Projected Art History Doris Berger, 2014-05-08 Biopics on artists have an enormous effect on the popular understanding of what it means to be an artist Projected Art History highlights the narrative structure and images created in the film genre of biopics in which the artist s life is being dramatized and embodied by an actor Doris Berger bridges a gap between art history film studies and popular culture by investigating how the film genre of biopics adapts written biographies and projects art history for a mass audience Berger offers an analytical approach by concentrating on the two case studies Basquiat 1996 and Pollock 2000 but also looks at larger issues at play such as how postwar American art history is being mediated in a popular format such as the biopic This is the first book to identify the functionality of the biopic film genre and showcase its implication for a popular art history that is projected on the big screen

Music and Ideology in Cold War Europe Mark Carroll, 2006-11-02 This book places the radicalization of art music in early post war France in its broader socio cultural and political context It pursues two general and intersecting lines of inquiry The first details the stances towards musical conservatism and innovation adopted by cultural strategists representing Western and Soviet ideological interests at the onset of the Cold War The second which draws upon the commentaries of Theodor Adorno and Jean Paul Sartre recognizes that the Cold War generated a heightened political awareness amongst French musicians at the very time when the social relevance of avant garde music had become the subject of widespread debate The study considers the implications of the performance at L Oeuvre du XXe si cle an international arts festival staged in Paris in 1952 with the intention of discrediting socialist realism by means of two opposing musical types neo classicism represented by Stravinsky s Symphony in C and serialism Boulez s Structures 1a

The Family of Man Revisited Gerd Hurm, Anke

Reitz,Shamoon Zamir,2020-08-09 The Family of Man is the most widely seen exhibition in the history of photography The book of the exhibition still in print is also the most commercially successful photobook ever published First shown at the Museum of Modern Art in New York in 1955 the exhibition travelled throughout the United States and to forty six countries and was seen by over nine million people Edward Steichen conceived curated and designed the exhibition He explained its subject as the everydayness of life and the essential oneness of mankind throughout the world The exhibition was a statement against war and the conflicts and divisions that threatened a common future for humanity after 1945 The popular international response was overwhelmingly enthusiastic Many critics however have dismissed the exhibition as a form of sentimental humanism unable to address the challenges of history politics and cultural difference This book revises the critical debate about The Family of Man challenging in particular the legacy of Roland Barthes s influential account of the exhibition The expert contributors explore new contexts for understanding Steichen s work and they undertake radically new analyses of the formal dynamics of the exhibition Also presented are documents about the exhibition never before available in English Commentaries by critical theorist Max Horkheimer and novelist Wolfgang Koeppen letters from photographer August Sander and a poetic sequence on the images by Polish poet Witold Wirpsza enable and encourage new critical reflections A detailed survey of audience responses in Munich from 1955 allows a rare glimpse of what visitors thought about the exhibition Today when armed conflict environmental catastrophe and economic inequality continue to threaten our future it seems timely to revisit The Family of Man

Figuring Jasper Johns Fred Orton,1994 The author begins this challenging monograph by probing Modernism s surfaces and subjects its public and private meanings in order to establish Johns s importance as the modern allegorical artist in the years after Abstract Expressionism Yet Figuring Jasper Johns is not an essay that presumes to offer an instant interpretation Rather Fred Orton self consciously constructs a Jasper Johns whose work is introduced and explained in three chapters each of which addresses a specific picture or sculpture like Flag Painted Bronze Savarin and Untitled 1992 These in depth studies situate individual works in their social context as well as in Johns s oeuvre Fred Orton s purpose is to get to terms with and find terms for a difficult and elusive body of work by one of the most important artists of the 20th century

European Community, Atlantic Community? Valérie Aubourg,Gérard Bossuat,Giles Scott-Smith,2008 The Rise and Fall of American Art, 1940s-1980s Catherine Dossin,2016-03-03 In The Rise and Fall of American Art 1940s 1980s Catherine Dossin challenges the now mythic perception of New York as the undisputed center of the art world between the end of World War II and the fall of the Berlin Wall a position of power that brought the city prestige money and historical recognition Dossin reconstructs the concrete factors that led to the shift of international attention from Paris to New York in the 1950s and documents how peripheries such as Italy Belgium and West Germany exerted a decisive influence on this displacement of power As the US economy sank into recession in the 1970s however American artists and dealers became increasingly dependent on the support of Western Europeans and cities like Cologne and Turin emerged as major commercial and artistic hubs a development that enabled European artists to return to the forefront of the international art scene in the 1980s Dossin analyses in detail these changing distributions of geopolitical and symbolic power in the Western art worlds a story that spans two continents forty years and hundreds of actors Her transnational and interdisciplinary study provides an original and welcome supplement to more traditional formal and national readings of the period
