Nelson Jennings, 2005 Japanese Christian leader Takakura Tokutaro 1885-1934 is the focus of this exhaustive historical and theological study Takakura's life spanned a critical period in developing Japan a new member of the modern family of nations At the age of 21 through the preaching of the immensely influential church leader Uemura Masahisa Takakura converted to the Christian faith He later spent over two years in the West reading extensively in British and German theology Takakura thus faced the challenge of absorbing numerous lines of influence and re articulating the Christian faith within his own generation s distinctly Japanese linguistic and religio cultural context His personal religious experience was a microcosm of the universalization of Christian theology during the nineteenth and twentieth centuries Despite having played important leadership roles within the Protestant Church in Japan during the 1920s and early 1930s Takakura s name is scarcely known outside limited Japanese theological circles This study lends recognition to his influential role in the Christian Church It also utilizes Takakura s example to provide further insight into the universalizing trend in Christian thought that continues even today

A Human History of Emotion Richard Firth-Godbehere,2021-11-16 A sweeping exploration of the ways in which emotions shaped the course of human history and how our experience and understanding of emotions have evolved along with us Eye opening and thought provoking Gina Rippon author of The Gendered Brain We humans like to think of ourselves as rational creatures who as a species have relied on calculation and intellect to survive But many of the most important moments in our history had little to do with cold hard facts and a lot to do with feelings Events ranging from the origins of philosophy to the birth of the world s major religions the fall of Rome the Scientific Revolution and some of the bloodiest wars that humanity has ever experienced can t be properly understood without understanding emotions Drawing on psychology neuroscience philosophy art and religious history Richard Firth Godbehere takes readers on a fascinating and wide ranging tour of the central and often under appreciated role emotions have played in human societies around the world and throughout history from Ancient Greece to Gambia Japan the Ottoman Empire the United States and beyond A Human History of Emotion vividly illustrates how our understanding and experience of emotions has changed over time and how our beliefs about feelings and our feelings themselves profoundly shaped us and the world we inhabit
