Argentina e o Brasil Frente aos Estados Unidos (2003 - 2015) : Entre a Autonomia e a Subordinação Lívia Peres Milani, 2021-08-27. O livro Argentina e o Brasil frente aos Estados Unidos 2003-2015 entre a autonomia e a subordinação aborda as relações entre a potência global e a América do Sul durante o período da ascensão de governos progressistas na região tendo como foco as relações bilaterais com o Brasil e com a Argentina. A autora argumenta que durante o período destacado a potência buscou manter sua influência regional apesar do desafio representado pela assertividade dos países sul-americanos e pelas crescentes influências chinesa e russa na região. Na obra defendido o argumento de que a retomada dos projetos de autonomia foi provocada pelas mudanças nas coalizões politicamente predominantes na Argentina e no Brasil e pelas mudanças no cenário internacional com o aumento da atuação chinesa na América do Sul. Assim não houve negligência dos EUA e apesar dos desafios impostos pela China a potência hegemônica manteve a capacidade de impor custos e incentivos aos governos latino-americanos. A cooperação no campo da segurança incluindo as relações entre os militares e os agentes de segurança pública permaneceu como um sustentáculo importante da influência estadunidense. Refletir sobre o período em pauta de grande relevância especialmente no momento contemporâneo no qual há uma reversão do processo com o aprofundamento da subserviência do Brasil aos Estados Unidos. Entender como governos anteriores buscaram se contrapor à potência quais as possibilidades e limites de resistência e como o processo foi revertido essencial para pensar o futuro e as alternativas existentes para o Brasil e para a América do Sul na esfera internacional.
