The Asiatic Fathers of America Hendon M. Harris Jr.,2015-03-24 Much evidence from both sides of the Pacific indicates that people from Asia reached America at very early dates It also appears that at least occasional trips were made back to Asia This book explores some of the early Asian accounts about voyages to a beautiful land to their east called Fu Sang It explains how that trip was possible Included are photos of an ancient Asian world map that show the location of the fabled Fu Sang right where America should be      The Once and Future World Order Amitav Acharya,2025-04-08 The epic story of the past present and future of world order offering a timely Odd Arne Westad coauthor of The Great Transformation argument that the decline of the West may be a good thing for the world Since the dawn of the twenty first century the West has been in crisis Social unrest political polarization and the rise of other great powers especially China threaten to unravel today's Western led world order Many fear this would lead to global chaos But the West has never had a monopoly on order Surveying five thousand years of global history political scientist Amitav Acharya reveals that world order the political architecture enabling cooperation and peace among nations existed long before the rise of the West Moving from ancient Sumer India Greece and Mesoamerica through medieval caliphates and Eurasian empires into the present Acharya shows that humanitarian values economic interdependence and rules of inter state conduct emerged across the globe over millennia History suggests order will endure even as the West retreats In fact the end of Western dominance offers us the opportunity to build a better world where non Western nations find more voice power and prosperity Instead of fearing the future the Agriculture and Rural Connections in the Pacific Lei Guang,2017-05-15 Agriculture and Rural Connections in the Pacific brings together key studies from across several disciplines to examine the history of trans Pacific rural and agricultural connections and to show an agriculturally oriented Pacific World in the making since the 1500s Historical globalization is commonly understood as a process that is propelled by industry or commerce yet the seeds of global integration literally as well as metaphorically were sown much earlier when crops and plants dispersed agricultural systems proliferated and rural people migrated across oceans One goal of this volume is to demonstrate that the historical processes of globalization contained an agrarian dimension in which sub national and national spaces were shaped in part through the influence of forces that originated in distant lands Social and economic trends emanating from outside local territories had large impacts on demographic change choices of agrarian systems and the cropping patterns in many domestic settings A second goal is to encourage readers to abandon the traditional Euro centric view of events that shaped the Pacific region The modern history of the Pacific World was undoubtedly shaped by Western imperialism colonialism and European trade and migration but the present volume seeks to balance the interpretation of those forces with an emphasis on the increasing intensity of trans Pacific interactions through rural labor migration and agricultural production      Latin America, a Selected Functional and Country Bibliography ,1968
