Martins,Indra Pathmanathan,David T. Tan,Shiang Cheng Lim,Pascale Allotey,2021-08-26 Health systems are fluid and their components are interdependent in complex ways Policymakers academics and students continually endeavour to understand how to manage health systems to improve the health of populations However previous scholarship has often failed to engage with the intersections and interactions of health with a multitude of other systems and determinants This book ambitiously takes on the challenge of presenting health systems as a coherent whole by applying a systems thinking lens It focuses on Malaysia as a case study to demonstrate the evolution of a health system from a low income developing status to one of the most resilient health systems today A rich collaboration of multidisciplinary academics working with policymakers who were at the coalface of decision making and practitioners with decades of experience provides a candid analysis of what worked and what did not The result is an engaging informative and thought provoking intervention in the debate This title is Open Access
