Erasmus of Rotterdam Richard L. DeMolen, 2024-04-30 Erasmus's Life of Origen Desiderius Erasmus, 2016 Erasmus of Rotterdam 1466 1536 hailed Origen of Alexandria 185 254 as a holy priest a gifted homilist a heroic Christian and a celebrated exegete and theologian of the ancient Church In this book Thomas Scheck presents one of the fruits of Erasmus's endeavors in the field of patristic studies a particularly neglected field of scholarship within Erasmus studies by providing the first English translation annotated and thoroughly introduced of Erasmus's final work the Prefaces to his Edition of Origen's writings 1536 Originally published posthumously two months after Erasmus's death the work surveys Origen of Alexandria's life writings preaching and contribution to the Catholic Church The staggering depth and breadth of Erasmus's learning are exhibited here as well as the maturity of his theological reflections which in many ways anticipate the irenicism of the Second Vatican Council with respect to Origen Erasmus presents Origen as a marvelous doctor of the ancient Church who made a tremendous contribution to the Catholic exegetical tradition and who lived a saintly life Renaissance Humanism in Support of the Gospel in Luther's Early Correspondence Timothy P. Dost, 2017-07-05 Drawing on the early correspondence of Martin Luther Timothy Dost presents a reassessment of the degree to which humanism influenced the thinking of this key reformation figure Studying letters written by Luther between 1507 and 1522 he explores the various ways Luther used humanism and humanist techniques in his writings and the effect of these influences on his developing religious beliefs The letters used in this study many of which have never before been translated into English focus on Luther's thoughts attitudes and application of humanism uncovering the extent to which he used humanist devices to develop his understanding of the gospel Although there have been other studies of Luther and humanism few have been grounded in such a close philological examination of Luther's writings Combining a sound knowledge of recent historiography with a detailed familiarity with Luther's correspondence Dost provides a sophisticated contribution to the field of reformation studies Luther and German Humanism Lewis W. Spitz, 2024-10-28 The particular interest of Professor Spitz has been the close relationship and synergy between humanism and religious reform in the transformation of European culture in the 16th century Within the general cultural and intellectual context of the Renaissance and Reformation movements the present volume focuses on Luther and German humanism a subsequent collection looks more particularly at the place of education and history in the thought of the time The articles here discuss Luther's imposing knowledge of the classics his attitudes towards learning the religious and patriotic interests of the humanists and the role of a younger generation of humanists in the Reformation Also included is a far reaching appraisal of the impact of humanism and the Reformation on Western history Trinitarian Grace in Martin Luther's the Bondage of the Will Miikka Ruokanen,2021 Miikka Ruokanen is Professor Emeritus of Dogmatics at the University of Helsinki Finland and Professor of Systematic Theology at Nanjing Union Theological Seminary China He is also Guest Professor at the Renmin University of China Beijing and Advisory Professor at Fudan University Shanghai His publications include The Catholic Doctrine of Non Christian Religions According to the Second Vatican Council Brill 1992 Theology of Social Life in Augustine s De civitate Dei Vandenhoeck et Ruprecht 1993 and Christianity and Chinese Culture co edited with Paulos Huang Eerdmans 2010 Communities, Politics, and Reformation in Early Modern Europe Thomas Brady,2021-10-25 The studies united in this volume explore themes of community politics religion gender and social conflict and accommodation during the first decades of the Reformation movement Other chapters investigate historiographical themes especially the interpretation of early modern German history Two longer chapters address European themes the historical sociology of early modern societies in terms of legal definitions of status and modern conceptions of economic class and the difference between central and western European development in a global context Taken together the studies explore the transition zone between medieval and modern history in both microhistorical especially urban and regional and broadly comparative contexts Some of the studies are supplementary to the author s books on the sixteenth century Protestant Reformation at Strasbourg in southern Germany and in the Holy Roman Empire
