Modern Egyptian Art 1910-2003:

Modern Egyptian Art, 1910-2003 Liliane Karnouk, 2005 From the early years of the twentieth century with the rejection of European political and cultural domination in Egypt modern artistic expression in Egypt was influenced by and often reflected the country's growing national consciousness In the years following the 1952 revolution wealthy patrons of the arts disappeared from Egypt's cosmopolitan art world and were replaced by the state which by the 1960s exercised full control over all cultural activities including the arts In the 1990s as elsewhere throughout the world Egyptian art was affected by general shifts in culture brought about by globalization The disruption of a sense of place and feelings of belonging were a response to the influx of the challenging and at times disquieting information available to whole cultures and communities through new media Examining the work of over 70 artists from 1910 until the present day Liliane Karnouk traces the parallel steps of modern Egyptian art and the social and political environment in which that art was and continues to be created Fully illustrated with over 280 color and black and white illustrations this comprehensive volume is both a feast for the eyes and a mine of information for artists and non specialists alike Modern Art in Egypt Fatenn Mostafa Kanafani, 2020-06-25 Following a spectacular surge in interest for Egyptian masters Modern Art in Egypt fills the void in Egyptian art history chronicling the lives and legacies of six pioneering artists working under the British occupation Using Western style academic art as a starting point these artists championed cultural progress re appropriating Egyptian visual culture from European orientalist to found a neo Pharaonic School of Realism Modern Art in Egypt charts the years from Muhammad Ali's educational reforms to the mass influx of foreigners during the nineteenth century With a focus on the al Nahda thought movement this book provides an overview of the key policy makers reformists and feminists who founded the first School of Fine Arts in Egypt as well as cultural salons museums and arts collectives By combining political and aesthetic histories Fatenn Mostafa breaks the prevailing understanding that has preferred to see non Western art as derivatives of Western art movements Modern Art in Egypt re establishes Egypt's presence within the global Modernist canon The Changing Consumer Cultures of Modern Egypt Mona Abaza, 2006-12-01 This book consists of a collage of images that attempts to convey the transformation of consumer culture and how it is related to the urban reshaping of the city of Cairo to meet with the demands of globalisation Analyzing the shift from socialist economy to the opening up of Egypt's economy and how this has affected everyday life of the middle classes the author touches on various themes such as the general changing lifestyles and conspicuous consumption the spread of mobile phones and coffee shops the gated communities and secondary resorts The folklorisation of culture through the flowering tourist industry the expansion of local crafts plastic surgery and the body as a site of consumption are all analysed Although being influenced by the discourse of the Frankfurt school on the culture industry this work attempts to highlight the paradoxes pertaining to the democratising effects of consumer culture without denying the growing flagrant class polarisation Contemporary Art and the Display of Ancient Egypt Alice

Stevenson,2025-01-16 Artistic interventions are now a popular means of delivering fresh perspectives on museum displays including in galleries devoted to ancient Egypt Installations are commonly said to put the past and present into dialogue with each other offering external critical voices on the work of decolonisation Contemporary Art and the Display of Ancient Egypt argues that the contemporary and the ancient do not necessarily inform each other Instead they are mediated by and mediations of the museum that produces them Rather than explore how contemporary artists have been inspired by Egypt this book examines how they have shaped the language and discourse around study of the Egyptian past by looking at the wider field of public display in which both have been historically situated Building on this critical history of practice the book draws from experiments in bringing contemporary artistic sculptures conceptual pieces multimedia films sounds smells and performances into galleries at the British Museum in London the Egyptian Museum in Turin and the State Museum of Egyptian Art in Munich These are used to explore what contemporary art does in these spaces the motivations for inviting artists in and the legacies of those interventions It ends with a reflection on how academics and curators can be involved in the creative process and how artists contribute to academic research Praise for Contemporary Art and the Display of Ancient Egypt This is an important and innovative study on the recent history of incorporating art installations in galleries of Egyptian antiquities Offering a thoughtful critical analysis of the ways in which contemporary art and ancient artefacts are juxtaposed in museum settings the book calls for a more nuanced and politically engaged practice of collaboration between artists and Egyptologists Stephanie Moser University of Southampton Archaeologist Alice Stevenson provides a thoughtful consideration of the goals and intent behind contemporary art interventions in exhibitions of ancient Egyptian art She challenges the curators scholars and museum professionals who design these exhibitions to move beyond the simplistic ancient art contemporary art juxtaposition and instead use contemporary art interventions to create spaces for both artistic and academic insight and inspiration I look forward to such dialogue Kara Cooney UCLA Samia Mehrez,2010-01-01 A look at some of the raging debates in the arts in Egypt The Cambridge Companion to Modern Arab Culture Dwight F. Reynolds,2015-04-02 An accessible and wide ranging survey of modern Arab culture covering political intellectual and social aspects Revolutionary Art and Politics in Egypt Rounwah Adly Riyadh Bseiso,2023-01-26 This book examines the role of artists in Egypt during the 2011 revolution when street art from graffiti to political murals became ubiquitous facets of revolutionary spaces Through interviews personal testimonies and accounts of the lived experience of 25 street artists the book explores the meaning of art in revolutionary political contexts specifically by focusing on artistic production during liminal moments as the events of the Egyptian revolution unfolded The author privileges the perspective of the actors themselves to examine the ways that artists reacted to events and conceived of their art as means to further the goals of the revolution Based on fieldwork conducted in the years since 2011 the book provides a narrative of Egyptian artists participation in and representations of the revolution from hopeful beginnings to the subsequent crackdown and election of
