Bellchambers, 2010-09-13 The role of Religious Education within the primary school and how it should be implemented has been the subject of worldwide debate Responding to the delivery of the non statutory framework for RE and the recent emphasis on a creative primary curriculum Primary Religious Education A New Approach models a much needed pedagogical framework encouraging conceptual enquiry and linking theory to its implementation within the wider curriculum in schools The book outlines this new conceptual approach to Religious Education and is based upon the Living Difference syllabus successfully implemented in Hampshire Portsmouth Southampton and Westminster It demonstrates how to implement the requirements of the new QCDA curriculum and Ofsted criteria for effective RE and is rapidly gaining both national and international support Through this approach Religious Education is discussed within the larger context of primary education in the contemporary world This book will help you to teach RE in a creative way in the primary classroom by providing historical commentaries an overview of existing approaches case studies based upon developments in religious literacy connections to initiatives such as Every Child Matters and cross curricular links to other areas of the curriculum including PSHE With an all encompassing global context this book provides tutors students and practicing teachers with a firm basis for developing their thinking about the subject of RE how it is placed in the primary curriculum and how it may be successfully implemented in schools

Religion and Worldviews in Education Liam Gearon, Arniika Kuusisto, Saila Poulter, Auli Toom, Martin Ubani, 2023-07-21 This timely book offers a critically important contribution to debates around the meeting place of religious and secular worldviews in education Edited by five leading figures in the field and drawing on expert international scholarship and research the book provides cutting edge analysis that bridges the religious and secular in global educational contexts Considering the role of the United Nations UNESCO OECD and PISA in varied international contexts the book draws on critical analysis of primary empirical research and secondary critique to offer a coherent blend of theoretically complex yet practical analysis of policy implementation Throughout this accessible and logically structured volume the authors assert that the meeting place of religious and secular worldviews is one of the most important and pressing issues for religion in education As a field defining work of research into education religion and worldviews the book will be essential reading for scholars researchers and postgraduate students in the fields of religious education religious studies philosophy of education and international education

Beyond Intolerance Stella Adamma Nneji, 2018-04-20 There is no gainsaying the fact that the problem of religious intolerance has become a worldwide problem In today's pluralistic society the dialogical tension between openness and identity has become a major challenge for interreligious dialogue and peaceful co existence This tension is expressed in the question Can one maintain one's own religious identity without one closing oneself off from the other This question is central to the challenges posed on how religious education can contribute to sustainable peace in Nigeria and the world over In this book Stella Nneji critically assesses the various models of religious pedagogy mono religious multi religious and inter religious by asking how these models relate to the dialogical tension between openness and identity in Nigeria a nation perceivably confronted with an enduring history of post colonial strife religious intolerance and violence The contention is that the mono religious and multi religious models which while dominant in current practice and in academia nevertheless fall short of expressing the authentic challenges and opportunities religious intolerance presents in Nigerian multi religious cultural context In this connection this book provides a clear notion of the theological foundation principles and framework of inter religious education and a practical guide for authentic dialogue in a plural context She calls for a paradigm shift for confessional religious pedagogy to a model of inter religious learning as incorporated within the hermeneutical communicative education On this basis the book proposes a new model for the role of religious education in Nigeria This model in a critical enculturated way attempts to recognize the tensions of authentic religious difference presupposing a broad spectrum of difference in the classroom in a way that also incorporates genuine religious encounters and expressions of identity

Religious Education and Critical Realism

Andrew Wright, 2015-11-19 Religious Education and Critical Realism Knowledge Reality and Religious Literacy seeks to bring the enterprise of religious education in schools colleges and universities into conversation with the philosophy of Critical Realism This book addresses the problem not of the substance of our primal beliefs about the ultimate nature of reality and our place in the ultimate order of things but of the process through which we might attend to questions of substance in more attentive reasonable responsible and intelligent ways This book unpacks the impact of modern and post modern thought on key topics whilst also generating a new critically realistic vision Offering an account of the relationship between Religious Education and Critical Realism this book is essential reading for students scholars and practitioners interested in philosophy theology and education
