Strabucchi,2023-11-15 An Open Access edition of this book is available on the Liverpool University Press website and the OAPEN library as part of the Opening the Future project with COPIM Representations of China in Latin American Literature 1987 2016 analyses contemporary Latin American novels in which China is the main theme Using China as a multidimensional term it explores how the novels both highlight and undermine assumptions about China that have shaped Latin America s understanding of China and shows China to be a kind of literary imaginary third term which reframes Latin American discourses of alterity On one level it argues that these texts play with the way that China stands in as a wandering signifier and as a metonym for Asia a gesture that essentialises it as an unchanging other On another level it argues that the novels employment of China resists essentialist constructions of identity China is thus shown to be serving as a concept which allows for criticism of the construction of fetishized otherness and of the exclusion inherent in essentialist discourses of identity The book presents and analyses the depiction of an imaginary of China which is arguably performative but which discloses the tropes and themes which may be both established and subverted in the novels Chapter One examines the way in which China is represented and constructed in Latin American novels where this country is a setting for their stories The novels studied in Chapter Two are linked to the presence of Chinese communities in Latin America The final chapter examines novels whose main theme is travel to contemporary China Ultimately in the novels studied in this book China serves as a concept through which essentialist notions of identity are critiqued      Border Fictions Claudia

Sadowski-Smith,2008 Border Fictions offers the first comparative analysis of multiethnic and transnational cultural representations about the United States borders with Mexico and Canada Blending textual analysis with theories of globalization and empire Claudia Sadowski Smith forges a new model of inter American studies Border Fictions places into dialogue a variety of hemispheric perspectives from Chicana o Asian American American Indian Latin American and Canadian studies Each chapter examines fiction that ranges widely from celebrated authors such as Carlos Fuentes Leslie Marmon Silko and Alberto R os to writers whose contributions to border literature have not yet been fully appreciated including Karen Tei Yamashita Thomas King Janette Turner Hospital and emerging Chicana o writers of the U S Mexico border Proposing a diverse and geographically expansive view of border and inter American studies Border Fictions links the work of these and numerous other authors to civil rights movements environmental justice activism struggles for land and border crossing rights as well as to anti imperialist forms of nationalism in the United States neighboring countries The book forces us to take into account the ways in which shifts in the nature of global relations affect literary production especially in its hemispheric manifestations      Hemispheric Imaginations Helmbrecht Breinig,2016-12-06 What image of Latin America have North American fiction writers created found or echoed and how has the prevailing discourse about the region shaped their work How have their writings contributed to the discursive construction of our southern neighbors and how has the literature undermined this construction and added layers of complexity that subvert any approach based on stereotypes Combining American Studies Canadian Studies Latin American Studies and Cultural Theory Breinig relies on long scholarly experience to answer these and other questions Hemispheric Imaginations an ambitious interdisciplinary study of literary representations of Latin America as encounters with the other is among the most extensive such studies to date It will appeal to a broad range of scholars of American Studies
