Modern Egypt The Formation Of A Nation State:

Modern Egypt Arthur Goldschmidt, 1988-08-11 This book is centered on Egypt's relatively early development as a nation and as a state and is written in language readily understandable to students or adult readers without prior background in Egyptian history, society and culture Modern Egypt Arthur Goldschmidt Jr, 2018 This second edition of scholar Arthur Goldschmidt presents a concise survey of Egyptian history since the mid eighteenth century. It focuses on Egypt's evolution as a nation state, dispelling common misconceptions about Egypt's modern history. Professor Goldschmidt calls upon recent Egyptian and Western scholarship to document pivotal points such as the 1952 revolution and to illuminate controversies such as those surrounding Sadat's role in the 1973 war with Israel. Modern Egypt is anecdotal as well as authoritative, covering social history, religion, politics, economics, military history, geography, and even the psychology of selected leaders. Faruq's impotence, Nasir's paranoia, and Sadat's glamour are all presented as they relate to policy motivations and outcomes. Modern Egypt paves the way to a clear understanding of events leading up to the Camp David accords of 1978 and then points beyond them to the emergent Muslim opposition, Sadat's assassination, and Mubarak's regime. This book is directed to students, journalists, diplomats, foreign visitors, and long-term residents and businesspeople who need to be familiar with Egypt, its role in Middle East affairs, and its involvement with the nations of the world. The Oxford Handbook of Modern Egyptian History Beth Baron, Jeffrey Culang, 2024 Until relatively recently, scholars of Egyptian history understood the modern period to begin with the movement of European people and ideas to Egypt's northern shores precipitated by Napoleon's invasion in 1798. From this perspective, modern Egyptian history was animated by the diverse and sometimes contradictory ways in which Egyptians responded over time to colonial power and modern forms of knowledge. This handbook, featuring 26 originally commissioned essays by top scholars in the field, adds to a growing literature that complicates the facile colonizer/colonized and modern/tradition binaries.

undergirding this view Modern Egyptian history is a continuous process of translation and adaptation invention and reinvention Bringing together a dynamic and accomplished group of historians of Egypt the book maps the present state of modern Egyptian history highlighting the most promising avenues of research and laying new ground upon which future generations of scholars may build The contributors address both long persisting themes in the field though in new ways as well as new themes reshaping how we understand modern Egyptian history and thus Middle Eastern and global history These include environment family infrastructure intellectuals labor law literature medicine politics popular culture and slavery Within these categories they explore issues of gender race and class The questions these scholars consider reflect pressing contemporary concerns and debates including medical sovereignty and bodily autonomy the management of the environment the rights and movements of workers courts and legal struggles cultural expression production and reception and the relationship between the army state and society

Historians, State and Politics in Twentieth Century Egypt

Anthony Gorman, 2012-11-12 This book deals with the relationship between historical scholarship and politics in twentieth century Egypt It examines the changing roles of the academic historian the university system the state and non academic scholarship and the tension between them in contesting the modern history of Egypt In a detailed discussion of the literature the study analyzes the political nature of competing interpretations and uses the examples of Copts and resident foreigners to demonstrate the dissonant challenges to the national discourse that testify to its limitations deficiencies and silences

Constructing Nationalism in Iran Meir Litvak, 2017-04-21 Nationalism has played an important role in the cultural and intellectual discourse of modernity that emerged in Iran from the late nineteenth century to the present promoting new formulations of collective identity and advocating a new and more active role for the broad strata of the public in politics The essays in this volume seek to shed light on the construction of nationalism in Iran in its many manifestations cultural social political and ideological by exploring on going debates on this important and progressive topic

Casting off the Veil Sania

Sharawi Lanfranchi, 2012-11-06 In 1923 when the pioneer of feminist activism Huda Shaarawi removed her veil in Cairo s train station she created what became a landmark and much copied gesture for feminists throughout Egypt and the Middle East and cemented her status as one of the most important feminists in twentieth century Egypt In Casting off the Veil her granddaughter Sania Sharawi Lanfranchi uses never before seen letters and photographs to explore the life and thought of Egypt s first feminist as she campaigned against British occupation as well as striving to improve conditions for women throughout the country From her birth into a wealthy and powerful family her early years spent in a harem to her iconic status as one of the most influential feminists in Middle Eastern history this is a fascinating portrait of a determined and ground breaking woman a rich and important story which will captivate everyone with an interest in Egyptian feminist or colonial history

Egypt From Independence to Revolution, 1919-1952 Selma Botman, 1991-10-01

This text offers an interpretation of Egypt s so called liberal era and an understanding of contemporary Egyptian society It analyses both mainstream and conventional political and social forces and political activism among people from widely differing backgrounds

Britain in the Middle East Robert T. Harrison, 2016-05-05 Britain in the Middle East provides a comprehensive survey of British involvement in the Middle East exploring their mutual construction and influence across the entire historical sweep of their relationship In the 17th century Britain was establishing trade links in the Middle East using its position in India to increasingly exclude other European powers Over the coming centuries this commercial influence developed into political power and finally formal empire as the British sought to control their regional hegemony through military force Robert Harrison charts this relationship exploring how the Middle East served as the launchpad for British offensive action in the World Wars and how resentment against colonial rule in the region led ultimately to political and Islamic revolutions and Britain's demise as a global imperial power

Encyclopedia of the Peoples of Africa and the Middle East Jamie Stokes, 2009 Encyclopedia of the Peoples of Africa and the Middle East is a two volume A to Z reference to the history and culture of the peoples of Africa and the Middle East

The Quest for Modernity Roel Meijer, 2018-10-24 This book analyses the political ideologies of the several highly influential liberal socialist and communist thinkers groups and movements which sought to modernize Egypt after World War II Most of the representatives of these currents intended to transform Egyptian society completely through rapid industrialization land reforms and economic planning which would eliminate the peasantry rationalize the economy and create a new Egyptian citizen who would live in accordance with the spirit of the age This study explains why and how most liberal and left wing intellectuals eventually supported the authoritarian modernization programme of the July Revolution of 1952 It gives new insights into intellectual life during one of the most optimistic periods in Egyptian history a time when Egypt was at the height of its power and believed a whole new future lay before it uniting the Arab world and joining Asia and Africa in the common struggle for independence and dignity

The British Defence of Egypt, 1935-1940 Steven Morewood, 2005 A comprehensive and challenging analysis of the British defence of Egypt primarily against fascist Italy in the critical lead up period to the Second World War Culminating in the decisive defeat of the Italian military threat at Sidi Barrani in December 1940 this is a fascinating new contribution to the field The security of Egypt a constant of British imperial strategy is a curiously neglected dimension of the still burning appeasement debate Steven Morewood adds to the originality of his interpretation by suggesting the old view should be reinstated that Mussolini should and could have been stopped in his empire building at the Abyssinian hurdle Thereafter as Nazi Germany tore the Versailles peace settlement to shreds the drift to war accelerated as British resolve and credibility were brought into question The fascist dictators in Rome and Berlin held no respect for weakness and Mussolini became the conduit through which Hitler could apply pressure to a sensitive British interest through reinforcing Libya at critical moments

The British Defence of Egypt, 1935-40 Steve Morewood, 2004-11-25 A comprehensive and challenging analysis of the British defence of Egypt primarily against fascist Italy in the critical lead up period to the Second World War

Culminating in the decisive defeat of the Italian military threat at Sidi Barrani in December 1940 this is a fascinating new contribution to the field The Wilsonian Moment Erez Manela,2007-07-23 During the Paris Peace Conference of 1919 while key decisions were debated by the victorious Allied powers a multitude of smaller nations and colonies held their breath waiting to see how their fates would be decided President Woodrow Wilson in his Fourteen Points had called for a free open minded and absolutely impartial adjustment of all colonial claims giving equal weight would be given to the opinions of the colonized peoples and the colonial powers Among those nations now paying close attention to Wilson s words and actions were the budding nationalist leaders of four disparate non Western societies Egypt India China and Korea That spring Wilson s words would help ignite political upheavals in all four of these countries This book is the first to place the 1919 Revolution in Egypt the Rowlatt Satyagraha in India the May Fourth movement in China and the March First uprising in Korea in the context of a broader Wilsonian moment that challenged the existing international order Using primary source material from America Europe and Asia historian Erez Manela tells the story of how emerging nationalist movements appropriated Wilsonian language and adapted it to their own local culture and politics as they launched into action on the international stage The rapid disintegration of the Wilsonian promise left a legacy of disillusionment and facilitated the spread of revisionist ideologies and movements in these societies future leaders of Third World liberation movements Mao Zedong Ho Chi Minh and Jawaharlal Nehru among others were profoundly shaped by their experiences at the time The importance of the Paris Peace Conference and Wilson s influence on international affairs far from the battlefields of Europe cannot be underestimated Now for the first time we can clearly see just how the events played out at Versailles sparked a wave of nationalism that is still resonating globally today Encyclopedia of Islam Juan Eduardo Campo,2009 Explores the terms concepts personalities historical events and institutions that helped shape the history of this religion and the way it is practiced today Islamism, Arab Spring, and the Future of Democracy Leonid Grinin,Andrey Korotayev,Arno Tausch,2018-09-26 This book provides an in depth analysis of public opinion patterns among Muslims particularly in the Arab world On the basis of data from the World Values Survey the Arab Barometer Project and the Arab Opinion Index it compares the dynamics of Muslim opinion structures with global publics and arrives at social scientific predictions of value changes in the region Using country factor scores from a variety of surveys it also develops composite indices of support for democracy and a liberal society on a global level and in the Muslim world and analyzes a multivariate model of opinion structures in the Arab world based on over 40 variables from 12 countries in the Arab League and covering 67% of the total population of the Arab countries While being optimistic about the general long term trend towards democracy and the resilience of Arab and Muslim civil society to Islamism the book also highlights anti Semitic trends in the region and discusses them in the larger context of xenophobia in traditional societies In light of the current global confrontation with radical Islamism this book provides vital material for policy planners academics and think tanks alike Egypt on the Brink Tarek Osman,2013-07-31

3268_00_FM 3268_01_Text 3268_02_Index Sonallah Ibrahim Paul Starkey, 2016-06-02 This book provides an introduction not only to the works of Sun Allah Ibrahim but also more generally to the modern literature of Egypt and elsewhere in the Arab world over a 40 year period in its social historical and political setting Globalizations from Below Theodor Tudoroiu, 2022-09-09 Globalizations from Below uses a Constructivist International Relations approach that emphasizes the centrality of normative power to analyze and compare the four globalizations from below These are 1 the counter hegemonic globalization represented by the movement of movements of alter globalization transnational social activists who try to put an end to the Neoliberal nature of the Western centered globalization from above 2 the non hegemonic globalization enacted by ant traders that are part of the transnational informal economy 3 the partially similar Chinese centered globalization whose entrepreneurial migrants are strongly influenced and instrumentalized by the Chinese state and 4 the first wave globalization from below that paralleled and outlived the 1870 1914 globalization from above This book identifies their common features and uses them to define the concept of globalization from below as a set of socio economic or socio political processes that involve large transnational flows of people goods and or ideas characterized at least in part by informality They are enacted by entrepreneurial or activist individuals who either take advantage of the normative power of the hegemon at the origin of an international order and an associated globalization from above or explicitly or implicitly transgress contest and try to redefine dominant economic legal political and socio cultural norms thus challenging the existing international order and globalization from above By constructing a unified theoretical framework this book attempts to open a new field of interdisciplinary research that should take globalizations from below out of their current scholarly marginality This is one of the first scholarly works to collectively present more than one globalization from below and will be of great interest to students scholars and researchers of International Relations International Political Economy Development Studies Economic History Anthropology Diaspora Studies and Chinese Studies Re-envisioning Egypt 1919-1952 Arthur Goldschmidt, Amy J. Johnson, Barak A. Salmoni, 2005 Re Envisioning Egypt 1919 1952 presents new and often dismissed aspects of the constitutional monarchy era in Egyptian history It demonstrates that many of the domestic and regional sociopolitical and cultural changes credited to the 1952 revolutionaries actually began in the decades before the July coup Arguing against the predominant view of the pre revolutionary era in Egypt as one of creeping decay the volume restores understandings of the 1919 1952 years as integral to modern nation state formation and social transformation The book s contributors show that Egypt s real revolutions were long term processes emerging over several decades prior to 1952 The leaders of the 1952 coup capitalized on these developments yet earlier changes in Egyptian society fundamentally facilitated their actions and policies This volume includes revisionist discussion of domestic political issues and foreign policy the military education social reform and class as well as popular media art and literature By introducing new approaches to these under appreciated categories of analysis through exploration of untapped sources and by re examining the political context of the time Re Envisioning Egypt 1919 1952 proposes innovative methodologies for understanding this crucial period in Egyptian history casting these years as fundamental to the country s twentieth century trajectory Contributors Tewfik Aclimandos Malak Badrawi Andrew Flibbert Nancy Gallagher Arthur Goldschmidt Mervat Hatem Misako Ikeda Amy J Johnson Anne Claire Kerboeuf Samia Kholoussi Hanan Kholoussy Fred Lawson Shaun T Lopez Scott David McIntosh Roger Owen Lucie Ryzova Barak A Salmoni James Whidden Caroline Williams
