Modern Catholic Novel In Europe:

The Modern Catholic Novel in Europe Theodore P. Fraser, 1994 The traditional Catholic novel Fraser argues was built on a set of deeply held religious convictions that there was a hidden God as identified by Pascal and that this God pursued the erring soul The Hound of Heaven in Francis Thompson's metaphor that there was an essential Augustinian antagonism between flesh and spirit that the suffering of one individual however unjust could serve the purpose in the divine economy of redeeming the soul of another and that the Catholic world of sign and symbol reflects another invisible reality Therese Desqueyroux François Mauriac, 2005-03-11 François Mauriac's masterpiece and one of the greatest Catholic novels Thérèse Desqueyroux is the haunting story of an unhappily married young woman whose desperation drives her to thoughts of murder Mauriac paints an unforgettable portrait of spiritual isolation and despair but he also dramatizes the complex realities of forgiveness grace and redemption Set in the countryside outside Bordeaux in a region of overwhelming heat and sudden storms the novel's landscape reflects the inner world of Thérèse a figure who has captured the imaginations of readers for generations Raymond N MacKenzie's translation of Thérèse Desqueyroux the first since 1947 captures the poetic lyricism of Mauriac's prose as well as the intensity of his stream of consciousness narrative MacKenzie also provides notes and a biographical and interpretive introduction to help readers better appreciate the mastery of François Mauriac who was awarded the Nobel Prize in Literature in 1952 This volume also includes a translation of Conscience The Divine Instinct Mauriac's first draft of the story never before available in English Postmodern Fiction and the Break-Up of Britain Hywel Dix, 2011-11-03 A monograph analysing the symbolic role played by contemporary fiction in the break up of political and cultural consensus in British public life Columbia Dictionary of Modern European Literature Jean Albert Bédé, William Benbow Edgerton, 1980 With more than 1800 critical entries on the writers and literatures of 33 languages this work presents the entire range of modern European writing from the symbolist and modernist works rooted in the last decades of the nineteenth century through the avant garde and existentialist movement to Barthes Blanchot Breton and continental thought pertinent today The Search for Selfhood in Modern Literature M. Roston, 2001-09-05 The scientific achievements of the modern world failed to impress the leading writers of this century leaving them instead profoundly disturbed by a sense of lost values and of the insignificance of the individual in a universe seemingly indifferent to human concerns In The Search for Selfhood in Modern Literature Roston explores the strategies adopted by such mid-century authors as Greene Salinger Osborne Baldwin and others in their attempt to cope with the spiritual vacuity strategies including the emergence of the anti-hero and of literary existentialism and offer in the course of the investigation fascinatingly new insights into their work Geniuses, Addicts, and Scribbling Women Cynthia Cravens, 2023-01-15 Through a critical discussion of an array of written and visual texts that feature a writer as a main character Geniuses Addicts and Scribbling Women Portraits of the Writer in Popular Culture argues for a more nuanced conception of the role of writers in society their relationships with their reading publics the portrayals and realities of their labor and the construction of a writing identity Expounding upon the critical genre of authorship studies the contributors take on complex issues such as economics professionalization gender politics and writing pedagogy to shape the dialogue around the nature of representation and the practice of narrative Ultimately contributors consider the ways in which debates over art craft authorial celebrity and the literary marketplace define the parameters of culture in a given period and influence the work of culture producers The implications of such an analysis reveal much about the status and value of creative writers and their work This collection covers a wide range of historical periods offering a complex understanding of representations of writers from the medieval period to the Netflix era Such an evolution challenges the perception of the writer as a monolithic presence in society and highlights its multiplicity diversity and its transformations through cultural and political movements

Dangerous Edges of Graham Greene Dermot Gilvary, Darren J. N. Middleton, 2011-11-17 Informative broad ranging this title sheds new light on the life and literary art of one of the last century's most celebrated authors The first volume to be authorized by the Graham Greene Birthplace Trust Dangerous Edges of Graham Greene brings together writers journalists and scholars to investigate as well as to assess Greene's prolific oeuvre and intense personal interests Here the reader may explore everything from Greene's Vienna at the time of the filming of The Third Man to his sometimes fraught relationship with Evelyn Waugh from Greene's unconventional fictional treatment of women to his believing skepticism While Greene often informed friends that a ruling passion gives to a shelf of novels the unity of a system critics of his literary art have found it extraordinarily difficult to define the content of this ruling passion Perhaps this is because Greene's own character seems so paradoxical ironic even Moreover in believing that sin contains within itself the seeds of saintliness he consistently loiters on what Robert Browning calls the dangerous edge of things In exploring this dangerous edge this book covers the full breadth of Greene's life and literary career

The Third Spring Adam Schwartz, 2005-02 This book is the first detailed examination of these four authors as part of a Roman Catholic counter modern community of discourse It is informed by extensive research in the writers works scholarship on them and their personal papers Edinburgh Companion to Fin de Siecle Literature, Culture and the Arts Josephine M. Guy, 2017-12-20 The first scholarly comparative analysis of Jacques Derrida and Gilles Deleuze's philosophies of difference Graham Greene's Narrative Strategies M. Roston, 2006-07-31 In Narrative Strategies Roston focuses upon the Greene's texts themselves and their manipulation of reader response highlighting the innovative strategies that Greene developed to cope with the mid century invalidation of the traditional hero The result is a stimulating new reading of the major novels Modes of Faith Theodore Ziolkowski, 2011-08-22 In the decades surrounding World War I religious belief receded in the face of radical new ideas such as Marxism modern science Nietzschean philosophy and critical theology Modes of Faith addresses both this decline of religious belief and the new modes of secular faith that took religion's place in the minds of many writers and poets Theodore Ziolkowski here examines the motives for this embrace of the secular locating new modes of faith in art escapist travel socialism politicized myth and utopian visions James Joyce he reveals turned to art as an escape while Hermann Hesse made a pilgrimage to India in search of enlightenment Other writers such as Roger Martin du Gard and Thomas Mann sought temporary solace in communism or myth And H G Wells Ziolkowski argues took refuge in utopian dreams projected in another dimension altogether Rooted in innovative and careful comparative reading of the work of writers from France England Germany Italy and Russia Modes of Faith is a critical masterpiece by a distinguished literary scholar that offers an abundance of insight to anyone interested in the human compulsion to believe in forces that transcend the individual

The Double Vocation John M. Dunaway,1996 This study seeks to redefine the double role of those writers who have often been referred to as French Catholic novelists After a brief overview of the Catholic Renaissance movement in modern literature three acknowledged geniuses in this sub genre Georges Bernanos Francois Mauriac and Julien Green are meticulously reexamined in light of their Christian vocation For the first time in English the writings of the Franco Russian novelist Vladimir Volkoff are also discussed in considerable detail The book concludes with a theoretical chapter that raises troubling questions that apply to the double vocation namely What is the distinctive character of fiction when it is written by a professing Christian Are the two vocations of Christian and novelist fully compatible or mutually exclusive

The Oxford Handbook of European Romanticism Paul Hamilton,2016-01-14 TThe Oxford Handbook to European Romanticism brings together leading scholars in the field to examine the intellectual literary philosophical and political elements of European Romanticism The book focuses on the cultural history of the period extending from the French Revolution to the uprisings of 1848 It begins with a series of chapters examining key texts written by major writers in languages including French German Italian Spanish Russian Hungarian Greek and Polish amongst others A second section then explores the naturally inter disciplinary quality of Romanticism exemplified by the different discourses with which writers of the time set up an internal comparative dynamic These chapters highlight the sense a discourse gives of being written knowledgeably against other pretenders to completeness or comprehensiveness of self understanding of the time Discourses typically advance their own claims to resume European culture collaborating with and at the same time trying to assimilate each other in the process The main examples featured here are history geography drama theology language philosophy political theory the sciences and the media Each chapter offers an original and individual interpretation of an inherently comparative world of individual writers and the discursive idioms to which they are historically subject Together the forty one chapters provide a comprehensive and provocative overview of European Romanticism

Historical Dictionary of Catholicism William J. Collinge,2021-08-15 This work covers the whole history of Catholicism including the periods of Christian history prior to the present divisions into Catholic Orthodox and Protestant but within the earlier periods it focuses on the story line that leads to Catholicism in the Roman Rite and particularly to Roman Catholicism in the United States The Historical Dictionary of Catholicism Third Edition contains a chronology an introduction and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has more than 500 cross referenced entries on important persons and places as well as themes such as baptism contraception labor church architecture the sexual abuse crisis Catholic history doctrine and theology spirituality and worship moral and social teaching and church structure This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Catholicism Approaching Silence Mark W.

Dennis, Darren J. N. Middleton, 2015-02-26 Shusaku Endo is celebrated as one of Japan's great modern novelists often described as Japan's Graham Greene and Silence is considered by many Japanese and Western literary critics to be his masterpiece Approaching Silence is both a celebration of this award winning novel as well as a significant contribution to the growing body of work on literature and religion It features eminent scholars writing from Christian Buddhist literary and historical perspectives taking up for example the uneasy alliance between faith and doubt the complexities of discipleship and martyrdom the face of Christ and the bodhisattva ideal as well as the nature of suffering It also frames Silence through a wider lens comparing it to Endo's other works as well as to the fiction of other authors Approaching Silence promises to deepen academic appreciation for Endo within and beyond the West Includes an Afterword by Martin Scorsese on adapting Silence for the screen as well as the full text of Steven Dietz's play adaptation of Endo's novel The Bookshop of the World

Andrew Pettegree, Arthur der Weduwen, 2019-04-02 The untold story of how the Dutch conquered the European book market and became the world's greatest bibliophiles The Dutch Golden Age has long been seen as the age of Rembrandt and Vermeer whose paintings captured the public imagination and came to represent the marvel that was the Dutch Republic Yet there is another largely overlooked marvel in the Dutch world of the seventeenth century books In this fascinating account Andrew Pettegree and Arthur der Weduwen show how the Dutch produced many more books than pictures and bought and owned more books per capita than any other part of Europe Key innovations in marketing book auctions and newspaper advertising brought stability to a market where elsewhere publishers faced bankruptcy and created a population uniquely well informed and politically engaged This book tells for the first time the remarkable story of the Dutch conquest of the European book world and shows the true extent to which these pious prosperous quarrelsome and generous people were shaped by what they read Book history at its best Robert Darnton New York Review of Books Compelling and impressive THES Book of the Week An instant classic on Dutch book history BMGN Low Countries Historical Review AP European History Premium, 2025: Prep Book with 5 Practice Tests + Comprehensive Review + Online Practice Seth A.
