Reconstructing The Canon Rubian Writing In The 1980s:

Contemporary European Playwrights Maria M. Delgado, Bryce Lease, Dan Rebellato, 2020-07-22 Contemporary European Playwrights presents and discusses a range of key writers that have radically reshaped European theatre by finding new ways to express the changing nature of the continent's society and culture and whose work is still in dialogue with Europe today Traversing borders and languages this volume offers a fresh approach to analyzing plays in production by some of the most widely performed European playwrights assessing how their work has revealed new meanings and theatrical possibilities as they move across the continent building an unprecedented picture of the contemporary European repertoire With chapters by leading scholars and contributions by the writers themselves the chapters bring playwrights together to examine their work as part of a network and genealogy of writing examining how these plays embody and interrogate the nature of contemporary Europe Written for students and scholars of European theatre and playwriting this book will leave the reader with an understanding of the shifting relationships between the subsidized and commercial the alternative and the mainstream stage and political stakes of playmaking in European theatre since 1989 Postscript Andrea Andersson, 2018-01-01 Postscript is the first collection of writings on the subject of conceptual writing by a diverse field of scholars in the realms of art literature media as well as the artists themselves Arts & Humanities Citation Index, 2002 Finding Equilibrium Till D ppe, E. Roy Weintraub, 2014-07-21 The remarkable story and personalities behind one of the most important theories in modern economics Finding Equilibrium explores the post World War II transformation of economics by constructing a history of the proof of its central dogma that a competitive market economy may possess a set of equilibrium prices The model economy for which the theorem could be proved was mapped out in 1954 by Kenneth Arrow and Gerard Debreu collaboratively and by Lionel McKenzie separately and would become widely known as the Arrow Debreu Model While Arrow and Debreu would later go on to win separate Nobel prizes in economics McKenzie would never receive it Till D ppe and E Roy Weintraub explore the lives and work of these economists and the issues of scientific credit against the extraordinary backdrop of overlapping research communities and an economics discipline that was shifting dramatically to mathematical modes of expression Based on recently opened archives Finding Equilibrium shows the complex interplay between each man's personal life and work and examines compelling ideas about scientific credit publication regard for different research institutions and the awarding of Nobel prizes Instead of asking whether recognition was rightly or wrongly given and who were the heroes or villains the book considers attitudes toward intellectual credit and strategies to gain it vis vis the communities that grant it Telling the story behind the proof of the central theorem in economics Finding Equilibrium sheds light on the changing nature of the scientific community and the critical connections between the personal and public rewards of scientific work Routledge International Encyclopedia of Women Cheris Kramar e, Dale Spender, 2004-04-16 For a full list of entries and contributors sample entries and more visit the Routledge International Encyclopedia of Women website Featuring comprehensive global coverage of women s issues and concerns from violence and sexuality to feminist theory the Routledge International Encyclopedia of Women brings the field into the new millennium In over 900 signed A Z entries from US and Europe Asia the Americas Oceania and the Middle East the women who pioneered the field from its inception collaborate with the new scholars who are shaping the future of women s studies to create the new standard work for anyone who needs information on women related subjects Sassetta Sassetta,2009 Sassetta the subtle genius from Siena revolutionized Italian painting with an altarpiece for the small Tuscan town of Borgo San Sepolcro in 1437 1444 To produce this volume experts in art and general history have joined forces across the boundaries of eight different nations to explore Sassetta s work Working Mother ,2000-10 The magazine that helps career moms balance their personal and professional lives Forthcoming Books Rose Arny,1995-02 Human Rights and Legal History Katherine O'Donovan,Gerry R. Rubin,2000 This book brings together essays on themes of human rights and legal history reflecting the long and distinguished career as academic writer and human rights activist of Brian Simpson Written by colleagues and friends in the United States and Britain the essays are intended to reflect Simpson s own legal interests The collection opens with biography of Simpson s academic life which notes his major contribution to legal thought and closes with an account of his career in the United States and a bibliography of his writings As a tribute to Simpson s varied interests in the law the collection is grouped around themes in human rights legal philosophy and legal history The human rights papers are concerned with the history of the right of individual petition to the European Court of Human Rights and recent successes in which Brian Simpson played a part the evolution of a transnational common law of human rights the United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child and the interpretation of the provisions on identity in France and England the suspension of human rights which would have occurred had the emergency War Zone Courts scheme been brought into effect during wartime historical resistance to colonial laws in Papua New Guinea and the ratio decidendi of the story of the Prodigal Son Historical themes are found in essays concerned with three nineteenth century Lord Chancellors in two essays relating to the fate of the civil jury on either side of the Atlantic which provide a fascinating comparison in the battle of the books which led to changes in eighteenth century copyright law and judicial rivalry between King s Bench and Common Pleas in the early modern period Women in Impressionism Susan Elizabeth Strauber,2006 This title presents a thorough analysis of how the concepts of woman and femininity unfold inside the broader spectrum of Impressionist painting by male as well as female artists Subject Guide to Books in Print ,1971 Zeitschrift des Deutschen Palästina-Vereins ,1995 Beiträge zur biblischen Landes- und Altertumskunde Deutscher Verein zur Erforschung Palästinas,1995 The Making of the Modern Canon Jan Gorak,1991 This book is part of a series which moves the canon debate of the 1980s forward into a new multidisciplinary and cross cultural phase by investigating problems of canon formation across the whole humanistic field Some volumes explore the linguistic political or anthropological dimensions of canonicity Others examine the historical canons of individual disciplines The important contribution to the canon debate is remarkable in examining the actual process of canon formation from three unusual and complementary angles The first two chapters discuss historical attitudes to canons from antiquity onwards showing the religious aesthetic cultural and political interests which have shaped our modern critical canons Each of the four succeeding chapters examines an exemplary modern defendant interpreter or critic of canons Ernst Gombrich Northrop Frye Frank Kermode and Edward Said A final chapter considers the origins and rationale of the contemporary debate emphasizing the disciplinary and aesthetic problems we must confront if our cultural institutions are to meet the changing needs of the next century Bloomsbury Publishing
