Modern Chinese Poetry Twenty Poets From The Republic Of China 1955 1965:

Modern Chinese Poetry, 1970 The Bloomsbury Handbook of Modern Chinese Literature in Translation Cosima Bruno, Lucas Klein, Chris Song, 2023-10-19 Offering the first systematic overview of modern and contemporary Chinese literature from a translation studies perspective this handbook provides students researchers and teachers with a context in which to read and appreciate the effects of linguistic and cultural transfer in Chinese literary works Translation matters It always has of course but more so when we want to reap the benefits of intercultural communication In many universities Chinese literature in English translation is taught as if it had been written in English As a result students submit what they read to their own cultural expectations they do not read in translation and do not attend to the protocols of knowing engagements and contestations that bind literature and society to each other The Bloomsbury Handbook of Modern Chinese Literature in Translation squarely addresses this pedagogical lack Organised in a tripartite structure around considerations of textual social and large scale spatial and historical circumstances its thirty plus essays each deal with a theme of translation studies as emerged from the translation of one or more Chinese literary works In doing so it offers new tools for reading and appreciating modern and contemporary Chinese literature in the global context of its translation offering in depth studies about eminent Chinese authors and their literary masterpieces in translation The first of its kind this book is essential reading for anyone studying or researching Chinese literature in translation Modern Chinese Stories and Novellas, 1919-1949 Joseph S. M. Lau, Chih-tsing Hsia, Leo Ou-fan Lee, 1981 This volume brings together some of the best and most historically significant works of short fiction written in China in this century 44 stories by twenty different authors including such important figures in the development of Chinese modernism as Lu Hs n Mao Tun Ting Ling and Shen Ts ung wen The companion volume to the highly acclaimed Traditional Chinese Stories which covered the period from the former Han dynasty to the beginning of Chinese modernism this new volume presents modernist short fiction from the thirty year period leading up to the Communist revolution of 1949 after which Chinese literature entered a new phase of development New Perspectives on Contemporary Chinese Poetry C. Lupke, 2007-12-25 This book brings together fresh research from experts on contemporary Chinese poetry built upon one of the most glorious poetic traditions of any civilization in the world yet historically neglected by scholars in English This comprehensive volume offers readable and provocative treatments of many of the most important Chinese poets of our age A Companion to Modern Chinese Literature Yingjin Zhang, 2015-08-07 This wide ranging Companion provides a vital overview of modern Chinese literature in different geopolitical areas from the 1840s to now It reviews major accomplishments of Chinese literary scholarship published in Chinese and English and brings attention to previously neglected important areas Offers the most thorough and concise coverage of modern Chinese literature to date drawing attention to previously neglected areas such as late Qing Sinophone and ethnic minority literature Several chapters explore literature in relation to Sinophone geopolitics regional culture urban culture visual culture print media and new media The introduction and two chapters furnish overviews of the institutional development of modern Chinese literature in Chinese and English scholarship since the mid twentieth century Contributions from leading literary scholars in mainland China and Hong Kong add their voices to international scholarship

Chinese Poetic Modernisms Paul Manfredi, Christopher Lupke, 2019-05-15 This volume of fourteen essays explores Chinese poetic modernism in all its facets from its origins in the 1920s through 21st century manifestations Modernisms in the plural reflects the complexity of the ideas and forms which can be associated with this literary historical term The volume s contributors take a variety of focus points from literary groups such as 9 Leaves or Bamboo Hat to individuals such as modernist sonneteer Feng Zhi or Taiwan experimentalist Xia Yu Hsia Y and Hong Kong modernist Leung Ping kwan to non biographically oriented chapters concerning modernist language poetry and visual art among other issues Collectively the volume endeavors to present as complete a picture of modernist practice in Chinese poetry as possible

Taiwanese Literature as World Literature Pei-yin Lin, Wen-chi Li, 2022-12-15 Owing to Taiwan s multi ethnic nature and palimpsestic colonial past Taiwanese literature is naturally multilingual Although it can be analyzed through frameworks of Japanophone literature and Chinese literature and the more provocative Sinophone literature only through viewing Taiwanese literature as world literature can we redress the limits of national identity and fully examine writers transculturation practice globally minded vision and the politics of its circulation Throughout the colonial era Taiwanese writers gained inspiration from global literary trends mainly but not exclusively through the medium of Japanese and Chinese Modernism was the mainstream literary style in 1960s Taiwan and since the 1980s Taiwanese literature has demonstrated a unique trajectory shaped jointly by postmodernism and postcolonialism These movements exhibit Taiwanese writers creative adaptations of world literary thought as a response to their local and trans national reality During the postwar years Taiwanese literature began to be more systematically introduced to world readers through translation Over the past few decades Taiwanese authors and their translated works have participated in global conversations such as those on climate change the post truth era and ethnic and gender equality Bringing together scholars and translators from Europe North America and East Asia the volume focuses on three interrelated themes the framing and worlding ploys of Taiwanese literature Taiwanese writers experience of transculturation and politics behind translating Taiwanese literature The volume stimulates new ways of conceptualizing Taiwanese literature demonstrates remarkable cases of Taiwanese authors co option of world trends in their Taiwan concerned writing and explores its readership and dissemination

Translation of Contemporary Taiwan Literature in a Cross-Cultural Context Szu-Wen Kung, 2021-03-01 Translation of Contemporary Taiwan Literature in a Cross Cultural Context explores the social cultural and linguistic implications of translation of Taiwan literature for transnational cultural exchange It demonstrates principally how asymmetrical cultural relationships mediation processes and ideologies of the translation players constitute the culture specific translation activity as a highly contested site where translation can reconstruct and rewrite the literature and the culture it represents Four main theoretical themes are explored in relation to such translation activity sociological studies cultural and rewriting studies English as a lingua franca and social and performative linguistics These offer insightful perspectives on the translation as an interpretive encounter between not only two languages two cultural systems and assumptions taking place but also among various translation mediators This book will be useful to scholars and students working on translation and cultural studies China Taiwan literature studies and literature studies in cross cultural contexts Baudelaire in China Gloria Bien,2012-12-14 Baudelaire s work entered China in the twentieth century amidst political and social upheavals accompanied by a literary revolution that called for classical models and modes of expression to be replaced by vernacular language and contemporary content Chinese writers welcomed their meeting with the West and openly embraced Western literature as providing models in developing their new literature Baudelaire s reception in China provides a representative study of this meeting of East and west His work which has been declared to stand between tradition and modernity also lies at the intersection between classical and modern literature in China Many of the best known and most highly regarded writers in twentieth century China were drawn to Baudelaire s work and some addressed it directly in their own writings Bien draws upon H R Jauss s theory of the shifting and expanding horizons of expectation in the reading and interpretation of a literary work and upon James J Y Lin s notion of worlds received and created by both author and reader to show how poetic lines images and ideas as well as Chinese critics comments eventually weave into a rich picture of Baudelaire s reception in China Translating Chinese Literature Eugene Chen Eoyang,Yaofu Lin,1995 Enth Papers presented at the first International conference on the translation of Chinese literature held in Taipei Nov 19 21 1990 The Columbia Companion to Modern East Asian Literature Joshua S. Mostow,2003 A Guide to Chinese Literature Wilt Idema,Lloyd Haft,1997 Selected for Choice s list of Outstanding Academic Books for 1997 A comprehensive overview of China s 3 000 years of literary history from its beginnings to the present day After an introductory section discussing the concept of literature and other features of traditional Chinese society crucial to understanding its writings the second part is broken into five major time periods earliest times to 100 c e 100 1000 1000 1875 1875 1915 and 1915 to the present corresponding to changes in book production The development of the major literary genres is traced in each of these periods The reference section in the cloth edition includes an annotated bibliography of more than 120 pages the paper edition has a shorter bibliography and is intended for classroom use

Worlds Apart Howard Goldblatt,2024-12-06 Thirteen selected papers from an international conference on contemporary Chinese literature held near Gunzburg Bavaria in June July 1986 constitute both a record of literary writings from the PRC Hong Kong and Taiwan as well as an overview of the broader international role of Chinese writing in translation

International Anthologies of Literature in Translation Harald Kittel,1995-01-01 Modernism and the Nativist Resistance Sung-sheng Chang,1993-07-28 The first comprehensive English language study of literary trends in the fiction of

Taiwan over the last forty years this pioneering work explores a rich tradition of literary Modernism in its shifting relationship with Chinese politics and culture Situating her subject in its historical context Sung sheng Yvonne Chang traces the connection between Taiwan s Modernists and the liberal scholars of pre Communist China She discusses the Modernists ambivalent relationship with contemporary Taiwan s conservative culture and provides a detailed critical survey of the strife between the Modernists and the socialistically inclined anti Western Nativists Chang s approach is comprehensive combining Chinese and comparative perspectives Employing the critical insights of Raymond Williams Peter Burger M M Bahktin and Fredric Jameson she investigates the complex issues involved in Chinese writers appropriation of avant gardism aestheticism and various other Western literary concepts and techniques Within this framework Chang offers original challenging interpretations of major works by the best known Chinese Modernists from Taiwan As an intensive introduction to a literature of considerable quality and impact and as a case study of the global spread of Western literary Modernism this book will be of great interest to students of Chinese and comparative literature and to those who wish to understand the broad patterns of twentieth century literary history

Zhou Mengdie's Poetry of Consciousness Lloyd Haft,2006 The Taiwan writer Zhou Mengdie 1921 is one of the greatest living Chinese language poets His poems are full of Buddhist allusions which have earned him the nickname poet monk but as Lloyd Haft shows in this in depth study Zhou s remarkably cosmopolitan poems can be read equally well in the light of Freudian dream analysis Husserl s phenomenology and the theory of the palindrome and related literary forms Zhou s true focus is not limited to Oriental philosophy or Taiwanese settings It is on the very nature of consciousness In Zhou s poetry traditional Chinese terms and images rather than imposing cultural boundaries are re framed in a sophisticated modern context which brings out their significance for worldwide readers All poems discussed including many in full or extensive translation are presented both in English and in the Chinese original This book will reveal new perspectives to readers interested in modern Taiwan literature comparative literature Chinese poetry and poetry in general and the interfaces of poetry with philosophy psychology and the search for identity

Frontier Taiwan Michelle Yeh,N. G. D. Malmqvist,2001-04-05 Taiwan has evolved dramatically from a little known island to an internationally acclaimed economic miracle and thriving democracy The history of modern Taiwanese poetry parallels and tells the story of this transformation from periphery to frontier Containing translations of nearly 400 poems from 50 poets spanning the entire twentieth century this anthology reveals Taiwan in a broad spectrum of themes forms and styles from lyrical meditation to political satire haiku to concrete poetry surrealism to postmodernism The in depth introduction outlines the development of modern poetry in the unique historical and cultural context of Taiwan Comprehensive in both depth and scope Frontier Taiwan beautifully captures the achievements of the nation s modern poetic traditions

Identity, Multiplicity, and Resistance in Taiwanese Poetry Wen-chi Li,2025-04-04 Li and his contributors explore how Taiwanese poets conceptualize their identities employing multiple voices to challenge political hegemony and re evaluate Taiwan s colonial legacy and nationalism Poetry in Taiwan exists at the intersection of Taiwanese Mandarin and Japanese languages and traditions The rise of China has contributed to the shrinking of Taiwan s international space leading to Taiwanese cultures often being viewed as tributaries or by products of China on the global stage They focus on Taiwanese poetry to highlight a history of local resistance in gender identity cultural and linguistic contexts They deconstruct the hegemony and homogeneity of Chineseness exploring multiple ways to reposition Taiwan on the map of world literature Essential reading for scholars of Sinophone literature as well as those interested in the history and culture of Taiwan
