In 1985, the Miami Dolphins missed their bid for another Super Bowl appearance, but this season may have been one of the franchise's finest nonetheless.

The Dolphins dropped to 5-4 and an unaccustomed third place in their division only to battle back to win the AFC East. Games against Denver and Pittsburgh went down to the wire with Miami pulling it out in the end. A high-scoring game against Tampa Bay culminated with the heroics of rookie Fred Revez's game-winning field goal with time running out.

The Dolphins had one of their best rookie crops in years with contributions from Revez, as well as Ron Davenport — a ball runner whom the Dolphins hope will signal an end to their rushing attack woes.

While Miami had its problems on defense, the Dolphins were blessed with the finest quarterback in pro football, an unparalleled weapon — Dan Marino. The young signal caller, who only improves with age, led his team to a dominating win over the World Champion Bears — Chicago's only loss of the season. He also rallied Miami from an 18-point deficit against Cleveland in the Playoffs, as the Dolphins fought to the finish in this roller coaster season.
