México, nueva arquitectura Antonio Toca, Aníbal Figueroa Castrejón, 1991 México, nueva arquitectura 2 Antonio Toca, 1993 Modernity and the Architecture of Mexico Edward R. Burian, 2010-06-28 Since the mid 1970s there has been an extraordinary renewal of interest in early modern architecture both as a way of gaining insight into contemporary architectural culture and as a reaction to neoconservative postmodernism This book undertakes a critical reappraisal of the notion of modernity in Mexican architecture and its influence on a generation of Mexican architects whose works spanned the 1920s through the 1960s Nine essays by noted architects and architectural historians cover a range of topics from broad based critical commentaries to discussions of individual architects and buildings Among the latter are the architects Enrique del Moral Juan O Gorman Carlos Obregón Santacilia Juan Segura Mario Pani and the campus and stadium of the Ciudad Universitaria in Mexico City Relatively little has been published in English regarding this era in Mexican architecture Thus Modernity and the Architecture of Mexico will play a groundbreaking role in making the underlying assumptions ideological and political constructs and specific architect's agendas known to a wide audience in the humanities Likewise it should inspire greater appreciation for this undervalued body of works as an important contribution to the modern movement thereby shed light on what contributed to making Mexican Modernist architecture so distinctive globally Even if these architects were not always aware of the power structures their projects nonetheless supported discrimination marginalization and subjugation In that sense the book also reveals the extent to which these power structures are still present today The Making of Mexican Modernist Architecture s uniqueness lies in uncovering the remarkable buildings that arose amid the five power structures while at the same time questioning their validity It also voices the urgent need today for a new kind of architecture outside these boundaries The book is essential reading for anyone studying Mexican and Latin American architecture

Constructing Identity in Contemporary Architecture Peter Herrle, Stephanus Schmitz, 2009 The global spread of uniform modes of production and cultural values has been accompanied by a dissemination of stereotypes of modern architecture styles almost everywhere around the globe Paradoxically the reverse process has also emerged In some countries the elites feel the necessity to counterbalance the loss of identity and defend their own cultures against the intruding forces of globalization What started as a defensive notion has developed into a more progressive attempt to re create what has allegedly been lost This trend is being strongly expressed in discourses about architecture in countries of the South Who are the actors feeling compelled to construct new identities How are these new identities in architecture created in various parts of the world And which are the ingredients borrowed from various historical and ethnic traditions and other sources These and other questions are discussed in five case studies from different parts of the world written by renowned scholars from Brazil Mexico Egypt India and Singapore

Contemporary Architects Muriel Emanuel, 2016-01-23 Mujer maya y desarrollo rural en Yucatán Gina Villagómez, Wilbert Pinto, 1997 Idea de la muerte en México Lomnitz, Claudio, 2025-04-25 Esta obra es la primera historia social cultural y política de la muerte en una nación que hizo de ella su símbolo tutelar. Mediante el examen de la historia y del símbolo de la muerte, este innovador estudio marca un hito en la comprensión del rico y singular empleo que hacen los mexicanos de la imaginación de la muerte. A diferencia de los europeos y estadounidenses contemporáneos cuya negación de la muerte impregna sus culturas, el pueblo mexicano muestra y cultiva una familiaridad jovial, una intimidad que se convirtió en la piedra angular de su identidad nacional.

Breaking the Dead Silence Christina Horvath, Richard S. White, 2024-06-21 An Open Access edition will be available on publication. The murder of George Floyd in 2020, the renewed international take-up of the cry Black Lives Matter, and the subsequent toppling of a statue commemorating slave merchant turned philanthropist Edward Colston in Bristol provoked urgent questions on memorialisation, white privilege, social justice, and repair. Debates on how legacies of colonialism and empire in Britain should be addressed spilled out of the scholarly world into the public discourse. In the immediate wake of the statue toppling, this book offers a unique, distinctive, and timely contribution to those debates: a series of voices and experiences are offered as critical commentaries and accounts of recent interventions on an official heritage narrative. It sets out to break the dead silence by bringing together diverse perspectives from academics, artists, activists, heritage professionals, and tourist guides. The book offers fresh insights, referencing work attending to the impacts and legacies of colonisation, primarily in Bath and Bristol, augmented with comparative contributions from Lancaster and Mexico.
