Restructuring Regional and Local Economies George Blazysca,2017-11-22 This title was first published in 2003 Throughout Western Europe and the former Soviet bloc the structural shift from traditional heavy industry towards lighter manufacturing and services has often had a strong regional dimension This volume brings together researchers and practitioners from Scotland and Poland to share such restructuring experiences The Poles now closer than ever to EU membership are eager to draw on Western experience while Western experts and institutions have an opportunity to contribute to shaping regional policy in Central Europe The book is divided into four sections the first examines economic transformation and restructuring the second focuses on social partnerships and their role in regional development the third looks at enterprise supporting initiatives the final section questions the role of FDI Its Scottish Polish focus provides a fresh perspective on policy for regional and local development summarising recent developments in both countries and stressing the importance of building appropriate institutional capacity to promote strong local economies

Spatial Economic Modelling of Megathrust Earthquake in Japan Suminori Tokunaga, Budy P. Resosudarmo, 2017-12-19 This book presents an evaluation of the impacts of megathrust earthquakes and tsunamis on regional economies and subsequent reconstruction as well as regional revitalization by the spatial economic model and dynamic macro and regional computable general equilibrium CGE models The cases examined are the Great East Japan Earthquake and the Indian Ocean Tsunami The study constructs three models of these megathrust earthquakes and the associated tsunami In the first model the regional CGE model is proposed with a database comprising the two regional social accounting matrix for 2005 between the region comprising four disaster affected prefectures of Japan and the non disaster region For the recursive dynamic regional CGE model the model that expanded and improved the dynamic two regional CGE model to reflect the incomplete employment conditions and the aging society is used to analyze the impacts of an earthquake and the construction of industrial clusters In the second model the interregional input output model is proposed in order to analyze the impacts of the earthquake and rapid population decline and construction of a biogas electricity power plant In the third model a new economic geography NEG model is proposed consisting of the 47 prefectures of Japan in order to investigate the impacts of the Great East Japan and Nankai megathrust earthquakes and the associated tsunami and to consider how they change the regional economies of Japan Using these three models the impacts of megathrust earthquakes and tsunamis on regional economies and reconstruction and on regional revitalization are evaluated

Balkan Reconstruction Daniel Daianu, Thanos Veremēs, 2001 Focusing scholarly attention on a little known area of Europe the book brings together analysts with an insider's view to examine the short and long term challenges facing the region the intricate relationship between politics and economics and the irrelevance of quick fixes in the postwar reform of Southeast Europe

The Impact of State Restructuring on Indonesia's Regional Economic Convergence Adiwan Fahlan Aritenang, 2016-06-15 The creation of ASEAN Free Trade Area AFTA in 1992 and decentralization in 1999 mark the state restructuring in Indonesia This book analyses the impact of state restructuring on regional economic development in Indonesia between 1993 and 2010 Regional economic analysis shows persistent and severe regional disparities throughout the period Particularly econometrics study found that decentralization has accelerated regional disparities whilst the AFTA effect is insignificant on regional economic growth Furthermore historical institutionalism analysis on two cities the manufacturing industry in Batam and the creative economy in Bandung shows that past and embedded local institutions provide the capacity to adapt and create new development paths The book suggests the importance of local specific policies that embrace local knowledge and institutions to develop regional specialization and competitive advantage This book fills the gap in Indonesian literature that lacks studies on the integrated impact of decentralization and trade liberalization both economically and politically Diversifying and Rebuilding Local Economies ,2000 In Place of Austerity:
