Arqueología en circulación. Nacionalismo y turismo en monedas, billetes, sellos postales y guías de César Villalobos Acosta, 2025-02-07 En la actualidad es posible encontrar en la vida cotidiana algunos de los sitios arqueológicos más famosos del mundo. Es prácticamente imposible que transcurra el día sin haber visto una de sus imágenes. Pensemos por un momento en la forma en que estas imágenes aparecen ante nuestra mirada Aparecen en la publicidad de museos y símbolos nacionales nombres de calles propaganda turística estaciones de metro obras de teatro literatura cinematográfica en guías de turistas y hasta en logotipos de compañías privadas Esta ubicuidad es posible porque el pasado ha sido transformado en una persuasiva herramienta ideológica y económica La influencia recprocó entre las necesidades del presente y el potencial ideológico del pasado ha conducido naturalmente al patrimonio arqueológico a ser objeto de politización y mercantilización Esta investigación analiza el uso de la arqueología ya sea con fines nacionalistas o turísticos a partir del México posrevolucionario 1920 en adelante

Lightning Gods and Feathered Serpents Rex Koontz, 2010-01-01 El Tajín is an ancient Mesoamerican capital in Veracruz Mexico has long been admired for its stunning pyramids and ballcourts decorated with extensive sculptural programs Yet the city's singularity as the only center in the region with such a wealth of sculpture and fine architecture has hindered attempts to place it more firmly in the context of Mesoamerican history In Lightning Gods and Feathered Serpents Rex Koontz undertakes the first extensive treatment of El Tajín's iconography in over thirty years allowing us to view its imagery in the broader Mesoamerican context of rising capitals and new elites during a period of fundamental historical transformations Koontz focuses on three major architectural features the Pyramid of the Niches Central Plaza ensemble the South Ballcourt and the Mound of the Building Columns complex and investigates the meanings of their sculpture and how these meanings would have been experienced by specific audiences Koontz finds that the iconography of El Tajín reveals much about how motifs and elite rites growing out of the Classic period were transmitted to later Mesoamerican peoples as the cultures centered on Teotihuacan and the Maya became the myriad city states of the Early Postclassic period By reexamining the iconography of sculptures long in the record as well as introducing important new monuments and contexts Lightning Gods and Feathered Serpents clearly demonstrates El Tajín's numerous iconographic connections with other areas of Mesoamerica while also exploring its roots in an indigenous Gulf lowlands culture whose outlines are only now emerging At the same time it begins to uncover a largely ignored regional artistic culture of which Tajín is the crowning achievement
