Michel Tournier, Le Coq de Bruyère W. D. Redfern, 1996 This book is a study of Michel Tournier's collection of short stories Le Coq de bruyere but it is also much more Author Walter Redfern sees the stories as a microcosm of the whole fictional universe of Tournier widely regarded as France's premier living writer Michel Tournier's Metaphysical Fictions Susan Petit, 1991-01-01 This study of the fictional themes and techniques of Michel Tournier reveals his profound radicalism as a social critic and novelist despite the seeming conventionality of his works Guided by Tournier's essays and interviews Petit examines his fiction in light of plot sources philosophical and anthropological training and his belief that fiction should change the world Close study of Vendredi ou les limbes du Pacifique Le Roi des aulnes Les Meteoires Gaspard Melchior et Balthazar and La Goutte d'or as well as the short fiction in Le Coq de bruyere and Le Medianoche amoureux shows Tournier's revolutionary conception of plot structuring as he develops key themes whether religion sensuality or prejudice in more than twenty years spent reconceiving the nature of fiction Gilles Deleuze: Travels in Literature M. Bryden, 2006-11-28 Deleuze's writing is permeated with references to literature Despite asserting that he was not a literary critic Deleuze provides exhilarating and original interactions with texts This study offers in depth encounters between Deleuze's thought and the writers who fascinated him demonstrating the productivity of a Deleuzian frame of reference

Audio Book Mikko Keskinen, 2008-01-01 Audio Book deals with the ways in which the auditory voices sounds noises is represented in postphonograph narrative fiction More specifically it examines how the various technologies enabling the transmission or storing of sound and voice are figured in selected prose works Drawing from contemporary American British French and German literature the author discusses these use of these technologies in Nicholson Baker's Vox Michel Tournier's Tristan Vox Heinrich Böll's Murke's Collected Silences Don DeLillo's The Body Artist Nick Hornby's High Fidelity and Sylvia Brownrigg's The Metaphysical Touch The texts foreground sound technologies the telephone radio tape recorder answering machine record player or counterintuitively e mail in their narration and manifest important aspects of audio in literature In prior criticism these texts have not been systematically read from media technological perspectives The sound technologies represented in the texts problematize the clear distinction between speech and writing or between natural articulation and its technological reproduction Audio Book suggests that literary writing is metaphorically conceivable as a transmitting and storing technology as an audiobook of sorts capable of recording upon writing and reproducing upon reading auditory information The sound technologies proper have also bearing on the narrative structure metaphors and style of each fictional work studied in Audio Book In addition themes such as identity genre the nature of literary representation and the absence presence problem are brought to the fore on account of the technologies depicted Reform and Counterreform John C. Hawley, 2020-10-12 No detailed description available for Reform and Counterreform Paternity and Fatherhood Lieve Spaas, Trista Selous, 2016-07-27 What kind of connotation does the word father have in everyday language How have

states and governments defined and manipulated the paternal role What is a father figure What can literature tell us about absent or overbearing fathers How far is the cultural construct of fatherhood linked to biological paternity and what is biological paternity These are some of the questions explored through the chapters in this book which together offer a fascinatingly complex view of fatherhood across the centuries

Sexuality, Iconography, and Fiction in French Jason James Hartford, 2018-02-19 This book explores the modern cultural history of the queer martyr in France and Belgium By analyzing how popular writers in French responded to Catholic doctrine and the tradition of St Sebastian in art Queering the Martyr shows how religious and secular symbols overlapped to produce not one but two martyr types These are the queer type typified first by Gustave Flaubert which is a philosophical foil and the gay type popularized by Jean Genet but created by the Belgian Georges Eekhoud which is a political and pornographic device Grounded in feminist queer theory and working from a post psychoanalytical point of view the argument explores the potential and limits of these two figures noting especially the persistence of misogyny in religious culture
