Laudato Si LS and the UN Sustainable Development Goals SDGs The articles in this special issue are from that conference the hope is that they will provoke your thinking and lead to new action to make the world a better place How is it that the secular United Nations and the religious Vatican have a common vision for business At root this common vision for business flows from a common vision for society as a whole For business flowing from this common vision is a common understanding of the purpose of business Catholic social thought has always taught that the single minded focus on making money in business can never be acceptable The purpose of business is to create sustainable value for stakeholders and that value is not exclusively monetary value Talent Economics Gyan Nagpal,2012-12-03 The microscope on talent is in sharp focus and HR has more programmes and processes to manage talent than ever before Yet many CEOs continue to see talent management as an escalating risk The truth is that market realities across the world are so fundamentally different that one size solutions almost never succeed Talent Economics is a refreshingly new outside in view on talent which brings workforce analysis management practice and strategy together It uses economic inquiry as a discipline to present a brand new perspective in talent management as simply put economics is the study of how the forces of supply and demand allocate scarce resources Talent Economics presents business leaders an opportunity to step back and understand the ebb and flow of global talent before translating this new understanding into a winning strategy The Self-Made Myth Brian Miller, Mike Lapham,2012-03-05 Powerful compelling and well researched demolishes what may be the most destructive myth in America David Korten author of Agenda for a New Economy The Self Made Myth exposes the false claim that business success is the result of heroic individual effort with little or no outside help Brian Miller and Mike Lapham not only bust the myth they present profiles of business leaders who recognize the public investments and supports that made their success possible including Warren Buffett Ben Cohen of Ben and Jerry s New Belgium Brewing CEO Kim Jordan and others The book also thoroughly demolishes the claims of supposedly self made individuals such as Donald Trump and Ross Perot How we view the creation of wealth and individual success is critical because it shapes our choices on taxes regulation public investments in schools and infrastructure CEO pay and more It takes a village to raise a business and it s time to recognize that fact
