis and the different ways in which it can be approached The first part of this volume Conceptions of problems in argumentative practice introduces useful theoretical perspectives The second part Empirical studies of argumentative practice contains both empirical studies of a general kind and several types of specific case studies Transmesis Thomas O. Beebe, 2016-01-19 This study compares modern and contemporary literary works from around the globe that have translation as a central theme and that treat one of four of said black box issues language as embodiment unknown language conversion and postcolonial derivations Transcultural Italies Charles Burdett, Loredana Polezzi, Barbara Spadaro, 2020 The history of Italian culture stems from multiple experiences of mobility and migration which have produced a range of narratives inside and outside Italy This collection interrogates the dynamic nature of Italian identity and culture focussing on the concepts and practices of mobility memory and translation It adopts a transnational perspective offering a fresh approach to the study of Italy and of Modern Languages Globalization: Specialized applications and resistance to globalization Roland Robertson, Kathleen E.
