Modern Classics in Entrepreneurship Studies Banu Ozkazanc-Pan,Arturo E. Osorio,Dev K. Dutta,Vishal K. Gupta,Golshan Javadian,Grace Chun Guo,2021-12-14 The purpose of this book is to identify and analyze modern classics in entrepreneurship research with the goal of highlighting cutting edge themes in the work of various scholars that are pushing the boundaries of the field post 2000 As the entrepreneurship field matures it is important to identify the novel contributions that will help shape the next decades of scholarship by providing scholars with the concepts frameworks and approaches needed to help develop the new theories and practices of entrepreneurship By focusing on emerging key contributions this book takes a stance that sets it apart from other similar works by scholars that have focused only on existing themes rather than those that will characterize the relationship between entrepreneurship and new technological advances growing inequalities gender diversity and inclusion and socio political shifts in the landscape of entrepreneurial ecosystems allowing for critical and new conversations on entrepreneurship to take shape This book will provide discussion on emergent themes and approaches that will continue to build the future of entrepreneurship as an exciting and rigorous academic discipline

A CHILD OF THE JAGO (Modern Classics Series) Arthur Morrison,2023-12-08 In A Child of the Jago Arthur Morrison expertly navigates the grim realities of life in the London slums during the late 19th century This novel characterized by its naturalistic style and vivid imagery immerses readers in the gritty atmosphere of the Jago where poverty crime and social decay form the backdrop of a young boy s turbulent journey Morrison s detailed observations and stark portrayal of the urban environment reflect the broader socio economic issues of his time providing a powerful commentary on the human condition and the often overlooked struggles of the working class Arthur Morrison was not only a novelist but also a fervent social observer like his contemporary George Gissing Having grown up in the East End of London Morrison's firsthand experiences of the impoverished neighborhoods undoubtedly shaped his understanding of the Jago's inhabitants His commitment to realism and social criticism stemmed from a deep empathy for society's marginalized making his work both poignant and urgent For those seeking a compelling exploration of resilience amidst adversity A Child of the Jago is essential reading Morrison's masterful prose and keen insights into the complexities of human relationships and societal structures invite readers to reflect on the enduring challenges of urban life This novel remains a timeless study of survival making it a crucial addition to the canon of modern classics
