Greenberg,William L. Alexander,Anne Browning-Aiken,2012-06-15 Neoliberalism and Commodity Production in Mexico details the impact of neoliberal practice on the production and exchange of basic resources in working class communities in Mexico Using anthropological investigations and a market driven approach contributors explain how uneven policies have undermined constitutional protections and working class interests since the Mexican Revolution of 1910 Detailed ethnographic fieldwork shows how foreign investment privatization deregulation and elimination of welfare benefits have devastated national industries and natural resources and threatened agriculture driving the campesinos and working class deeper into poverty Focusing on specific commodity chains and the changes to production and marketing under neoliberalism the contributors highlight the detrimental impacts of policies by telling the stories of those most affected by these changes They detail the complex interplay of local and global forces from the politically mediated systems of demand found at the local level to the increasingly powerful municipal and state governments and the global trade and banking institutions Sharing a common theoretical perspective and method throughout the chapters Neoliberalism and Commodity Production in Mexico is a multi sited ethnography that makes a significant contribution to studies of neoliberal ideology in practice Mexico Ramón Eduardo Ruiz,1963 Voices of Mexico ,1986 News commentary and documents on current events in Mexico and Latin America North American Regional Broadcasting Agreement, Mexican Broadcasting Agreement United States.
