Energies of Resistance in Nineteenth-Century Haitian and American Literature Mary Grace Albanese, 2023-11-23 Black Women and Energies of Resistance in Nineteenth Century Haitian and American Literature intervenes in traditional narratives of 19th century American modernity by situating Black women at the center of an increasingly connected world While traditional accounts of modernity have emphasized advancements in communication technologies animal and fossil fuel extraction and the rise of urban centers Mary Grace Albanese proposes that women of African descent combated these often violent regimes through diasporic spiritual beliefs and practices including spiritual possession rootwork midwifery mesmerism prophecy and wandering It shows how these energetic acts of resistance were carried out on scales large and small from the constrained corners of the garden plot to the expansive circuits of global migration By examining the concept of energy from narratives of technological progress capital accrual and global expansion this book uncovers new stories that center Black women at the heart of a pulsating revolutionary world The Black Intellectual Tradition Derrick P. Alridge, Cornelius L. Bynum, James B. Stewart, 2021-08-03 Considering the development and ongoing influence of Black thought From 1900 to the present people of African descent living in the United States have drawn on homegrown and diasporic minds to create a Black intellectual tradition engaged with ideas on race racial oppression and the world This volume presents essays on the diverse thought behind the fight for racial justice as developed by African American artists and intellectuals performers and protest activists institutions and organizations and educators and religious leaders By including both women's and men's perspectives from the U S and the Diaspora the essays explore the full landscape of the Black intellectual tradition Throughout contributors engage with important ideas ranging from the consideration of gender within the tradition to intellectual products generated outside the intelligentsia to the ongoing relationship between thought and concrete effort in the quest for liberation Expansive in scope and interdisciplinary in practice The Black Intellectual Tradition delves into the ideas that animated a people's striving for full participation in American life Contributors Derrick P Alridge Keisha N Blain Cornelius L Bynum Jeffrey Lamar Coleman Pero Gaglo Dagbovie Stephanie Y Evans Aaron David Gresson III Claudrena N Harold Leonard Harris Maurice J Hobson La TaSha B Levy Layli Maparyan Zebulon V Miletsky R Baxter Miller Edward Onaci Venetria K Patton James B Stewart and Nikki M Taylor Guarding Cultural Memory Flora María González Mandri, 2006 In Guarding Cultural Memory Flora Gonz lez Mandri examines the vibrant and uniquely illuminating post Revolutionary creative endeavors of Afro Cuban women Taking on the question of how African diaspora cultures practice remembrance she reveals the ways in which these artists restage the confrontations between modernity and tradition Gonz lez Mandri considers the work of the poet and cultural critic Nancy Morej n the poet Excilia Salda a the filmmaker Gloria Rolando and the artists Mar a Magdalena Campos Pons and Belkis Ay n In their cultural representations these women conflate the artistic the historical and the personal to produce a transformative image of the black woman as a forger of Cuban culture They achieve this in several ways by redefining autobiography as a creative expression for the convergence of the domestic and the national by countering the eroticized image of the mulatta in favor of a mythical conception of the female body as a site for the engraving of cultural and national conflicts and resolutions and by valorizing certain aesthetic and religious traditions in relation to a postmodern artistic sensibility Placing these artists in their historical context Gonz lez Mandri shows how their accomplishments were consistently silenced in official Cuban history and culture and explores the strategies through which culturally censored memories survived and continue to survive in a Caribbean country purported to have integrated its Hispanic and African peoples and heritages into a Cuban identity The picture that finally emerges is one not only of exceptional artistic achievement but also of successful redefinitions of concepts of race gender and nation in the face of almost insurmountable cultural odds Politics and Affect in Black Women's Fiction Kathy Glass, 2017-12-15 Exploring literary possibilities Politics and Affect reads black women s text in particular Frances Harper's The Two Offers 1859 Julia Collins's The Curse of Caste 1865 Nella Larsen's Quicksand 1928 and Danzy Senna's Caucasia 1998 as richly creative documents saturated with sociopolitical value Interested in how African American women writers from the nineteenth century to the present have mined the politics of affect and emotion to document love shame and suffering in environments shaped by race Kathy Glass gives sustained attention to the impact of racist affect on the black body and examines how black women writers deploy emotional states to engender sociopolitical change Possessions Jennifer L. Griffiths, 2010-01-12 Studies of traumatic stress have explored the challenges to memory as a result of extreme experience particularly in relation to the ways in which trauma resonates within the survivor s body and the difficulties survivors face when trying to incorporate their experience into meaningful narratives Jennifer Griffiths examines the attempts of several African American writers and playwrights to explore ruptures in memory after a traumatic experience and to develop creative strategies for understanding the inscription of trauma on the body in a racialized cultural context In the literary and performance texts examined here Griffiths shows how the self is reconstituted through testimony through the attempt to put into language and public statement the struggle of survivors to negotiate the limits placed on their bodies and to speak controversial truths Dessa in her jail cell Venus in the courtroom Sally on the auction block Ursa in her own family history and Rodney King in the video frame each character in these texts by Sherley Anne Williams Suzan Lori Parks Robbie McCauley Gayl Jones and Anna Deavere Smith gives voice not only to the limits of language in representing traumatic experience but also to the necessity of testimony as the public enactment of memory and bodily witness In focusing specifically and exclusively on the relation of trauma to race and on the influence of racism on the creation and reception of narrative testimony this book distinguishes itself from previous studies of the literatures of trauma Encyclopedia of African American Women Writers Yolanda Williams Page, 2007-01-30 African American women writers published extensively during the Harlem Renaissance and have been extraordinarily prolific since the 1970s This book surveys the world of African American women writers Included are alphabetically arranged entries on more than 150 novelists poets
