Modern History Of Ethiopia And The Horn Of Africa:

The Modern History of Ethiopia and the Horn of Africa Harold G. Marcus,1972 The Modern History of Ethiopia and the Horn of Africa Harold G. Marcus,1972 The Modern History of Ethiopia and the Horn of Africa Joel F. Handler,1972 The Cambridge History of Africa J. D. Fage,Roland Anthony Oliver,Michael Crowder,1975 The eighth and final volume of The Cambridge History of Africa covers the period 1940-75. It begins with a discussion of the role of the Second World War in the political decolonisation of Africa. Its terminal date of 1975 coincides with the retreat of Portugal, the last European colonial power in Africa, from its possessions and their accession to independence. The fifteen chapters which make up this volume examine on both a continental and regional scale the extent to which formal transfer of political power by the European colonial rulers also involved economic, social and cultural decolonisation. A major theme of the volume is the way the African successors to the colonial rulers dealt with their inheritance and how far they benefited particular economic groups and disadvantaged others. The contributors to this volume represent different disciplinary traditions and do not share a single theoretical perspective on the recent history of the continent, a subject that is still the occasion for passionate debate.

A Modern History Of Somalia I.M. Lewis,2019-05-20 This latest edition of A Modern History of the Somali brings I.M. Lewis's definitive history up to date and shows the amazing continuity of Somali forms of social organization. Lewis's history portrays the ingeniousness with which the Somali way of life has been adapted to all forms of modernity. By far the most penetrating of the works on Somalia. Inequalities and Conflicts in Modern and Contemporary African History Jan Záhorký,2018-11-16 The book deals with historical, social, economic, political and international causes, contexts and consequences of inequalities and conflicts in Africa. In particular, the book is to put conflicts and turbulences in Ethiopia in a broader African comparative perspective. It also identifies and analyzes multiple causes of conflicts which cannot be studied only as a result of one variable. Inequalities and conflicts have a whole set of causes stemming from historically inherited as well as global, international, socio-economic, political and other contexts which cannot be analyzed separately. This book is vital for anyone who is interested in the study of African history, comparative politics and conflict in Africa. The Cambridge History of Global Migrations: Volume 1, Migrations, 1400-1800 Cátia Antunes, Eric Tagliacozzo,2023-06-01 Volume I documents the lives and experiences of everyday people through the lens of human movement and mobility from 1400-1800. Focusing on the most important typologies of pre-industrial global migrations, this volume reveals how these movements transformed global paths of mobility, the impacts of which we still see in societies today. Case studies include those that arose from the demand for free, forced and unfree labour; long and short distance trade; rural-urban displacement; religious mobility; and the rise of the number of refugees worldwide. With thirty chapters from leading experts in the field, this authoritative volume is an essential and detailed study of how migration shaped the nature of global human interactions before the age of modern globalization. Somalia Nina J. Fitzgerald,2002 This country shares the status of Afghanistan until recently of being without a government It also seems to be a possible nesting ground for members of the al Qaeda terror network Somalia has been in the world spotlight numerous times in the 1990s This book brings together important issues of Somalia along with a brief version of its history and a selective bibliography The History of Islam in Africa Nehemia Levtzion,Randall L. Frontiers of Violence in North-East Africa Richard J. Reid,2011-03-24 Northeast Africa has one of the richest histories in the world and yet also one of the most violent Richard Reid offers an historical analysis of violent conflict in northeast Africa through the nineteenth and twentieth centuries incorporating the Ethiopian and Eritrean highlands and their escarpment and lowland peripheries stretching between the modern Eritrean Red Sea coast and the southern and eastern borderlands of present day Ethiopia Sudanese and Somali frontiers are also examined insofar as they can be related to ethnic political and religious conflict and the violent state and empire building processes which have defined the region since c 1800 Reid argues that this modern warfare is not solely the product of modern political failure but rather has its roots in a network of frontier zones which are both violent and creative Such borderlands have given rise to markedly militarised political cultures which are rooted in the violence of the nineteenth century and which in recent decades are manifest in authoritarian systems of government Reid thus traces the history of Amhara and Tigrayan imperialisms to the nationalist and ethnic revolutions which represented the march of volatile borderlands on the hegemonic centre He suggests a new interpretation of Ethiopian and Eritrean history arguing that the key to understanding the region s turbulent present lies in an appreciation of the role of the armed and politically fertile frontier in its deeper past

State institutions and leadership in Africa Irma Taddia,Tekeste Negash,2018-02-01 The central theme of this book is the role of education in the formation of a political class during and after the European colonial period in Africa The volume focuses on the various actors that informed and were part of this process such as African intellectuals and political leaders colonial troops European missionaries and administrators At the same time the collection analyses the historical processes connected to the emergence and development of a new African leadership such as the creation of a colonial school system the transformation of urban spaces the development of new environmental policies and the processes of nation building after independence The volume is made up of twelve contributions four on Ethiopia two on Eritrea two on the Sudan one on Somaliland two on Tanzania and one on Ghana African Foreign Policies in International Institutions Jason Warner, Timothy M. Shaw, 2018-05-18 This book is the first to exclusively consider the foreign policy tendencies of African states in international institutions As an edited volume offering empirically based perspectives from a variety of scholars this project disabuses the notion that Africa should be considered a niche interest in the field of foreign policy analysis It asserts that the actions of the continent's states collectively serve as an important heuristic by which to interrogate and understand the foreign policies of other global states and are not simply anomalously extant entities whose actions should be studied only insofar as they deviate from predictions based on the experiences of Western or other non-African states
