Michelangelo Antonioni The Complete Films:

Antonioni, or, The Surface of the World Seymour Chatman, 2023-11-15 Michelangelo Antonioni is one of the great visual artists of the cinema. The central and distinguishing strength of Antonioni's mature films, Seymour Chatman argues, is narration by a kind of visual minimalism: by an intense concentration on the sheer appearance of things and a rejection of explanatory dialogue. Though traditional audiences have balked at the opacity of Antonioni's films, it is precisely their rendered surface that is so eloquent once one learns to read it. Not despite but through their silences, the films show a deep concern with the motives, perceptions, and vicissitudes of the emotional life. This study covers films not dealt with in any other book on the great director, including Il mistero di Obertwald (1980) and Identificazione di una donna (1982), which have not yet been seen in the U.S. Its coverage of the early documentaries and features when Antonioni was forging his new and original stylistic language is especially full. In a free-ranging analysis of the evolution of Antonioni's style, that quotes liberally from Antonioni's own highly articulate writings and interviews, Chatman shows how difficult it was for the filmmaker to liberate his art from the conventional means of rendering narrative, especially dialogue, conventional sound effects, and commentative music. From his first efforts to his triumphant achievements in the tetralogy of L'avventura, L'eclisse, and Il deserto rosso, Antonioni's acute sensibility struggled to achieve the mastery that has won him a secure place in film history. Chatman's study is the only complete account of Antonioni's work available in English. Its novel visual approach to the films will attract not only film scholars but also readers interested in painting and architecture, both important elements of Antonioni's work. Publisher's description. The A to Z of Italian Cinema Gino Moliterno, 2009-10-12. The Italian cinema is regarded as one of the great pillars of world cinema. Films like Ladri di biciclette (1948), La dolce vita (1960), and Nuovo cinema Paradiso (1988) attracted unprecedented international acclaim and a reputation which only continues to grow. Italian cinema has produced such acting legends as Sophia Loren and Roberto Benigni, as well as world-renowned filmmakers like Federico Fellini, Sergio Leone, Mario Bava, Dario Argento, and Lina Wertmüller, the first woman to ever be nominated for the Best Director award. The A to Z of Italian Cinema provides a better understanding of the role Italian cinema has played in film history through a chronology, an introductory essay, a bibliography, appendixes, black and white photos, and hundreds of cross-referenced dictionary entries on actors, actresses, movies, producers, organizations, awards, film credits, and terminology. A History of Italian Cinema Irmbert Schenk, 2024-11-15. Haunted Soundtracks Kevin J. Donnelly, Aimee Mollaghan, 2023-10-05 The turn of the millennium has heralded an outgrowth of culture that demonstrates an awareness of the ephemeral nature of history and the complexity underpinning the relationship between location and the past This has been especially apparent in the shifting relationship between landscape memory and sound in film television and other media The result is growing interest in soundtracks as part of audiovisual culture as well as an interest in the spectral aspects of culture more generally This collection of essays focuses on audiovisual forms that foreground landscape sound and memory The scope of inquiry emphasises the ghostly qualities of a certain body of soundtracks extending beyond merely the idea of scary films or haunted houses Rather the notion of sonic haunting is tied to ideas of trauma anxiety or nostalgia associated with spatial and temporal dislocation in contemporary society Touchstones for the approach are the concepts of psychogeography and hauntology pervasive and established critical strategies that are interrogated and refined in relation to the reification of the spectral within the soundtracks under consideration here
