Modern Antiquarian A Pre Millennial Odyssey Through Megalithic Britain:

Guarding Sacred Sites: The Nine Ladies Anti-Quarry Campaign Aimee Blease-Bourne, 2016-03-26 In 2009 environmental activists from all walks of life won a nine year battle to prevent quarrying on a sacred landscape in the Peak District National Park called Stanton Moor. The diversity of tactics employed from building a labyrinth of tree houses and tunnels to letter writing created an impenetrable defense. Guarding Sacred Sites is the first book study to document the direct action based campaign on Stanton Moor. It weaves personal first hand accounts of the author who lived on Stanton Moor at the protest site together with interviews and contributions from landowners, activists, locals and other users of the moor. The book creates an alternative social history for Stanton Moor.

Music, Memory and Memoir Robert Edgar, Fraser Mann, Helen Pleasance, 2019-06-27 Music, Memory and Memoir provides a unique look at the contemporary cultural phenomenon of the music memoir and leading from this the way that music is used to construct memory. Via analyses of memoirs that consider punk and pop, indie and dance, this text examines the nature of memory for musicians and the function of music in creating personal and cultural narratives. This book includes innovative and multidisciplinary approaches from a range of contributors consisting of academics, critics and musicians evaluating this phenomenon from multiple academic and creative practices and examines the contemporary music memoir in its cultural and literary contexts.

The Book of Unconformities Hugh Raffles, 2022-04-18 From the author of Insectopedia, a powerful exploration of loss, grief, endurance and the absences that permeate the present. Unconformities are gaps in the geological record, physical evidence of breaks in time. For Hugh Raffles, these holes in history are also fissures in feeling, knowledge, memory and understanding. In this endlessly inventive, riveting book, Raffles enters these gaps, drawing together threads of geology, history, literature, philosophy and ethnography to trace the intimate connections between personal loss and world historical events and to reveal the force of absence at the core of contemporary life. Through deeply researched explorations of Neolithic stone circles, Icelandic lava, mica from a Nazi concentration camp, petrified whale blubber in Svalbard, the marble prized by Manhattan's Lenape and a huge Greenlandic meteorite that arrived in New York City along with six Inuit adventurers in 1897, Raffles shows how unconformities unceasingly incite human imagination and investigation yet refuse to conform, heal or disappear. A journey across eons and continents, The Book of Unconformities is also a journey through stone, this most solid, ancient and enigmatic of materials. It turns out is as lively, capricious, willful and indifferent as time itself.

Shamanism Graham Harvey, 2003 This is an essential tribute to the vitality and breadth of shamanic tradition both amongst the most distant tribes of America and Asia and within seemingly ordinary aspects of modern western culture.

Queer Post-Cinema Astrid Deuber-Mankowsky, 2025-05-06 The pioneers of what has been labelled New Queer Cinema laid the foundation for a Queer Post Cinema, a movement in which artists experiment with technology in innovative ways. Through original readings of Todd Haynes's early films, Sharon Hayes and Yael Bartana's videos and installations, Su Friedrich's digital video Seeing Red, Charlie Producers's iPhone film Bridgit and

Claire Denis's science fiction film Highlife this monograph shows how artists are creating a new form of resistance in the time of the digital image and generative AI

The Lyre of Orpheus Christopher Partridge, 2014 The study of religion and popular culture is an increasingly significant area of scholarly inquiry Surprisingly however Christopher Partridge's The Lyre of Orpheus is the first general introduction to the subject of religion and popular music His aim in this book is to introduce a range of theoretical and methodological perspectives to be used in the study of religion and popular music and popular music subcultures He addresses a range of issues from postcolonialism to postmodernism from sex to drugs from violence to the demonic and from misogyny to misanthropy Part One provides a general overview of the history of popular music scholarship and the key approaches that have been taken Part Two looks at approaches from the perspectives of theology and religious studies examining key themes relating to particular genres and subcultures Part Three narrows the focus and examines key artists and bands mentioned in Part Two including Elvis Bob Dylan Madonna and Bjrk Written to be accessible to the undergraduate The Lyre of Orpheus will also appeal to general readers interested in the role of religion in our culture

A Future for Archaeology Robert Layton, Stephen Shennan, Peter Stone, 2016-09-16 Over the last thirty years issues of culture identity and meaning have moved out of the academic sphere to become central to politics and society at all levels from the local to the global Archaeology has been at the forefront of these moves towards a greater engagement with the non academic world often in an extremely practical and direct way for example in the disputes about the repatriation of human burials Such disputes have been central to the recognition that previously marginalized groups have rights in their own past that are important for their future The essays in this book look back at some of the most important events where a role for an archaeology concerned with the past in the present first emerged and look forward to the practical and theoretical issues now central to a socially engaged discipline and shaping its future This book is published in honor of Professor Peter Ucko who has played an unparalleled role in promoting awareness of the core issues in this volume among archaeologists

Shamans/neo-Shamans Robert J. Wallis, 2003 Robert J Wallis explores the interface between the new and prehistoric shamans of popular culture and anthropology drawing on interviews with a variety of practitioners particularly contemporary pagans in Britain and north America

How the Neolithics Influenced Rock 'n' Roll Andrew Johnstone, 2010-10-13 This book sets out to explore the connections between megalithic monuments and Rock n Roll music by first addressing what the megalithic structures would have originally meant to the builders and users of these sites and at the statements they were making at that time It then looks at how Rock n Roll artists have incorporated images of these monuments into album cover designs by looking at specific examples in an attempt to understand why despite being separated by millennia from the original builders they chose to use such places to represent the statements they are making through their music in the late 20th and early 21st centuries

The Recumbent Stone Circles of Aberdeenshire John Hill, 2021-03-15 Recumbent Stone Circles are a distinctive architectural style of British stone circle Built circa 2500 BC they dominated the Late Neolithic landscape of Aberdeenshire Scotland This book discusses their archaeology and using experimental archaeology explains how the original builders went about building these magnificent stone circles Sharing the results of the author's unique experiments the book demonstrates how measured ropes were used to set out the geometrical design of the stone rings as well as dictate the dimensions of the circles' respective orthostats Moreover given the book's provision of instructions on to repeat these experiments the reader will be able to explore how these circles not only captured their corresponding astronomy but how they were also positioned in the landscape so that they were astronomically aligned towards each other creating a network of inter aligned stone circles that enabled the prehistoric communities to synchronise both time and space across the vast regions of Aberdeenshire

The Britannias: An Archipelago's Tale Alice Albinia, 2024-02-27 Longlisted for the Ondaatje Prize and the Women's Prize for Non Fiction Shortlisted for the Stanford Travel Writing Award A dazzlingly brilliant book Hannah Dawson editor of The Penguin Book of Feminist Writing A revelatory portrait of Britain through its islands The Britannias weaves history myth and travelogue to rewrite the story of this island nation From Neolithic Orkney Viking Shetland and Druidical Anglesey to the joys and strangeness of modern Thanet The Britannias explores the farthest reaches of Britain's island topography once known by the collective term Britanniae the Britains This expansive journey demonstrates how the smaller islands have wielded disproportionate influence on the mainland becoming the fertile ground of political cultural and technological innovations that shaped history throughout the archipelago In an act of feminist inquiry personal adventure and literary quest Alice Albinia embarks on a series of journeys that traverse Britain and reach beyond its contemporary borders from Europe to the Caribbean Ireland to Scandinavia She walks the coastlines of Lindisfarne sails through the Hebrides archipelago and bikes into Westminster at dawn As she takes us across extravagantly varied island topographies and surveys centuries of history Albinia ranges between languages and genres and through disparate island cultures She talks to stubbornly independent islanders and searches for archaeological and linguistic traces of island identities discovering distinct traditions and resistance to mainland control Trespassing into the past to understand the present The Britannias uncovers an enduring and subversive mythology of islands ruled by women Albinia finds female independence woven through Roman colonial reports and Welsh medieval poetry Restoration utopias and island folk songs These neglected epics offer fierce feminist countercurrents to mainstream narratives of British identity and shed new light on women's status in the body politic today Vivid perceptive and disruptive The Britannias boldly upturns established truths about Britain while revealing its suppressed and forgotten beauty

Researching Paganisms Jenny Blain, Douglas Ezzy, Graham Harvey, 2004 Researchers of Paganism from a variety of disciplines examine how they have been affected by their contact with this nontraditional religion how this religion has been affected by academic researchers and what this reveals about participative research methods

Cultural Turns/Geographical Turns Simon Naylor, James Ryan, Ian Cook, David Crouch, 2018-10-08 Introduces undergraduates to the key debates regarding space and culture and the key

theoretical arguments which guide cultural geographical work This book addresses the impact significance and characteristics of the cultural turn in contemporary geography It focuses on the development of the cultural geography subdiscipline and on what has made it a peculiar and unique realm of study It demonstrates the importance of culture in the development of debates in other subdisciplines within geography and beyond In line with these previous themes the significance of space in the production of cultural values and expressions is also developed Along with its timely examination of the health of the cultural geographical subdiscipline this book is to be valued for its analysis of the impact of cultural theory on studies elsewhere in geography and of ideas of space and spatiality elsewhere in the social sciences Cultural Turns/geographical Turns Ian Cook,2000 This book addresses the impact significance and characteristics of the cultural turn in contemporary geography It focuses on the development of the cultural geography subdiscipline and on what has made it a peculiar and unique realm of study It demonstrates the importance of culture in the development of debates in other subdisciplines within geography and beyond In line with these previous themes the significance of space in the production of cultural values and expressions is also developed Along with its timely examination of the health of the cultural geographical subdiscipline this book is to be valued for its analysis of the impact of cultural theory on studies elsewhere in geography and of ideas of space and spatiality elsewhere in the social sciences The scope of the book is therefore broad covering work that spans the geographical discipline and even going beyond that to touch on debates in the social sciences and humanities The book s potential readership is also broad The summary chapters which precede each section will appeal to undergraduate students whilst chapters written by individuals leading their fields will be compulsory reading for researchers at all levels of higher education Upon a White Horse Peter Ross,2025-09-11 I m a card carrying admirer of Peter Ross Robert Macfarlane The prehistoric sites of Britain and Ireland are places of wonder and wondering Who made these structures What did they mean to them And what do they mean to us now Bestselling author Peter Ross journeys from midwinter at Stonehenge to midsummer at Sycamore Gap Along the way he encounters bog bodies in Dublin a wooden goddess in Edinburgh and a chalk giant in Dorset He asks what it is like to live within the great stone circle at Avebury what rituals occurred in an Anglesey tomb and what draws volunteers to care for the Uffington White Horse These objects and structures speak of the long human story They offer the comfort of recognition and the pleasure of mystery There is something about ancient places that fills a hollow in our souls Upon A White Horse is a celebration of landscape and people and all that is beautiful strange and old PRAISE FOR STEEPLE CHASING A delicious treat Financial Times A charming odyssey The Times Lovely lyrical whimsical elegiac TLS Engaging New Statesman A wonderful book Daily Telegraph The Archaeology of Shamanism Neil Price,2003-12-16 In this timely collection Neil Price provides a general introduction to the archaeology of shamanism by bringing together recent archaeological thought on the subject Blending theoretical discussion with detailed case studies the issues addressed include shamanic material culture responses to dying and the dead shamanic soundscapes the use of ritual architecture and shamanism in the context of other belief systems such as totemism Following an initial orientation reviewing shamanism as an anthropological construct the volume focuses on the Northern hemisphere with case studies from Greenland to Nepal Siberia to Kazakhstan The papers span a chronological range from Upper Palaeolithic to the present and explore such cross cutting themes as gender and the body identity landscape architecture as well as shamanic interpretations of rock art and shamanism in the heritage and cultural identity of indigenous peoples The volume also addresses the interpretation of shamanic beliefs in terms of cognitive neuroscience and the modern public perception of prehistoric shamanism The Archaeology of Shamanism Neil S. Price, 2001 No Australian Aboriginal content

Sculpture and Archaeology Andrew Jones, 2017-07-05 In recent years the intersections between art history and archaeology have become the focus of critical analysis by both disciplines Contemporary sculpture has played a key role in this dialogue The essays in this volume by art historians archaeologists and artists take the intersection between sculpture and archaeology as the prelude for analysis examining the metaphorical and conceptual role of archaeology as subject matter for sculptors and the significance of sculpture as a three dimensional medium for exploring historical attitudes to archaeology The Re-Enchantment of the West, Vol 2 Christopher Partridge, 2006-06-20 Challenging some assessments of religion in the West this study argues that although much organized religion particularly Christianity is in numerical decline in actual fact we are witnessing an alternative spiritual re enchantment of society and culture The Re-Enchantment of the West Christopher Partridge, 2005-01-04 As a book about emergent spirituality in the contemporary West this book focuses on the nature evolution and significance of new forms of religion and alternative spiritualities Part One of the book provides the theoretical background and guides the reader through some of the principal debates After an overview of the secularization thesis which argues that the West is becoming increasingly disenchanted the second chapter turns to the sociological analysis of new religions and alternative spiritualities Particular attention is given to the ideas of the sociologist of religion Ernst Troeltsch especially his enigmatic analysis of the emergence mystical religion which presciently provides helpful insights into understanding the contemporary alternative religious milieu Against sociologists such as Bryan Wilson and Steve Bruce this and the subsequent chapter argues that rather than being insignificant new forms of spirituality are actually proving to be a significant part of Western re enchantment Chapter 3 constructs a general theory of the re enchantment of the West
