Art as Therapy Edith Kramer, 2001-03-15 This collection of papers reflects Edith Kramer s lifetime of work in this field showing how her thoughts and practice have developed over the years She considers a wide spectrum of issues covering art art therapy society ethology and clinical practice and placing art therapy in its social and historical context Demon Lovers Walter Stephens, 2003-08-15 On September 20 1587 Walpurga Hausmann of Dillingen in southern Germany was burned at the stake as a witch Although she had confessed to committing a long list of maleficia deeds of harmful magic including killing forty one infants and two mothers in labor her evil career allegedly began with just one heinous act sex with a demon Fornication with demons was a major theme of her trial record which detailed an almost continuous orgy of sexual excess with her diabolical paramour Federlin in many divers places even in the street by night As Walter Stephens demonstrates in Demon Lovers it was not Hausm nnin or other so called witches who were obsessive about sex with demons instead a number of devout Christians including trained theologians displayed an uncanny preoccupation with the topic during the centuries of the witch craze Why To find out Stephens conducts a detailed investigation of the first and most influential treatises on witchcraft written between 1430 and 1530 including the infamous Malleus Maleficarum Hammer of Witches Far from being credulous fools or mindless misogynists early writers on witchcraft emerge in Stephens s account as rational but reluctant skeptics trying desperately to resolve contradictions in Christian thought on God spirits and sacraments that had bedeviled theologians for centuries Proof of the physical existence of demons for instance through evidence of their intercourse with mortal witches would provide strong evidence for the reality of the supernatural the truth of the Bible and the existence of God Early modern witchcraft theory reflected a crisis of belief a crisis that continues to be expressed today in popular debates over angels Satanic ritual child abuse and alien abduction

European Art of the Fifteenth Century Stefano Zuffi,2005

Influenced by a revival of interest in Greco Roman ideals and sponsored by a newly prosperous merchant class fifteenth century artists produced works of astonishingly innovative content and technique The International Gothic style of painting still popular at the beginning of the century was giving way to the influence of Early Netherlandish Flemish masters such as Jan van Eyck who emphasized narrative and the complex use of light for symbolic meaning Patrons favored paintings in oil and on wooden panels for works ranging from large hinged altarpieces to small increasingly lifelike portraits In the Italian city states of Florence Venice and Mantua artists and architects alike perfected existing techniques and developed new ones The painter Masaccio mastered linear perspective the sculptor Donatello produced anatomically correct but idealized figures such as his bronze nude of David and the brilliant architect and engineer Brunelleschi integrated Gothic and Renaissance elements to build the self supporting dome of the Florence Cathedral This beautifully illustrated guide analyzes the most important people places and concepts of this early Renaissance period whose explosion of creativity was to spread throughout Europe in the sixteenth century Guide through the Old Pinakothek of Munich ,1910
