Rafael Català, James D. Anderson

Luna A New Journal Of Poetry Translation:

Absentee Indians and Other Poems Kimberly Blaeser, 2002-10-31 Absentee Indians and Other Poems evokes personal yet universal experiences of the places that Native Americans call home their family and national histories and the emotional forces that help forge Native American identities These are poems of exile loss and the celebration of that which remains Anchored in the physical landscape Blaeser's poetry finds the sacred in those ordinary actions that bind a community together As Blaeser turns to the mysterious passage from sleeping to wakefulness or from nature to spirit she reveals not merely the movement from one age or place to another but the movement from experience to vision Poets & Writers

, 2000 Learning to Glow John Bradley, 2000 Provides personal accounts of people who were raised during the Cold War and of those who were directly in contact with nuclear weapons during World War II the Korean War and the Persian Gulf War focusing on the health and environmental hazards of nuclear weapons The Routledge Handbook of Translation and Memory Sharon Deane-Cox, Anneleen Spiessens, 2022-05-29 The Routledge Handbook of Translation and Memory serves as a timely and unique resource for the current boom in thinking around translation and memory The Handbook offers a comprehensive overview of a contemporary and as yet unconsolidated research landscape with a four section structure which encompasses both current debate and future trajectories Twenty four chapters written by leading and emerging international scholars provide a cross sectional snapshot of the diverse angles of approach and case studies that have thus far driven research into translation and memory A valuable far reaching range of theoretical empirical reflective comparative and archival approaches are brought to bear on translational sites of memory and mnemonic sites of translation through the examination of topics such as traumatic postcolonial cultural literary and translator memory This Handbook is key reading for advanced undergraduates postgraduates and researchers in translation studies memory studies and related areas
