Living in Limbo Donald Capps, Nathan Carlin, 2010-09-01 Limbo has traditionally been viewed as a place between heaven on the one hand and purgatory and hell on the other to which the patriarchs who lived under the old law and babies who died before being baptized into the Christian faith have been consigned Like purgatory it is a dark place but not deprived of grace Now that the Roman Catholic Church has declared that limbo is not an official church teaching the idea of limbo has been freed from ecclesiastical constraints and available for reflection on the human condition on this side of the grave Living in Limbo by Donald Capps and Nathan Carlin focuses on the acute limbo situations that are an integral part of human life including the vicissitudes of growing up of forming committed relationships of finding employment and staying employed of undergoing life threatening illnesses and of experiencing dislocation and doubt Using cases and examples of real life persons the book identifies the forms of distress likely to occur throughout the duration of the limbo experience and it also identifies the internal and external resources that individuals draw upon as they cope with the stresses and uncertainties of living in limbo Drawing on the traditional view especially reflected in Christian art that Christ descends into limbo to comfort and liberate its occupants Living in Limbo comes down on the side of hope versus despair In reading about other limbo dwellers readers will meet themselves or someone they love and care about and will be encouraged by the very fact that they are not alone Although it is not a pleasant place to be limbo is not a place of solitary confinement and one derives strength and resilience from the presence of the others

Memoir of a Debulked Woman: Enduring Ovarian Cancer Susan Gubar, 2012-04-30 A 2012 New York Times Book Review Notable Book Staggering searing Ms Gubar deserves the highest admiration for her bravery and honesty New York Times Diagnosed with ovarian cancer in 2008 Susan Gubar underwent radical debulking surgery an attempt to excise the cancer by removing part or all of many organs in the lower abdomen Her memoir mines the deepest levels of anguish and devotion as she struggles to come to terms with her body's betrayal and the frightful protocols of contemporary medicine She finds solace in the abiding love of her husband children and friends while she searches for understanding in works of literature visual art and the testimonies of others who suffer with various forms of cancer Ovarian cancer remains an incurable disease for most of those diagnosed even those lucky enough to find caring and skilled physicians Memoir of a Debulked Woman is both a polemic against the ineffectual and injurious medical responses to which thousands of women are subjected and a meditation on the gifts of companionship art and literature that sustain people in need

The Mirror of Death Kristof K. P. Vanhoutte, 2024-04-01 How porous is the border between life and death How do the dead influence the living and in what way What can Heaven Hell Purgatory and the two Limbos tell us of our contemporary world today In The Mirror of Death Kristof K P Vanhoutte explores the hermeneutical potential of the regions in the hereafter After an exciting voyage through the emergence of the afterlife and of the constancy of death's presence in the history of humanity Vanhoutte shows through the study of the nature and genealogy of the various realms in the beyond how an invigoratingly new and critical perspective of a wide variety of contemporary phenomena is unveiled when reading them through the interpretative lens of these regions where the dead dwell Modern politics our fellow human beings the times of our lives the capitalistic economic system medicalization wokism and living in crisis will never look the same
