Thinking in español captures conversations with leading Chicana and Chicano literary critics. This unique book consists of interviews with founding members of Chicano criticism conducted by the author Jesús Rosales who through his conversations with leaders such as Luis Leal, María Herrera-Sobek, Tey Diana Rebolledo, and Juan Rodríguez shows the path of criticism from 1848 to the present. The twelve critics interviewed for this project share certain characteristics. For each one, Mexico plays an essential role in his or her personal and academic background, and each is bilingual and bicultural, having received formal literary education in Spanish graduate programs. As products of the working class, each scholar here shares a sense of social consciousness and commitment that lends an urgency to their desire to promote Chicano literature and culture at the local, regional, national, and international levels. They serve as a source of inspiration and commitment for future generations of scholars of Chicano literature and leave a lasting legacy of their own. Thinking in español legitimizes Chicano criticism as an established discipline and documents the works of some of the most important critics of Chicano literature at the turn of the twentieth and into the twenty-first century. This timely book immortalizes literary-historical figures and documents the trajectory of Chicano criticism. La cultura. México (1880-1930) Ricardo Pérez Montfort, 2015-07-30. Distinciones Premio de la revista La Aventura de la Historia a la mejor iniciativa editorial Faith Formation and Popular Religion Anita De Luna, 2002 This book uses political religious and cultural history to examine catechesis Sister de Luna establishes that religión popular the core theme for Hispanic theology is Christian and Catholic and traces its elements in Church catechisms of the sixteenth through the twentieth centuries She goes on to examine the relationship between theology of beauty catechesis and spirituality establishing that the three disciplines were integral to faith formation in the early church but were separated through the centuries An in depth analysis of six selected catechisms reveals that popular religion as a combination of faith and culture was evident at the beginning of Hispanic Catholicism in the sixteenth century The investigation notes the gradual elimination and eventual replacement of the cultural aspects in the catechetical texts in the nineteenth century The author concludes that the reunification of the cultural spiritual symbols with the presentation of doctrine could revitalize catechesis and bring Christian evangelization to a renewed effectiveness *Catalog of Copyright Entries. México: Un Experimento Jalil SAAB H., 2010-07-26 Para entender al hombre del siglo XXI no se debería seleccionar como modelo a un país desarrollado con menos del 20% de la humanidad pero tampoco a una nación marginada. Debería buscar un lugar donde los flujos modernos y antiguos se encuentren donde los avances tecnológicos se enfrenten con carencias ancestrales, las experiencias históricas y culturales se aglutinen donde convivan agricultores primitivos y ejecutivos bursátiles. Este trabajo está dividido en dos partes. La primera esboza los orígenes de la civilización occidental y su implantación en México a lo largo de su historia desde el mundo prehispánico hasta finales del siglo XX, todo ello en forma desmistificada e iconoclasta. La segunda parte analiza las vivencias de aquellas generaciones posteriores a la Segunda Guerra Mundial, los posnucleares. Esta última intenta condensar las corrientes filosóficas, económicas, políticas y sociales producto de la evolución científica y tecnológica de nuestros días.
