Modern Australian Painting 1960 197:

Australian Painting, 1788-1960 Bernard Smith, 1963      "Australian Art and Artists in London, 1950-1965" Simon Pierse, 2017-07-05 Subtle and wide ranging in its account this study explores the impact of Australian art in Britain in the two decades following the end of World War II and preceding the Swinging Sixties In a transitional period of decolonization in Britain Australian painting was briefly seized upon as a dynamic and reinvigorating force in contemporary art and a group of Australian artists settled in London where they held centre stage with group and solo exhibitions in the capital's most prestigious galleries The book traces the key influences of Sir Kenneth Clark Bernard Smith and Bryan Robertson in their various and varying roles as patrons ideologues and entrepreneurs for Australian art as well as the self definition and interaction of the artists themselves Simon Pierse interweaves multiple issues of the period into a cohesive historical narrative including the mechanics of the British art world the limited and frustrating cultural scene of 1950s Australia and the conservative influence of Australian government bodies Publishing for the first time archival material letters and photographs previously unavailable to scholars either in Britain or Australia this book demonstrates how the work of expatriate Australian artists living in London constructed a distinct vision of Australian identity for a foreign market

Australian Painting, 1788-1990 Bernard Smith, Terry E. Smith, 1991 With the three additional chapters on Australian painting since 1970 by Terry Smith      Australian Art in the National Gallery of Australia National Gallery of Australia, Anne Gray, 2002 Australian art in the National Gallery of Australia      Australian Painting, 1788-2000 Bernard Smith, Terry E. Smith, Christopher Robin Heathcote, 2001 This is the fourth edition of the classic text first published in 1962 It discusses the achievements of all Australia's leading artists and a great many lesser known ones It is written for those seeking a comprehensive introduction to the subject and will be valuable to students teachers and the general reader All facets of Australian painting are generously illustrated      Contemporary Art and Capitalist Modernization Octavian Esanu, 2020-10-08 This book addresses the art historical category of contemporary art from a transregional perspective but unlike other volumes of its kind it focuses in on non Western instantiations of the contemporary The book concerns itself with the historical conditions in which a radically new mode of artistic production distribution and consumption called contemporary art emerged in some countries of Eastern Europe the post Soviet republics of the USSR India Latin America and the Middle East following both local and broader sociopolitical processes of modernization and neoliberalization Its main argument is that one cannot fully engage with the idea of the global contemporary without also paying careful attention to the particular local and or national symptoms of the contemporary condition Part I is methodological and theoretical in scope while Part II is historical and documentary For the latter a number of case studies address the emergence of the category contemporary art in the context of Lebanon Egypt India Hungary Slovenia Croatia Bosnia and Herzegovina Armenia and Moldova The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history globalism cultural studies and postcolonial studies

Exhibitions Beyond Boundaries Harriet Atkinson, Verity Clarkson, Sarah A. Lichtman, 2022-12-01 After World War II museum and gallery exhibitions industrial and trade fairs biennials triennials festivals and world s fairs increasingly came to be used as locations for the exercise of soft power for displays of cultural diplomacy between nations and as spaces for addressing areas of social and political contestation Exhibitions Beyond Boundaries opens with a substantial introduction to the key debates followed by case studies that advance the field of exhibition histories both geographically and methodologically focusing on postwar transnational exchange and the wider networks engendered through exhibitions Chapters trace relations across Africa Asia Europe the Middle East the Pacific and the United States of America drawing on a range of approaches and perspectives principally from art and design history but also from social economic and political history and museum studies Featured case studies include the presentation of African American Art at FESMAN 66 and FESTAC 77 the US s 1961 Small Industries Exhibition in Colombo Israel s early appearances at the Venice Biennale the Vatican Pavilion at the 1964 1965 New York World s Fair and Hong Kong s Pavilion at Expo 70 in Tokyo recommendations make sure your visit is fun and hassle free After Taste Slavko Kacunko,2021-06-03 After Taste is an inquiry into a field of study dedicated to the reconsideration reconstruction and rehabilitation of the concept of Taste Taste is the category whose systematic historical and actual dimensions have traditionally been located in a variety of disciplines The actuality and potential of the study is based on a variety of collected facts from readings and experiences which materialize in the following features One concept figurative Taste two thinking traditions analytic and synthetic continental and three interrelated dimensions systematic historic and actual are presented in three parts or volumes As such the study presents a salient comprehensive companion for wider readership of humanities approaching conceptions of Taste for the first time Moreover After Taste is intended for anyone who hopes to make a further contribution to the subject Since its appearance and apparently short triumph some 250 years ago the concept of non literary Taste remained the linchpin of aesthetic theory and practice but also a category outreaching aesthetics Taste as the personal unity of the production theory and criticism of art and literature which was still largely taken as a given in the eighteenth century has meanwhile given way to a highly differentiated art world in which aesthetic discourse is placed in such a way that it can seemingly no longer have a conceptual or linguistic effect on general opinion making After Taste fills the gaps of systematic research by a comprehensive tracing of the emergence of the doctrines discourses and disciplinary dimensions of Taste up to the peak of its systematic and historical trajectory in the eighteenth century and onwards into the present day The guiding goal is a post disciplinary rehabilitation of the contested category as a preparation for its productive usage in emerging academic and popular contexts It shows how the category of Taste became the foundation legitimation and the catalyst for the emerging division of labour faculties and disciplines confirming the hypothesis of the immense impact and actuality of Taste in the contemporary world

Each Wild Idea Geoffrey Batchen,2002-02-22 Essays on photography and the medium s history and evolving identity In Each Wild Idea Geoffrey Batchen explores a wide range of photographic subjects from the timing of the medium s invention to the various implications of cyberculture Along the way he reflects on contemporary art photography the role of the vernacular in photography s history and the Australianness of Australian photography The essays all focus on a consideration of specific photographs from a humble combination of baby photos and bronzed booties to a masterwork by Alfred Stieglitz

Although Batchen views each photograph within the context of broader social and political forces he also engages its own distinctive formal attributes In short he sees photography as something that is simultaneously material and cultural In an effort to evoke the lived experience of history he frequently relies on sheer description as the mode of analysis insisting that we look right at rather than beyond the photograph being discussed A constant theme throughout the book is the question of photography s past present and future identity
