Fethullah Gulen Light Incorporated, The,2002-01-01

M.F. Gülen Fethullah Gülen,2002 Presents Gulen through a short biography a selection of various articles his views on modern education and its importance and how he has been presented in the media This book aims to serve as an introduction to those who desire a better understanding of Gulen s message and what it has accomplished over the years A Muslim Sage Among Peers John D. Barton,2017-10-01 This volume puts Fethullah Gulen and the Hizmet movement in dialogue with Christian theologians philosophers and organizations concerning areas of shared interest The Christian voices represented in these constructed dialogues are diverse contemporary and historical Catholic and Protestant theological and pragmatic While all of the essays explore overlaps and similarities between Gulen and these dialogue partners they also bring to the surface differences and critical assessments The result is a multi faceted conversation that invites us all into deeper levels of historical and theological imagination self reflection and collaborative service

Islamophobia and Radicalization John L. Esposito,Derya Iner,2018-10-13 While the themes of radicalization and Islamophobia have been broadly addressed by academia to date there has been little investigation of the crosspollination between the two Is Islamophobia a significant catalyst or influence on radicalization and recruitment How do radicalization and Islamophobia interact operate feed one another and ultimately pull societies toward polar extremes in domestic and foreign policy The wide ranging and global contributions collected here explore these questions through perspectives grounded in sociology political theory psychology and religion The volume provides an urgently needed and timely examination of the root causes of both radicalization and Islamophobia the cultural construction and consumption of radical and Islamophobic discourses the local and global contexts that fertilize these extreme stances and finally the everyday Muslim in the shadow of these opposing but equally vociferous forces Embracing the World Ori Z. Soltes,2013-08-07 This book is not a comprehensive study of Rumi and G len but it seeks to explore the places where the thought of the one is echoed in the thinking of the other either overtly or indirectly and to note ways in which the opposite is true that G len diverges from Rumi The book is also seeking to suggest some of the larger contexts in which the thinking of both resides Given the wide ranging aspects of their respective writings it should not be surprising if minimally we can find important foundation stones in both philosophy and theology in the edifices that they each construct Minority Religions in Europe and the Middle East George D. Chryssides, 2018-08-06 Minority religions not only New Religious Movements are explored in this innovative book including the predicament of ancient religions such as Zoroastrianism old new religions such as Baha'i and traditional religions that are minorities elsewhere The book is divided into two parts the gathering of data on religious minorities mapping and the ways in which governments and interest groups respond to them monitoring The international group examine which new religions exist in particular countries what their uptake is and how allegiance can be ascertained They explore a range of issues faced by minority religions encompassing official state recognition and registration unequal treatment in comparison with a dominant religion how changes in government can affect how they fare the extent to which members are free to practise their faith how they sometimes seek to influence politics and how they can be affected by harassment and persecution Bringing together debates concerning the social and political issues facing new religions in Europe and the Middle East this collection extends its focus to Middle Eastern minority faiths enabling exposition of spiritual movements such as the G'len Movement Paganism in Israel and the Zoroastrians in Tehran

The Gülen Hizmet Movement Tamer Balci, Christopher L. Miller, 2013-01-03 This volume covers the origins historical development and ideas of one of the largest and most influential Islamic movements in the world the G'len Hizmet Movement GHM Founded during the Cold War under the inspiration of M Fethullah G'len the GHM expanded to over 130 countries by the first decade of the twenty first century The movement's circumspect activism sheltered it from illiberal secular practices in Turkey and has guided it through the anxious post Cold War process of globalization This edited volume covers various characteristics of the movement from G'len's unconventional oratory to his educational philosophy In addition the book covers G'len's ideas on Islam and democracy and the GHM's indirect political engagement compared to the direct engagement of the Muslim Brotherhood Other chapters in the book cover the role of women in the movement the GHM's creation of an alternative public sphere for pious Muslims and the tension this creation instills in light of Secularism Theory which is analyzed comparatively with American religious pluralism The last two chapters question the effectiveness of interfaith dialogue activities promoted by the movement's adherents A concluding section seeks to synthesize this interdisciplinary scholarship in order to assess the GHM's overall gestalt as a social movement the overall theme of dreaming for a better world The symposium as a whole represented the positive potential that there is for the organization of forums of sharing that focus on this theme and on the three sub themes The Hizmet Movement and Peacebuilding Mohammed Abu-Nimer,Timothy Seidel,2018-08-31 The Hizmet Movement and Peacebuilding assesses the peacebuilding implications and societal impact of the Hizmet Movement characterized as a pacifist and inclusive expression of Islam With a range of both supporters and critics the studies of the Hizmet Movement presented in these cases provide a counter to negative stereotypes with examples of positive educational institutions rooted in Islamic values The book includes contributions from scholars and practitioners around the world that critically explore the intersection of the movement and peacebuilding in countries such as Northern Iraq Nigeria Ethiopia Kazakhstan Kyrgyzstan Sri Lanka and the Philippines
