Romantic Presences in the Twentieth Century Mark Sandy,2016-04-08

Concerned with the intermingled thematic and formal preoccupations of Romantic thought and literary practice in works by twentieth century British Irish and American artists this collection examines the complicated legacy of Romanticism in twentieth century novels poetry and film Even as key twentieth century cultural movements have tried to subvert or debunk Romantic narratives of redemptive nature individualism perfectibility and the transcendence of art the forms and modes of feeling associated with the Romantic period continue to exert a signal influence on the modern moment both as a source of tension and as creative stimulus As the essays here show the exact meaning of the Romantic bequest may be bitterly contested but it has been difficult to leave behind The contributors take up a wide range of authors including Virginia Woolf F Scott Fitzgerald W H Auden Doris Lessing Seamus Heaney Hart Crane William Faulkner Don DeLillo and Jonathan Franzen What emerges from this lively volume is a fuller picture of the persistence and variety of the Romantic period s influence on the twentieth century

Handbook of Autobiography / Autofiction

Martina Wagner-Egelhaaf,2019-01-29 Autobiographical writings have been a major cultural genre from antiquity to the present time General questions of the literary as e g the relation between literature and reality truth and fiction the dependency of author narrator and figure or issues of individual and cultural styles etc can be studied preeminently in the autobiographical genre Yet the tradition of life writing has in the course of literary history developed manifold types and forms Especially in the globalized age where the media and other technological cultural factors contribute to a rapid transformation of lifestyles autobiographical writing has maintained even enhanced its popularity and importance By conceiving autobiography in a wide sense that includes memoirs diaries self portraits and autofiction as well as media transformations of the genre this three volume handbook offers a comprehensive survey of theoretical approaches systematic aspects and historical developments in an international and interdisciplinary perspective While autobiography is usually considered to be a European tradition special emphasis is placed on the modes of self representation in non Western cultures and on inter and transcultural perspectives of the genre The individual contributions are closely interconnected by a system of cross references The handbook addresses scholars of cultural and literary studies students as well as non academic readers
