Kabul Carnival Julie Billaud, 2015-04-15 After the attacks of September 11 2001 the plight of Afghan women under Taliban rule was widely publicized in the United States as one of the humanitarian issues justifying intervention Kabul Carnival explores the contradictions ambiguities and unintended effects of the emancipatory projects for Afghan women designed and imposed by external organizations Building on embodiment and performance theory this evocative ethnography describes Afghan women s responses to social anxieties about identity that have emerged as a result of the military occupation Offering one of the first long term on the ground studies since the arrival of allied forces in 2001 Julie Billaud introduces readers to daily life in Afghanistan through portraits of women targeted by international aid policies Examining encounters between international experts in gender and transitional justice Afghan civil servants and NGO staff and women unaffiliated with these organizations Billaud unpacks some of the paradoxes that arise from competing understandings of democracy and rights practices Kabul Carnival reveals the ways in which the international community s concern with the visibility of women in public has ultimately created tensions and constrained women s capacity to find a culturally legitimate voice

South Asian Governmentalities Stephen Legg, Deana Heath, 2018-10-18 This volume studies the reception of the works of the acclaimed post colonial philosopher Michel Foucault by South Asian scholars Governance Feminism Janet Halley, Prabha Kotiswaran, Rachel Rebouché, Hila Shamir, 2018-03-13 Describing and assessing feminist inroads into the state Feminists walk the halls of power Governance Feminism An Introduction shows how some feminists and feminist ideas but by no means all have entered into state and state like power in recent years Being a feminist can qualify you for a job in the United Nations the World Bank the International Criminal Court the local prosecutor s office or the child welfare bureaucracy Feminists have built institutions and participate in governance The authors argue that governance feminism is institutionally diverse and globally distributed It emerges from grassroots activism as well as statutes and treaties as crime control and as immanent bureaucracy Conflicts among feminists global North and South left center and right emerge as struggles over governance This volume collects examples from the United States Israel India and from transnational human rights law Governance feminism poses new challenges for feminists How shall we assess our successes and failures What responsibility do we shoulder for the outcomes of our work For the compromises and strange bedfellows we took on along the way Can feminism foster a critique of its own successes This volume offers a pathway to critical engagement with these pressing and significant questions Gender and Careers in the Legal Academy Ulrike Schultz, Gisela Shaw, Margaret Thornton, Rosemary Auchmuty, 2021-02-25 In the past fifteen years there has been a marked increase in the international scholarship relating to women in law The lives and careers of women in legal practice and the judiciary have been extensively documented and critiqued but the central conundrum remains Does the presence of women make a difference What has been largely overlooked in the literature is the position of women in the legal academy although central to the changing culture To remedy the oversight an international network of scholars embarked on a comparative study which resulted in this path breaking book The contributors uncover fascinating accounts of the careers of the academic pioneers as well as exploring broader theoretical issues relating to gender and culture The provocative question as to whether the presence of women makes a difference informs each contribution

Privileged Minorities Sonja Thomas, 2018-11-10 Although demographically a minority in Kerala India Syrian Christians are not a subordinated community They are caste race and class privileged and have long benefitted both economically and socially from their privileged position Focusing on Syrian Christian women Sonja Thomas explores how this community illuminates larger questions of multiple oppressions privilege and subordination racialization and religion and secularism in India In Privileged Minorities Thomas examines a wide range of sources including oral histories ethnographic interviews and legislative assembly debates to interrogate the relationships between religious rights and women's rights in Kerala Using an intersectional approach and US women of color feminist theory she demonstrates the ways that race caste gender religion and politics are inextricably intertwined with power and privilege working in complex and nuanced ways By attending to the ways in which inequalities within groups shape very different experiences of religious and political movements in feminist and rights based activism Thomas lays the groundwork for imagining new feminist solidarities across religions castes races and classes

Security, Socialisation and Affect in Indian Families Ira Raja, 2016-05-23 Sociological research on Indian families has largely focused on questions of household form and structure to the exclusion of not only the more nebulous dimensions of family life and relationships but also the discursive and imagined aspects of our familial worlds such as may be accessed through an analysis of film literature and the electronic media Moreover when sociological inquiry has sought to go beyond the demographic and census aspects of the household it has trained its eye on the heterosexual family centred on the conjugal couple frequently at the expense of those relational patterns and diversities that fall outside the familiar circuits of desire within the family The present volume brings together ten essays from a range of disciplines including law literature anthropology sociology and queer studies to engage with hitherto neglected and emergent aspects of Indian family life This book was published as a special issue of South Asia

Journal of South Asian Studies Rethinking Disability in India Anita Ghai, 2019-01-15 Moving away from clinical medical or therapeutic perspectives on disability this book explores disability in India as a social cultural and political phenomenon arguing that this difference should be accepted as a part of social diversity It further interrogates the multiple issues of identification of the disabled and the forms of oppressio INDIAN POLITICS SINGH, M. P., SAXENA, REKHA, 2021-03-01 Designed as a standard text for undergraduate and postgraduate students of Political Science and also for the aspirants of Civil Services Examinations the third edition of the book provides a thoroughly updated account of Indian politics taking into consideration the Indian constitutional foundations and functioning of the various democratic institutions It gives a holistic view of the political system of India that includes the State Government both central and state governments the market and the civil society including infrastructures like the party systems in the nation and the states that are partly in the civil society and partly in the state NEW TO THIS EDITION All new developments in the working of the institutions of the various organs of the governments at the Union State and local levels in their internal as well as interactional settings Perspective of governance that demands attention to relationships among the governments the civil society and the market which have acquired a new salience since the parameter altering economic reforms in 1991 but have suffered some reverses since 2008 a phenomenon known as slowbalization or deglobalization New phase in Indian politics with Narendra Modi government at the centre since 2014 TARGET AUDIENCE B A Political Science M A Political Science Aspirants of Civil Services Examinations Decolonizing Democracy Christine Keating, 2012-02-28 Analyzes the movement for Indian independence the framing of the Indian Constitution and contemporary contestations over women s legal and political status as crucial moments of transition in which feminist and other progressive activists in India have challenged racialized and gendered underpinnings of democracy s social contract Provided by publisher Legalizing Sex Chaitanya Lakkimsetti, 2020-01-14 How the rise of HIV in India resulted in government protections for gay groups transgender people and sex workers This original ethnographic research explores the relationship between the HIV AIDS epidemic and the rights based struggles of sexual minorities in contemporary India Sex workers gay men and transgender people became visible in the Indian public sphere in the mid 1980s when the rise of HIV AIDS became a frightening issue The Indian state started to fold these groups into national HIV AIDS policies as high risk groups in an attempt to create an effective response to the epidemic Lakkimsetti argues that over time the crisis of HIV AIDS effectively transformed the relationship between sexual minorities and the state from one that was focused on juridical exclusion to one of inclusion The new relationship then enabled affected groups to demand rights and citizenship from the Indian state that had been previously unimaginable By illuminating such tactics as mobilizing against a colonial era anti sodomy law petitioning the courts for the recognition of gender identity and stalling attempts to criminalize sexual labor this book uniquely brings together the struggles of sex workers transgender people and gay groups previously studied separately A closely observed look at the machinations behind recent victories for sexual minorities this book is essential reading across several fields

Marital Rights Robert Leckey, 2017-07-05 This volume gathers influential and cutting edge scholarship on the international and domestic rights attaching to married couples and other adult relationships Addressing examples from the European Court of Human Rights UK USA Canada Australia and South Africa it traces contentious debates about the content of marital rights and responsibilities and whether law should reach beyond marriage and if so how Twenty four essays and a substantial introduction highlight the complexity and contradictions as marital law grapples with gender equality the aftermath of recognizing gay and lesbian rights abiding economic inequalities and exotic issues such as forced marriage and polygamy

Human Rights Education and the Politics of Knowledge Joanne Coysh, 2017-02-24 Around the world there are a myriad of NGOs using human rights education HRE as a tool of community empowerment with the firm belief that it will help people improve their lives One way of understanding these processes is that they translate universal human rights speak using messages and symbols which make them relevant to people s daily lives and culturally resonant However an alternative more radical perspective is that these processes should engage individuals in modes of critical inquiry into the ways that that existing power structures maintain the status quo and control not only how we understand and speak about social inequality and injustice but also act on it This book is a critical inquiry into the production distribution and consumption of HRE and how the discourse is constructed historically socially and politically through global institutions and local NGO practice The book begins with the premise that HRE is composed of theories of human rights and education both of which are complex and multifaceted However the book demonstrates how over time a dominant discourse of HRE constructed by the United Nations institutional framework has come to prominence and the ways it is reproduced and reinforced through the practice of intermediary NGOs engaged in HRE activities with community groups Drawing on socio legal scholarship it offers a new theoretical and political framework for addressing how human rights pedagogy knowledge and power can be analysed between the global and local by connecting the critical but well trodden theories of human rights to insights on critical pedagogy It uses critical discourse analysis and ethnographic research to investigate the practice of NGOs engaged in HRE using contextual evidence and findings from fieldwork with NGOs and communities in Tanzania

Understanding Marital Violence Kausiki Sarma, 2024-07-29 This book examines the roles and interconnections between structural factors and individual agency in marital violence focusing on women in heterosexual marital relationships With the overall aim of improving recognition and strengthening responses to marital violence it underlines what occurs as marital violence and why it is possibly occurring in the manner it does while simultaneously demonstrating how it is dealt with and resisted Based upon in depth qualitative data focussing upon the experiences of women facing marital violence and key informants from Assam in Northeast India this book sheds light upon four key areas To begin with what is named or recognised and not recognised as marital violence is assessed and a typology and associated denials informed by the capabilities approach is developed Further the re victimisation that happens through and within both civil and criminal justice is explored In addition to this the existing structural context highlighting changes that occur at a broader economic political and social level contextualising a society that is in transition has been emphasised To conclude conditioned by distinct material cultural constraints enablers and acknowledging the role played by emotions a temporal agential trajectory in response to marital violence is mapped specifically through the concepts of Habitus and Reflexivity In short this book attempts to decolonise certain aspects of academic knowledge around marital violence by asserting the need to consider distinct natures and forms of violence and violations that occur within marriages and the acknowledgement of a spectrum of actions in the agential trajectory so that victims survivors are not solely assessed by their decisions to stay or to leave an abusive marriage It will be of interest to scholars students professionals and policymakers working within social work social policy gender studies and violence prevention
