derived from tuning their driver to perform at his/her full potential. Thus, this book is for everyone who works with a driver: engineers, crew chiefs, team owners, mechanics, and the driver's parents. This unique book instructs the driver's support team how to prepare and communicate with the driver so the driver delivers the best performance in races, practice sessions, and off-track team functions. Written by veteran racer and driving coach Ross Bentley, this book helps the driver's support team devise effective approaches to tuning their driver. It will help them identify techniques that do and don't work with their specific driver. The result should be better communication and a driver who is tuned for success.

The Greatest Matthew Syed, Matthew Syed Consulting Ltd, 2017-02-23. What can Roger Federer teach us about the secret of longevity? What do the All Blacks have in common with improvised jazz musicians? What can cognitive neuroscientists tell us about what happens to the brains of sportspeople when they perform? And why did Johan Cruyff believe that beauty was more important than winning? Matthew Syed, the Sports Journalist of the Year 2016, answers these questions and more in a fascinating, wide-ranging, and provocative book about the mental game of sport. How do we become the best that we can be as individuals, teams, and as organisations? Sport, with its innate sense of drama, its competitive edge, its psychological pressures, its sense of morality, and its illusive quest for perfection, provides the answers.
