Recovering History Constructing Race:

Recovering History, Constructing Race Martha Menchaca, 2002-01-15 An unprecedented tour de force A sweeping historical overview and interpretation of the racial formation and racial history of Mexican Americans Antonia I Casta eda Associate Professor of History St Mary's University Winner A Choice Outstanding Academic Book The history of Mexican Americans is a history of the intermingling of races Indian White and Black This racial history underlies a legacy of racial discrimination against Mexican Americans and their Mexican ancestors that stretches from the Spanish conquest to current battles over ending affirmative action and other assistance programs for ethnic minorities Asserting the centrality of race in Mexican American history Martha Menchaca here offers the first interpretive racial history of Mexican Americans focusing on racial foundations and race relations from preHispanic times to the present Menchaca uses the concept of racialization to describe the process through which Spanish Mexican and U S authorities constructed racial status hierarchies that marginalized Mexicans of color and restricted their rights of land ownership She traces this process from the Spanish colonial period and the introduction of slavery through racial laws affecting Mexican Americans into the late twentieth century This re viewing of familiar history through the lens of race recovers Blacks as important historical actors links Indians and the mission system in the Southwest to the Mexican American present and reveals the legal and illegal means by which Mexican Americans lost their land grants Martha Menchaca has begun an intellectual insurrection by challenging the pristine aboriginal origins of Mexican Americans as historically inaccurate Menchaca revisits the process of racial formation in the northern part of Greater Mexico from the Spanish conquest to the present Hispanic American Historical Review

Recovering History, Constructing Race Martha Menchaca, 2001 In this book it is my intent to write about the Mexican American people's Indian White and Black racial history In doing so I offer an interpretive historical analysis of the experiences of the Mexican Americans ancestors in Mexico and the United States This analysis begins with the Mexican Americans prehistoric foundations and continues into the late twentieth century My focus however is on exploring the legacy of racial discrimination that was established in the aftermath of the Spanish conquest and was later intensified by the United States government when in 1848 it conquered northern Mexico presently the U S Southwest and annexed it to the United States Menchaca 1999 3 The central period of study ranges from 1570 to 1898 Page 1

Blood Lines Sheila Marie Contreras, 2009-07-21 2009 Runner up Modern Language Association Prize in United States Latina and Latino and Chicana and Chicano Literary and Cultural Studies Blood Lines Myth Indigenism and Chicana o Literature examines a broad array of texts that have contributed to the formation of an indigenous strand of Chicano cultural politics In particular this book exposes the ethnographic and poetic discourses that shaped the aesthetics and stylistics of Chicano nationalism and Chicana feminism Contreras offers original perspectives on writers ranging from Alurista and Gloria Anzald a to Lorna Dee Cervantes and Alma Luz Villanueva effectively marking the invocation of a Chicano indigeneity whose foundations and formulations can be linked to U S and British modernist writing By highlighting intertextualities such as those between Anzald a and D H Lawrence Contreras critiques the resilience of primitivism in the Mexican borderlands She questions established cultural perspectives on the native which paradoxically challenge and reaffirm racialized representations of Indians in the Americas In doing so Blood Lines brings a new understanding to the contradictory and richly textured literary relationship that links the projects of European modernism and Anglo American authors on the one hand and the imaginary of the post revolutionary Mexican state and Chicano a writers on the other hand The Mexican Outsiders Martha

Menchaca,2010-01-01 People of Mexican descent and Anglo Americans have lived together in the U S Southwest for over a hundred years yet relations between them remain strained as shown by recent controversies over social services for undocumented aliens in California In this study covering the Spanish colonial period to the present day Martha Menchaca delves deeply into interethnic relations in Santa Paula California to document how the residential social and school segregation of Mexican origin people became institutionalized in a representative California town Menchaca lived in Santa Paula during the 1980s and interviews with residents add a vivid human dimension to her book She argues that social segregation in Santa Paula has evolved into a system of social apartness that is a cultural system controlled by Anglo Americans that designates the proper times and places where Mexican origin people can socially interact with Anglos This first historical ethnographic case study of a Mexican origin community will be important reading across a spectrum of disciplines including anthropology sociology race and ethnicity Latino studies and American culture Making Black Los Angeles Marne L. Campbell,2016-09-27 Black Los Angeles started small The first census of the newly formed Los Angeles County in 1850 recorded only twelve Americans of African descent alongside a population of more than 3 500 Anglo Americans Over the following seventy years however the African American founding families of Los Angeles forged a vibrant community within the increasingly segregated and stratified city In this book historian Marne L Campbell examines the intersections of race class and gender to produce a social history of community formation and cultural expression in Los Angeles Expanding on the traditional narrative of middle class uplift Campbell demonstrates that the black working class largely through the efforts of women fought to secure their own economic and social freedom by forging communal bonds with black elites and other communities of color This women led black working class agency and cross racial community building Campbell argues was markedly more successful in Los Angeles than in any other region in the country Drawing from an extensive database of all African American households between 1850 and 1910 Campbell vividly tells the story of how middle class African Americans were able to live work and establish a community of their own in the growing city of Los Angeles An African American and Latinx History of the United States Paul Ortiz,2018-01-30 An intersectional history of the shared struggle for African American and Latinx civil rights Spanning more than two hundred years An African American and Latinx History of the United States is a revolutionary politically charged narrative history arguing that the Global South was crucial to the development of America as we know it Scholar and activist Paul Ortiz challenges the notion of westward progress as exalted by widely taught formulations like manifest destiny and Jacksonian democracy and shows how placing African American Latinx and Indigenous voices unapologetically front and center transforms US history into one of the working class organizing against imperialism Drawing on rich narratives and primary source documents Ortiz links racial segregation in the Southwest and the rise and violent fall of a powerful tradition of Mexican labor organizing in the twentieth century to May 1 2006 known as International Workers Day when migrant laborers Chicana os AfroCubanos and immigrants from every continent on earth united in resistance on the first Day Without Immigrants As African American civil rights activists fought Jim Crow laws and Mexican labor organizers warred against the suffocating grip of capitalism Black and Spanish language newspapers abolitionists and Latin American revolutionaries coalesced around movements built between people from the United States and people from Central America and the Caribbean In stark contrast to the resurgence of America First rhetoric Black and Latinx intellectuals and organizers today have historically urged the United States to build bridges of solidarity with the nations of the Americas Incisive and timely this bottom up history told from the interconnected vantage points of Latinx and African Americans reveals the radically different ways that people of the diaspora have addressed issues still plaguing the United States today and it offers a way forward in the continued struggle for universal civil rights 2018 Winner of the PEN Oakland Josephine Miles Literary Award

Twentieth-Century Austin, Texas Jason McDonald, 2012-06-14 This pioneering study sheds new light on racial dynamics in the urban Southwest at a critical juncture in the history of the region and the nation It focuses upon the experiences of ethnoracial minorities particularly African Americans and Mexican immigrants in Austin Texas from the dawn of the Progressive Era to the onset of the Great Depression Through this lens McDonald explores the issues of migration proletarianization marginalization adaptation identity and community He reveals how in response to the exponential growth of the local ethnic Mexican population the white elite of the Lone Star State s capital adapted the city s bipartite system of segregation which had traditionally separated blacks from whites to incorporate Mexicans as a third and separate element

neither black nor white As well as examining how African Americans and Mexican Americans responded to life in a racially stratified society McDonald examines the often fraught relationship between these groups Latino Education Pedro Pedraza, Melissa Rivera, 2006-04-21 This landmark volume represents the work of the National Latino a Education Research Agenda Project NLERAP an initiative focused on school reform and educational research with and for Latino communities NLERAP s goal is to bring together various constituencies within the broad Latino community who are concerned with public education to articulate a Latino perspective on research based school reform and to use research as a guide to improving the public school systems that serve Latino students and to maximizing their opportunities to participate fully and equally in all social economic and political contexts of society Latino Education An Agenda for Community Action Research conceptualizes and illustrates the theoretical framework for the NLERAP agenda and its projects This framework is grounded in three overlapping areas of scholarship and activism which are reflected within the chapters in this volume critical studies illuminating and analyzing the status of people of color in the United States Latino a educational research capturing the sociohistorical cultural and political schooling experiences of U S Latino a communities and participatory action research exemplifying a liberation oriented methodology for truly transformative education The volume includes both descriptive educational research and critical analyses of previous research and educational agendas related to Latino a communities in the United States According to current U S Census data Latinos now comprise the largest minority group in the total U S population Historically reflecting larger sociohistorical and economic inequalities in U S society the Latino community has not been well served by U S public school systems More attention to the Latino students educational issues is needed to redress this problem especially given the tremendous population increase and projected growth of Latino communities in the U S Latino Education An Agenda for Community Action Research is a major contribution toward this goal Integrations Lawrence Blum, Zoë Burkholder, 2021-05-11 The promise of a free high quality public education is supposed to guarantee every child a shot at the American dream But our widely segregated schools mean that many children of color do not have access to educational opportunities equal to those of their white peers In Integrations historian Zo Burkholder and philosopher Lawrence Blum investigate what this country s long history of school segregation means for achieving just and equitable educational opportunities in the United States Integrations focuses on multiple marginalized groups in American schooling African Americans Native Americans Latinxs and Asian Americans The authors show that in order to grapple with integration in a meaningful way we must think of integration in the plural both in its multiple histories and in the many possible definitions of and courses of action for integration Ultimately the authors show integration cannot guarantee educational equality and justice but it is an essential component of civic education that prepares students for life in our multiracial democracy Latino Issues Rogelio Sáenz, Aurelia Lorena Murga, 2011-06-16 This book provides a lively understanding of the growing Latina o population in the United States highlights the problems that confront this ethnic group and discusses proposed solutions to these issues The groups that comprise the Latino population differ with respect to histories length of residence in the United States mode in which they originally came to this country and trajectory of integration Latinos in America A Reference Handbook provides a comprehensive overview of Latino experiences in the United States from historical and contemporary perspectives illustrating the diversity of this disparate population The handbook covers numerous aspects of Latino life in the United States engaging readers in current problems and controversies involving the Latino population and suggesting solutions Profiles of prominent Latinos are included as is information on legal illegal immigration bilingual education affirmative action dual citizenship and assimilation all of which will prove invaluable to students as well as to policymakers educators and other community leaders interested in improving the lives of Latinos within our borders

Flight Ben Vinson III, 2004-11-06 Virgil Richardson blazed his own unique trail through the twentieth century a co founder of Harlem's American Negro Theater 1930s radio personality World War II pilot and expatriate for most of his life In Flight this remarkable man tells his story in his own vivid words Educated in Texas Richardson set out for New York City in 1938 to build a career on the stage Just when he was on the brink of success as an actor World War II broke out and he was drafted into the army After overcoming numerous obstacles Richardson became a Tuskegee cadet in 1943 and later saw action flying over the battlefields of Europe Upon returning to the racially divided U S he decided to move to Mexico where he encountered a society quite different from the one he had left behind Compellingly told and historically fascinating this is the story of a determined individual unwilling to accept the limited options of Jim Crow America

Married To A Daughter Of The Land Maria Raquel Casas, 2009-03-28 The surprising truth about intermarriage in 19th Century California Until recently most studies of the colonial period of the American West have focused on the activities and agency of men Now historian Maria Raquel Casas examines the role of Spanish Mexican women in the development of California She finds that far from being pawns in a male dominated society Californianas of all classes were often active and determined creators of their own destinies finding ways to choose their mates to leave unsatisfactory marriages and to maintain themselves economically Using a wide range of sources in English and Spanish Casas unveils a picture of women's lives in these critical decades of California's history She shows how many Spanish Mexican women negotiated the precarious boundaries of gender and race to choose Euro American husbands and what this intermarriage meant to the individuals involved and to the larger multiracial society evolving from California's rich Hispanic and Indian past Casas's discussion ranges from California's burgeoning economy to the intimacies of private households and ethnically mixed families Here we discover the actions of real women of all classes as they shaped their own identities Married to a Daughter of the Land is a significant and fascinating contribution to the history of women in the American West and to our understanding of the complex role of gender race and class in the Borderlands of the Southwest

American Education Wayne J. Urban, Jennings L. Wagoner, Jr., Milton Gaither, 2019-01-22 American Education A History Sixth Edition is a comprehensive highly regarded

history of American education from precolonial times to the present Chronologically organized it provides an objective overview of each major period in the development of American education setting the discussion against the broader backdrop of national and world events In addition to its in depth exploration of Native American traditions including education prior to colonization it also offers strong ongoing coverage of minorities and women This much anticipated sixth edition brings heightened attention to the history of education of individuals with disabilities of classroom pedagogy and technology of teachers and teacher leaders and of educational developments and controversies of the twenty first century From Arrival to Incorporation Elliott Barkan,Hasia R. Diner,Alan M. Kraut,2008 The United States is once again in the midst of a peak period of immigration By 2005 more than 35 million legal and illegal migrants were present in the United States At different rates and with differing degrees of difficulty a great many will be incorporated into American society and culture Leading immigration experts in history sociology anthropology economics and political science here offer multiethnic and multidisciplinary perspectives on the challenges confronting immigrants adapting to a new society How will these recent arrivals become Americans Does the journey to the U S demand abandoning the past How is the United States changing even as it requires change from those who come here Broad thematic essays are coupled with case studies and concluding essays analyzing contemporary issues facing Muslim newcomers in the wake of 9 11 Together they offer a vibrant portrait of America s new populations today Contributors Anny Bakalian Elliott Barkan Mehdi Bozorgmehr Caroline Brettell Barry R Chiswick Hasia Diner Roland L Guyotte Gary Gerstle David W Haines Alan M Kraut Xiyuan Li Timothy J Meagher Paul Miller Barbara M Posadas Paul Spickard Roger Waldinger Karen A Woodrow Lafield and Min Zhou Latina/o Stars in U.S. Eyes Mary C.
